

Saturday Special

AT THE NEW STORE

Any article in the north window, 10 cents
Beginning at 3 p. m. Saturday

Every Article worth 25 cents

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

Lew Argubright is now at Scott's Bluff, Nebr.

R. C. Morton moved to Auburn the first of the week.

C. H. Kindig started for Alberta, Canada, Monday.

We had a glorious rain Tuesday afternoon and night.

Miss Minnie Owens of Wymore came to Nemaha Tuesday on a visit.

Mrs. Sherwood and Ethel went to Stella Monday on a week's visit.

Postmaster Bamer of Bracken gave us a short call last Friday evening.

Geo. Crow went to Bracken Tuesday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Kite.

Von Farson moved on a farm a mile and a half from Johnson last Friday.

Rob Russell of Leroy, Nebr., came in to Nemaha Wednesday to visit friends.

August Quiller shipped two car loads of baled hay to Kansas City this week.

Mrs. W. H. Hoover, who has been visiting at Lincoln, returned home last Friday.

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn went to Peru Tuesday to enter the Normal school.

Claude Maxwell is now baggageman at Wymore. Eddie is fireman on the switch engine.

The school board has had the brick walk laid on the east and north of the school house grounds.

A little over an inch of water fell during the rainfall Tuesday and Tuesday night.

Elmer E. Allen and wife visited C. T. Minick and family at Johnson Wednesday.

A Mr. Alexander, from Belleville, Kas., has moved to Nemaha and will work on the section.

Misses Nora Aynes and Bessie Kay have been assisting John W. Ritchey during the absence of Miss Anna Knapp.

F. E. Hoover moved to Nemaha Saturday, or rather started to move there, and has been moving ever since.

Bruce Earl of Imperial, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha last Saturday and has been the guest of James A. Stephenson and family.

Mrs. Florence Jarvis and family, who have been visiting at Wabash, Neb., returned home Thursday afternoon of last week.

Jersey Cow Wanted
John S. Stull of Auburn wants to buy a young fresh Jersey cow or heifer—grade preferred.

Cow for Sale
A good young cow, half Jersey, half Shorthorn—fresh two months. Apply at this office.

Miss Mary Corzine, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Earle Gilbert, returned to her home in Douglas, Nebr., Wednesday.

T. J. Rumbaugh and wife returned from Republican City, Nebr., Saturday. They say the crops are good there. They bought 40 acres of good land.

Rock salt, 75c per hundred at the lumber yard.

The White Lily Washer for sale by Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Eddie Yackley has been helping in Will Keeling's store part of this week.

Buster Brown school shoes are the kind that wear. Earle Gilbert sells them.

The Nebraska Telephone Co's men were in Nemaha the first of the week, repairing the lines.

A fine line of samples of Brussel and Ingrain carpet at Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Mrs. C. F. Zook presented the editor's household with some fine sweet potatoes Tuesday—the best we have eaten this year.

Lester Russell and Charley Howe returned from Colorado Wednesday evening. We understand they did not buy any land.

John Evans, W. H. Morrow and Mrs. King of Shubert assisted in the choir at the funeral services of Mrs. C. M. Thompson last Sunday.

Ray Clark presented the editor with a big watermelon and the angels with another big one Thursday morning, for which he has the thanks of the entire force.

John Beard came in from Ravenna, Nebr., a few days ago to help take care of his aged father, who is very sick, suffering from a cancer on his face and dropsy.

A number of Earle Gilbert's customers are getting the premiums allowed with cash purchases. All express themselves well pleased, as the premiums are of the best qualities.

Rev. Gould, the new Methodist minister for Brownville and Bethel, is a new man in this conference, coming here from the west Nebraska conference. He is said to be an able man.

Fred Hoover gave the editor a nice watermelon Tuesday—the only trouble with it was that it was not ripe. But Fred promises us another one in its place and guarantees that it will be all right.

The children of Mrs. C. M. Thompson, deceased, desire through the Advertiser to return thanks to the kind neighbors and friends for the thoughtful care extended to their mother during her sickness and at her death and burial.

Jas. A. Shively lost a fine mule last week. It was one of a span of black mules and was worth $175. It was taken sick while Jim was at the state fair, and though veterinarians from Falls City and Auburn were sent for, they could not save it.

Bena Rebekah lodge had a "time" at their regular meeting Wednesday night. Lester Peabody and wife were initiated. There were a number of visitors present from Shubert. After lodge adjourned ice cream and cake were served. There was a good attendance of members and all seemed to have a good time.

Golden Sheaf Flour

The time for school is near and of course you will want

Tablets of all kinds

Pencils, Pens, Ink, Erasers, Pencil Boxes, and many other things that you will find at our store

We are Headquarters for School Supplies

Come and see the largest Tablet in town

Do not forget our Grocery and Dry Goods Stock

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20 NEMAHA, NEBR.

SEIZ SHOES

Dan Maxwell has leased the Mart May farm, where Ora Thorp has been living, for next year. He will probably not move on it until next spring.

G. N. Titus and R. E. Bucher shipped a mixed car of apples, peaches and grapes to Farnham, Nebr., Friday. Bob went with the load to sell them out.

R. V. Muir of Brownville, in his articles in the Granger under the head of "Historic Brownville," continues to pour hot shot into the advocates of saloons.

C. H. Compton and H. C. Swope of Meitz, Mo., were in Nemaha last week assisting in taking the machinery out of the old Bennett mill and loading it on the cars. They left Friday.

Ice Cream Social
The members of the Christian Sunday school will give an ice cream social on Sherman May's lawn Sat. evening, Sept. 15th, 1906. Everybody is invited.

M. T. Conner, fusion candidate for county commissioner, was interviewing the voters in Nemaha Monday. Roe was commissioner for six years, and stands upon his record while holding the office before.

John W. Colerick has bought the old Bennett mill property with the exception of the machinery. It comprises about five acres of land, the mill building and the two old houses. He paid $300 for it.

Ora J. Thorp has sold his crop to Walt Maxwell and is loading his household goods, farm machinery, etc., to move to his farm in Colorado. Walt will move on the May farm, where Ora has been living.

The postmaster is required to exercise a little ingenuity and common sense as well as in deciphering the addresses of some letters. One came Wednesday morning addressed to "Dad and Mam and Babe". It was delivered all right. A short time ago one came addressed to "The Angels" but of course no trouble was found in delivering this.

An order was recently received by Nemaha parties from a former Nemahaite now living in Monowi, Boyd county, in the extreme northern part of the state for a bushel of prwpaws. One would suppose from this that he was a native Missourian.

Last week a delegation of Nemaha people went to Colorado to look at the land. The party was composed of A. B. Paris, David Frazier, John Strain, Tom Woods and Fred Crane. Dave Frazier bought 80 acres of land six miles northwest of Sterling, Colorado, and Art Paris leased a farm in the same neighborhood.

The Nemaha school was opened Monday morning with a good attendance of pupils in all departments. Miss Madge Carlisle of Peru has charge of the primary department temporarily, as Miss Lillian Neal, engaged for that position, is in the hospital being treated for eye trouble. Miss Ella Bellas has the intermediate department and J. E. Gibney the high school.

School has Commenced

and
W. F. Keeling

has the best assortment of School Supplies

Ever brought to Nemaha.

Come and See

The big assortment of tablets, paper pencils, pens, ink, crayons etc.

School Tablets Largest Line Best Tablets

Our line of Tablets has been carefully selected—good smooth paper handsome covers, and a big lot of paper for a nickle. Good blotters free. Pencils, Pens Ink Pencil Boxes

POSTOFFICE BOOK STORE