Ed H. Knapp, rural carrier on route 2, has a new mail wagon that is a dandy. Hank Barker made it. Ed is getting ready for cold weather. He used it for the first time last Saturday.

The meetings at the Methodist church commenced Sunday night. On account of the bad weather the crowds have not been so large as usual, but considerable interest has been manifested.

Ferry at St. Deroin

The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.

HENRY LEMON, Prop.

Richard Scott came in Tuesday on a few days' visit with his mother, Mrs. M. C. Scott. Dick belongs to the regular army, and is stationed at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. He got a pass for nine days.

Rev. G. W. Ayers drove out to Howe through the rain and mud Sunday morning, to hold services, but the fires had not been lighted in the church, no one was there, and he had his drive for nothing.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clark and Miss Daisy went to Auburn Tuesday and ate New Year's dinner with T. A. Bath and family. They stayed all night with Wm. Jones, returning home the next day.

We unintentionally failed to mention the party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Yackley Wednesday night of last week. About twenty young people were present and the evening was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. C. H. Kindig, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Peabody, returned to Bruno, Nebr., Monday, where she is teaching. Mr. Kindig went with her as far as Lincoln.

Chas. A. Curtis, who recently returned from Missouri and is now living near Humboldt, gave us a pleasant call Monday. He says his wife's health has been very poor for some time but is improving since they moved back to Nebraska.

Free

During the month of January we will send The Advertiser free to many who are not at present subscribers. At the end of the month it will be stopped unless ordered continued. No charge will be made for the month's papers.

We begin this week the publication of "Morton's History of Nebraska," the most valuable work ever published in Nebraska. Save the copies of the Advertiser and you will have a history that in book form costs $25.

We have received the following card:

"Dorothy May Canon—December 24, 1906—weight 7 lbs—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Canon, Tecumseh, Nebraska."

The many friends of the proud mother, formerly Miss Nina Moore, extend congratulations.

Uncle Henry Clark called in Wednesday and paid his subscription to The Advertiser to Jan. 1, 1908. Uncle Henry is 78 years old and says he has never yet read a newspaper on time—he has always paid in advance. Uncle Henry is one of our very best men, who never grows old.

Mrs. N. B. Scrivener gets $85.60 back pension, and also gets $30 pension due her late husband at his death. The $85.60 is in addition to $10 allowed as attorney's fees to Stull & Hawby for attending to the case. She gets $8 per month hereafter. She is certainly deserving of this good fortune.

Will Clark, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, and other relatives and friends, left for Holt county, Missouri, Saturday. Will is now living in Smith Center, Kansas, having given up farming. He works at the carpenter trade, and will raise chickens and hogs on quite a large scale.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant and safe syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by all dealers.
