

Yankee Doodle came to town,
Yankee Doodle Dandy,
He was the brightest youth around,
And with the girls so handy.

Said he, "I need a pair of shoes,
A hat and shirt and necktie,
Suspenders, collar, gloves and hose,
A pretty good supply.

I'll go to Gilbert's, that's the place,
To get good goods in style.
Earle always gives me a square deal,
And is courteous all the while."

So Yankee Doodle bought those togs,
And dressed himself up neatly,
And went to church next Sunday morn,
Where the girls all smiled so sweetly.

MORAL

Young men, a lesson you should learn
From Yankee Doodle Dandy,
Go buy your clothes at Gilbert's store,
And with the girls be handy.

Mrs. R. I. Brown met with a painful accident early Saturday morning. She had been out to the chicken coop and caught a chicken to cook for a lunch for her daughter, son and son-in-law as they drove to Pawnee. As she was hurrying back to the house she stumbled over the buggy pole, falling and hurting herself badly for awhile. She was hardly able to get to the house. Dr. Frazier was sent for, who found one hand and arm injured, besides the severe jar and bruises. The ligaments of one thumb were torn loose. It was feared for awhile that her injuries were serious but this is not the case, and aside from the torn ligaments in the hand she is all right again.

Democratic Meeting

Hon. T. J. Doyle, democratic candidate for congress, will speak at the opera house in Nemaha Monday night, Oct. 22. Come out and hear a man that is a man among men. By order of democratic committee.

S. H. Avey of Auburn was in Nemaha Wednesday.

Ben Parker and Mr. Scammon, secretary of the Auburn Music and Jewelry Co., were in Nemaha Monday in the interest of that firm.

Ben Parker, representing the Auburn Music and Jewelry Co., recently sold a fine piano to Fuller Burns. It is appreciated by the hotel patrons.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Pearl Seid, who has been sick for several weeks, has so far improved that she is able to walk around the house. She is very weak but is slowly gaining in strength.

Lew Argabright was not improving as fast as it was hoped he would, so last Sunday Dr. Frazier and Dr. Boal of Auburn had a consultation. He has considerable fever and his stomach is in a very bad condition.

Earle Gilbert has a badly sprained ankle, caused by his foot turning as he stepped down from the sidewalk in front of the store. He is compelled to use crutches to get around. The injury is very painful and will probably cripple him up for some time.

L. L. Coryell, president of the Nemaha County Sunday School association, was unable to be in Nemaha last Sunday, according to announcement, but if nothing prevents will be here one week from next Sunday—October 28—and desires to meet the Sunday school officers, teachers and workers at the Christian church at 2:30 p. m. No one interested in Sunday school work can afford to miss this meeting.

The editor had a broad smile on his face Wednesday morning, as the angels had returned after an absence of four days. When he has to do all the work that is done at the printing office and postoffice both he begins to find out how useful the angels are.

E. H. Knapp, who has been in Minnesota for some time, selling apples for G. N. Titus, returned home Tuesday night. Ed says the mosquitoes didn't bother him any, as they had cold weather, and a snow storm last week. He doesn't want to see an apple or hear about any for awhile.

W. D. Redmond of Peru was shaking hands with the voters of Nemaha Wednesday. He is a candidate on the fusion ticket for representative and was not at all backward in saying that he would like to have the votes of all men, regardless of their politics, religion or previous condition of servitude.

The editor expects to start for Garretson, South Dakota, today (Friday) to visit his brother, John G. Sanders, editor of the Garretson News. He expects to be gone a week. This is the first real vacation he has taken for many years. His mother goes with him and will probably remain for several weeks.

Frank Titus, who has been in Minnesota selling apples, returned home last Friday night. Frank says the country is flooded with apples. The day he left the town where he sold out his last car load seven car loads arrived, and the town is not a very large one either. Frank didn't fall in love with any of the country he saw.

Mrs. Theo. Hill found the room left for her millinery department in her new brick building was entirely too small for the stock she is carrying and to accommodate her customers, do millinery work, etc., so she recently had a partition taken out and is utilizing the additional space that was formerly in the middle room. This is a great advantage, but still she hasn't any spare room.
