

THE NEW STORE

Has just received a fine line of Fall Dress Goods, Trimmings, Notions, etc.

New Styles

Prices to suit every purse

A Nobby Line of Ready Made Skirts

For misses and ladies

See the big Granite Pieces

we are selling for a quarter

EARLE CILBERT

NEMAHA, NEB.

Rock salt, 75c per hundred at the lumber yard.

Victor Rosewater succeeds his father as editor of the Omaha Bee.

The White Lily Washer for sale by Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Miss Cora Webber of Auburn was the guest of Mrs. Seymour Howe Sunday.

A fine line of samples of Brussel and Ingrain carpet at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

The Epworth League will hold services at the Methodist church Sunday night, beginning at 7:30. There will be no preaching as the pastor is attending conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, who have been visiting in New York state, returned home Wednesday. They certainly had a good time as they only expected to be away a month when they started.

Geo. R. Lindsey and Dicky Morton went to Otoe county last week to see about renting a farm. George rented an eighty one mile from Syracuse. Dicky made preliminary arrangements toward getting a farm.

Will F. Keeling went to Lincoln Tuesday to greet Bryan and incidentally to buy his stock of holiday goods and see the state fair. Mrs. Keeling and W. G. Maxwell are looking after the business during his absence.

The time for school is near and of course you will want

Tablets of all kinds

Pencils, Pens, Ink, Erasers, Pencil Boxes, and many other things that you will find at our store

We are Headquarters for School Supplies

Come and see the largest Tablet in town

Do not forget our Grocery and Dry Goods Stock

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20 NEMAHA, NEBR.

Golden Sheaf Flour

SELL SHOES

School begins next Monday.

The box ball alley left us Monday.

Harry Hoover went to Red Cloud Wednesday.

We had another rain Friday forenoon of last week.

Mrs. J. H. Littrell returned from Missouri Saturday morning.

Eddie Maxwell has a position in the C. B. & Q. shops in Wymore.

Wm. E. Smiley went to Wymore Monday, returning the next day.

John M. Clark got in another shipment of cattle Saturday morning.

Claud Maxwell, who went to Wymore Monday, has a job in the freight office.

J. H. Seid shipped some hogs to Lincoln Saturday morning for exhibition at the state fair, going with them. Ole Roberts also went along.

Louie Kerker started for Des Moines, Iowa, Friday morning of last week, to visit relatives.

B. Stroble, one of the old time merchants of Brownville, was a Nemaha visitor Monday.

About 35 Nemahaites went from here to Lincoln on the excursion Tuesday morning.

Willard Dressler came down from Omaha Saturday and visited his parents until Monday afternoon.

Charley Howe and Lester Russell started for Grand Junction, Colo., Tuesday, to look at the country.

Miss Vera Anderson of Auburn came to Nemaha Saturday and is visiting her friend, Miss Bessie Dressler.

Mrs. G. W. Hawxby hasn't been in a very good humor lately and we can't blame her. She had about 200 nice young chickens and some one stole all but about thirty of them. They also took most of the old ones.

The passenger train was two hours and a half late from the west Tuesday afternoon on account of a crippled engine.

Miss Grace Paris started for Wenatchee, Wash., Tuesday, to resume her duties as teacher in the public schools at that place.

J. I. Dressler and wife are among the many that are attending the state fair this week, going up on the excursion Tuesday.

Miss Rosa Munn of Steamboat Springs, Colo., who has been visiting J. I. Dressler and family went to Shenandoah, Iowa, Monday, to attend school.

Nate Sedoras and wife from Brownville spent Sunday with J. E. Crother and family. They brought Glendyn home who had been visiting them for several days.

Parents should make a special effort to have their children begin school on the first day. It is better for the individual pupil, for the school and for the teachers.

Marshall Webb started for the state of Washington Tuesday to visit relatives and friends. His son, Delbert, is out there and appears to like the country, as do all the former Nemaha citizens.

While John M. Clark was west last week he bought Todd and Daisy a nice little Shetland pony, shipping it in with the cattle. It weighs 460 pounds. It is broken to ride. Todd had it in town Saturday afternoon and won the hearts of many of the little folks by letting them ride on it.

School Tablets

Largest Line Best Tablets

Our line of Tablets has been carefully selected—good smooth paper handsome covers, and a big lot of paper for a nickle. Good blotters free. Pencils, Pens Ink Pencil Boxes

POSTOFFICE BOOK STORE

In the majority of county districts in this section, school commenced last Monday.

Alf B. Kinton and wife went to Peru Saturday and visited Earle Fisher and family over Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. Bucher, who has been visiting at Oregon, Mo., for two weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Eli Knapp is visiting her parents, Hon. V. P. Peabody and wife, while Ed is attending the state fair.

Call in and see the big line of school tablets, composition books pencils, etc., at the postoffice bookstore.

Joe Smith who has been working southwest of Auburn this summer, returned to Nemaha last week.

John P. Flack and his grandson Clayt went to Grand Island Saturday to visit his son, Will Flack, who is sick.

Miss Marie Wright, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Hill, for some time, returned to her home at Filley Saturday.

Found—By Charley Littrell, a pin in the shape of a star. Owner can have same by calling and paying for this notice.

Joe Littrell has been doing considerable repairing on his house recently and has repainted it, improving the looks very much.

T. J. Rumbough, who has been at Republican City for several days, has bought a piece of land four miles from there and will try farming.

Forrest ("Pat") Hoover has bought the interest of A. M. Cross in the fruit farm of Hoover & Cross, and the firm is now F. E. Hoover & Son.

J. W. Wolfe told Ed Knapp to drive down to his place Monday and pick what peaches he wanted to put up, and of course Ed accepted the invitation.

The Nemaha schools will have a change of teachers in all departments this year. The principal is J. E. Gibney of Elkhorn. The intermediate teacher is Miss Ella Bellas of Auburn, and the primary is Miss Lillian Neal of Peru.

School Supplies

As the schools open very soon it is time to think of buying supplies, etc. We have a full line of

TABLETS

Pencils, Slates, Pens, Erasers, Etc.

School districts buying a full line of supplies will be greatly benefitted if they investigate our line before buying elsewhere, as our prices will surprise you.

HILL BROS.

Druggists

Nemaha Nebraska

School Begins

in a few days.

W. F. Keeling

has the best assortment of

School Supplies

Ever brought to Nemaha.

Come and See

The big assortment of tablets, paper pencils, pens, ink, crayons etc.