

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

When the republicans of Nemaha and Johnson counties named Judge J. G. O'Connell of this city and Hon. J. W. Armstrong of Auburn as legislative candidates from the districts in which they are included they named as strong a ticket as is possible. Judge O'Connell is a leading business man of Tecumseh, a wide-awake man of splendid ideas and has the utmost confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. Mr. Armstrong is a prominent and well liked citizen of Auburn, has had legislative experience and commands the respect of those who know him. It is a winning ticket.—Tecumseh Chief.

How's Your Liver?

It will pay you to take good care of your liver, because, if you do, your liver will take good care of you.

Sick liver puts you all out of sorts, makes you pale, dizzy, sick at the stomach, gives you stomach ache, headache, malaria, etc. Well liver keeps you well, by purifying your blood and digesting your food.

There is only one safe, certain and reliable liver medicine, and that is

Theford's Black-Draught

For over 60 years this wonderful vegetable remedy has been the standby in thousands of homes, and is today the favorite liver medicine in the world.

It acts gently on the liver and kidneys, and does not irritate the bowels.

It cures constipation, relieves congestion, and purifies the system from an overflow of bile, thereby keeping the body in perfect health.

Price 25c at all druggists and dealers. Test it.

The First congressional district is now represented by a farmer, and a man who looks after the interests of the farmers, stock raisers, fruit growers, etc. We do not believe the people of this district will turn him down for a fourth rate lawyer.

Nemaha county thought $40,000 enough to pay for the court house, and that sum was voted with the stipulation that the debt was to be cancelled in four years. That was just what happened, and the county is out of debt.—State Journal.

SHALL THERE BE A DUTY ON HIDES? is the title of the third document of the Congressional campaign of 1906, issued by the American Protective Tariff League. The pamphlet is a reproduction of the speech of Hon. Francis E. Warren, U. S. Senator of Wyoming, before the U. S. Senate. Send postal card request for free copy. Ask for Document No. 86. Address W. F. Wakeman, Sec'y., 339 Broadway New York.

There has been entirely too much talk during the past few years about competition is the life of trade and "reducing prices." Suppose prices are reduced at once to a point where some poor widow makes shirts at the rate of thirty cents a dozen, as is the case in New York, in order to keep body and soul together and put profits into the pocket of a few merchants who conduct "bargain sales." Is that a better condition for the community in general than it would be to pay living wages and have goods sold at prices and profits which enable small merchants and tradesmen to continue in business? Be a fraternalist in fact as well as in name!—Modern Woodman.

"MONKEYED WITH THE BUZZ SAW"

The political fate of Mr. Galusha, present secretary of state, may well be taken as a warning by all public officers who undertake to "get gay" and trifle with those things which in the public mind stand for principle and which are counted as an index of a citizen's makeup and character, says the Nebraska City Tribune. By failing of renomination at the end of his first term Mr. Galusha was handed the most clean cut and complete repudiation ever given to an aspirant for office by the republican party in Nebraska as no similar incident appears in the party history in this state. The editorial comment on this incident made by the Lincoln News, a near neighbor and personally friendly to Mr. Galusha, indicates plainly that Mr. Galusha "got his" for defiantly monkeying with the buzz saw of public and party convictions. The News says: "The turning down of Mr. Galusha for a second term is a stinging rebuke to a man who comported himself in a defiant and contemptuous manner towards his party and the people whom he has been serving. Of Mr. Galusha personally we have nothing to say, but Mr. Galusha, the officer, got just what was coming to him. His defeat is a notice to all office holders, present and to come, that republican platforms constitute the party law and are not to be lightly regarded. It is notice to the coming legislature that the splendid platform adopted yesterday means just what it says and that the men the people elect as members thereof must carry out the mandates of that platform or expect the ignominy they will earn."

In Self Defense

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky. when he was fiercely attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." MAJORS AND ROSEWATER

"Revenge is what I long have sought," Says Majors;

"I'll hand it to him smoking hot," Says Majors;

So when the spirits were cast down Of every man in this man's town—"Here goes old Nemaha for Brown," Said Majors.

—Bixby in State Journal.

Then Nemaha swung thirteen votes, the solid delegation, to Brown and the convention hall rang with deafening cheers.

The fine Italian band of Tom Majors was easily recognizable behind this coup which gave Brown a gain of nine, three of which were subtracted from Rosewater's column.—Omaha News.

On the sixth ballot, if one person more than another was responsible for the defeat of Rosewater, it was Tom Majors of Nemaha county.

Nemaha county had been scattering its vote, giving three or four even to Rosewater; but on the decisive sixth ballot Majors gathered together the entire thirteen votes and gave them to Brown.

Majors was the republican candidate for governor in 1894, and was defeated by reason of Rosewater's hard fight on him. Ever since he has been biding his time to "square accounts with the old man."—Omaha News.

Brown owes his nomination on the sixth ballot to the delegation from Nemaha county, that ancient home of statesmen. At the head of the delegation was the Veteran Tom Majors, and it was his plumping of the solid vote of Nemaha to Brown that resulted in the change of the dozen other votes that were necessary to pull victory out of the jaws of defeat. It was widely remarked that in effecting this coup, Majors found fuel and sweet revenge upon his old enemy, Mr. Rosewater, to whose unrelenting opposition he has always charged his defeat for governor by Silas A. Holcomb in 1894.—World Herald.

Early Tuesday morning Sheriff Rohrs was called to the phone by Roy Stephens, of Johnson, who informed Mr. Rohrs that he had shot a man in the ankle and that he come out and arrest the man, Kuttler by name.

Rohrs informed Stephens that when the necessary steps had been taken he would come and get the man. A phone call a little later told that Kuttler had hired a rig and started for Auburn and a close watch was kept for him. He was captured in front of the German-American bank, relieved of his weapons and taken to the sheriff's office and later to the jail.

On the 27th of last March Tony Kuttler was arrested for sending obscene matter through the mails.

Kuttler was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Stephens, who was formerly Kuttler's wife, and who had received the letters.

Kuttler was held to the circuit court, bond being fixed at $500 but could not furnish that so was lodged in jail.

It appears that he is now out under bond.

Tuesday morning he went to Stephens' home and was refused admittance to the house; went to a window, was driven away and then to another one where he appeared with a gun. From here he went to a third window and was attempting to enter when Stephens appeared with a gun which caused him to back off. Stephens fired the one shot which struck Kuttler in the ankle.

Kuttler claims to have gone to the house to secure his child.

At the jail his wound was dressed, the physician being unable to get the bullet, which had lodged in the bone. Stephens wished nothing to be done to the man; only for him to be put under bonds to keep the peace, which was thought would do no good and he was set free and left for Falls City. Probably no action will be taken against him.—Auburn Republican.

Galveston's Sea wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, LaGrippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at Hill Bro's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

One cause of the shortage in the treasury of one dollar bills, leading to Secretary Shaw's explanation of his inability to supply the demand, is the growing tendency in the west to follow the east in discarding the silver dollar. In New York one may buy and sell for days and not see a "cart wheel," and if a silver dollar appears it is accompanied with an apology. Such as drift into the banks are promptly exchanged at the treasury department for dollar silver certificates and are thus put out of circulation. From Secretary Shaw's circular one infers that some sections have demanded dollar bills without taking the trouble to send in the silver on which the issue of such bills must depend. This, taken together with the actual shortage of silver, now being made good as fast as possible by the buying and minting of silver makes it impossible to furnish all the dollar bills demanded. The west will be pleased with the change when it finally trades its silver for paper dollars. Most people have prosperity weight enough to carry without loading themselves down with a pocketful of metal.—State Journal.
