It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The Auburn Republican under the new management, is a red hot republican sheet all right, and fires into all who do not give enthusiastic support to the ticket.

Remember that Congressman Pollard supports President Roosevelt in all measures affecting the people. If you believe in the Roosevelt doctrines you cannot afford to vote against Pollard.

It is a pretty strong recommendation for Congressman Pollard that not one paper or speaker that we have ever heard of has charged anything wrong against his votes or actions during the session of congress.

The sworn statements of the candidates for governor of Texas show that of the four candidates the successful man spent $15,000 while the lowest amount paid by any of the others was $9,000. The job only pays $5,000 a year and lasts just two years. Where the profit comes in is a matter of speculation. A poor man would either have to boodle or become a bankrupt before his term expired.—Nebr. City News.

There is a new deal in affairs in Nebraska and the people are fighting for lower railroad rates. So many things are happening of real interest to every citizen that a daily newspaper is now a necessity. The biggest bargain that has come to our notice is The Daily State Journal without Sunday from now until January 1, 1907, for only 50 cents. This is such a small price that it can only be made to introduce the paper into new homes. The publishers claim that this is not a scheme to get you on their books and then keep on sending, but that the paper will be stopped on January 1, 1907. It would be hard to find a better way of investing 50 cents.

The Falls City platform, upon which Congressman Pollard made his first race for congress in this district, definitely and decisively declared against the pass and for various reforms that are today the great issue in this state. Mr. Pollard took advanced ground then, and his judgment has been confirmed by the movement of events. In his first canvass before the Lancaster county convention, he sounded the same keynote against corporate domination in politics that the late state convention did. That speech definitely lined him upon the side of the people, and it has been the latter's interests, and not those of the corporations, that he has been serving in Washington. Present indications are that Mr. Pollard will receive a much larger majority than he did a year ago.—Fecunseh Chieftan.

For the first time this season a wags onload of paw-paws appeared on the street last Saturday morning. The wagon master drove up in front of the News office and at the first whiff of the luscious fruit the News editor, who was engaged in studying the spelling-reform sheet, dropped the paper and rushed out toward the load of angel food. While crossing the sidewalk he slipped on a paw-paw skin which "Doc" who had beaten him to it, had thrown on the walk. The fall rendered him unconscious and with the aroma of the load of paw-paws filling the air, dreamed he was in Heaven. So realistic was the vision that it clung to him after he was restored to consciousness and was relating to enquiring and sympathizing friends. "It seemed," said the News man, "that the streets were paved with paw-paws. The walls of the city instead of being retulgent with precious stones as described in holy writ, were studded with paw-paws. The gates of the city were carved from paw-paw trees and in all directions were passing splendid equipages loaded down with paw-paws and drawn by paw-paws with legs. A choir of angels twanged harps with one hand and ate paw-paws from the other. Becoming hungry, I entered a delicatessen joint and asked to see a asla-carte. It was handed to me printed on a tanned paw-paw skin and contained four hundred entries of paw-paws baked, boiled, roasted, jammed, pickled, preserved, jellied, fried and tutti-fruited. I partook to my limit and passing from the place met a benignant policeman at the door. Is this good old Mizzoo? I asked of the officer. 'Not on your pin-head,' he replied, 'this is Heaven,' and indeed I think it must have been for I never saw so many paw-paws any place on earth."—Nebraska City Tribune.

An editor that cannot find words enough in the English language to express his meaning without using those that are ostracized in decent society is certainly hard up.

Chas. Magoon, a former Lincoln man, has been appointed by President Roosevelt to act as governor general of Cuba. He has been governor of the Panama canal strip, besides holding other important positions, and has always "made good."

Officers of the Nebraska Retail Grocers' Association are notifying all members that they should get rid of all package goods now on hand before January 1, when the new pure food law goes into effect, says the Omaha News. Under this law it will be necessary that every package of food be full weight and strictly pure and must have labels guaranteeing this.

Retail grocers will be protected by certificates from their jobbers certifying that the contents of each package is fully up to the requirements of the pure food law, while the jobbers in turn will hold the manufacturers responsible.

Thomas J. Crummel of Auburn is in the city with a view of bidding upon the construction of bridges here tomorrow. Mr. Crummel and the editor of this paper were comrades forty-one years ago, smoked the same pipe, slept under the same blankets and drank from the same canteen. We left Brownville early in the month of June 1865, and walked to Nebraska City where we engaged as bull whackers and drove to Fort Laramie. It was a trip full of adventure and hardship, but as our old friend, Tom, and the editor hereof reviewed the incidents of the journey last evening, how we fought the Indians and the coyotes, we agreed that there is no other period in our lives that we prize so highly as the bull whacking days upon the great American desert over forty years ago.—Beatrice Sun.

A commission is investigating the postal deficit and incidental thereto is examining into the "second-class rate" of postage paid by newspapers and other regular publications. There seems to be a strong disposition to throw the responsibility for the postal deficit onto the newspapers and lay it at the door of the cent a pound rate paid by them for transmission in the mails. That same men should get such an idea into their heads is little short of remarkable. If members of congress and the other departments of the government were charged with the proper rate of postage on the thousands of tons of matter mailed by them without any good reason or serving any valuable or excusable purpose the postal department would not face a deficit but would show a surplus of millions annually. Further than that if enough honest men could be gotten into congress to cut the insufferable graft that attaches to railway transportation of the mails down to a fair and equitable payment for the services rendered that saving alone would wipe out the deficit and leave a surplus of millions annually in the postal department even if the useless and unwarranted mailings of the other departments of the government were continued without check. To soak the newspapers for the sins of all the departments of the government and the congressional graft hidden in railway mail transportation contracts is coming it a little too strong for the average man to stand for and remain quiet. The congressman who votes to raise the rate of postage on legitimate newspapers before he wrings out the graft in transportation contracts and continues to "frank" the family washing home and back through the mails had better look a little out. He will get it where pretty Katie wore the beads.—Nebr. City Tribune.
