Morton's History of Nebraska

In the supplement will be found the first part of Morton's History of Nebraska, which will be published as a serial in The Advertiser. Read it and preserve the papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen went to Johnson Tuesday to eat New Year's dinner with Chas. T. Minick. Charley has been promoted to be agent at DeWitt, making the change Saturday of this week. Elliott and Hubert Minick came in with their uncle and aunt.

R. J. Skeen of Red Cloud, Nebr., came in to Nemaha Monday afternoon, leaving the next forenoon—not long enough to begin to greet his host of friends here. We are glad to learn that Mr. Skeen is in fairly good health and hope he will live a great many years longer.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Williams, of Aspinwall precinct, Monday, Dec. 24, 1906, Mr. Fred Snyder and Miss Vesta Williams. The groom is an industrious young man, well liked by all his acquaintances, and standing high in the estimation of the community. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williams. The young couple will make their home at Mr. Williams' home.

John W. Ritchey, assistant superintendent.

Ruth Maxwell, secretary.
Grace Jarvis, assistant secretary.

Lillian M. Allen, treasurer.
Mabel Colerick, librarian.
Genevieve McCandless, assistant librarian.

Mary Buell, organist.
Ethel Maxwell, assistant organist.

Blind Boone was in Nemaha Wednesday night and gave one of his musical entertainments. The audience was not very large. Blind Boone has been to Nemaha twice and both times given identically the same program. This had some effect in keeping away those who had heard him the two previous times. Then the price of admission was placed at 35 and 50 cents, and Nemaha people are not used to paying that much. The entertainment was fine all right, but a little too high priced in the consideration of our people.

A New Year's Eve Surprise

Harry Hoover and wife were the recipients of a splendid surprise New Year's Eve. Several couples from Nemaha drove out to their home Monday night, arriving there about nine o'clock. They had retired for the night but willingly got up and entertained their friends in grand style. Oysters were served at midnight. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames E. H. Knapp, Dr. W. W. Frazier, D. E. Littrell, Carl Bennett, E. E. Hill, Eddie Yackly, Geo. Hartwig, O. E. Houtz, David Frazier, and W. F. Keeling, Fred Hoover and Mrs. Chambers.

Ed Knapp Begins a Law Suit

Ed Knapp and Pete Kerker drove down to Falls City last Friday. Ed went to begin suit against John Ramsey for $210. Ramsey had the contract for carrying the star route mail from Nemaha to St. Derooin before rural route No 2 was established. Ed had the sub-contract and carried the mail until Sept. 15, 1903, when the rural route service began, and at that time there was due him from Mr. Ramsey $220. Of this amount only $10 has been paid, and Mr. Knapp began suit in the district court for the remainder. Mr. Ramsey is now foreman of the Gilligan Bridge Co., getting $120 per month, and is amply able to settle the bill, but doesn't seem so disposed.

Do not fail to read Morton's History of Nebraska, publication of which is commenced in this issue. This is the history written by J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska City, assisted by R. W. Furnas of Brownville and Dr. Geo. L. Miller of Omaha. In book form it costs $25. Readers of the Advertiser can get it for nothing.

We understand Rev. J. W. Sapp has been engaged as pastor of the Christian church at Brownville for the coming year, the change taking effect when the year for which he was engaged to preach at Shubert expires. He will preach at Nemaha and Brownville, instead of at Nemaha and Shubert, and will move back to Nemaha. This will be good news to the many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Sapp.

E. L. Paris has sold his fine 80 acre farm one mile northwest of Nemaha to J. W. Shiveley of Odessa, Mo. Jake bargained for the farm last summer but afterward backed out, as he thought the price was more than he make out of the farm. But after looking around for a few months he concluded he couldn't find a better place, and so invested. He gives $100 per acre, getting possession March 1st. Ed doesn't know just where he will go. He bought the farm five years ago, paying $62.50 per acre for it. The farm had two houses on it and he sold one of them for $200, thus making the actual cost only $60 per acre. An advance of $40 per acre in five years is a pretty good raise—$3,200 profit in five years on an investment of $4,800. The increase alone amounted to $53.33 per month—a pretty fair living, not counting what he raised on the farm during that period.

Elias Barker, father of C. P. and W. H. Barker of this place, died Wednesday, Jan. 2, 1907, at 7 o'clock p. m., at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harvey Hall, near Shubert. Grandpa Barker has been in poor health for a long time, suffering from heart disease and dropsy.

The deceased was one of the old settlers of this county, and was highly respected by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He was 77 years of age last August.

The funeral will be held at the Methodist church at Shubert at 11 o'clock today. The funeral sermon will be preached by Rev. P. B. Ruch, an old time friend of the deceased. Both came to this state about the same time in 1863, and have been warm friends ever since. The burial will take place at Prairie Union cemetery.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, having joined when a young man.

A. G. Warren Has Another Runaway

A. G. Warren's pony team ran away again Monday morning. He had just hitched up at his home and was in the buggy when the ponies started. They ran over a manure pile and then Mr. Warren attempted to turn them into the fence, but they turned suddenly and threw Mr. Warren out. He struck on the side of his head and face and it was pretty badly skinned. His left hand was also sprained and his neck sprained. The ponies ran on to Dave Frazier's farm where they were caught. No damage was done to horses, harness or buggy. Dr. Frazier brought the team back and didn't try to keep them from running either.

Gandy Case Reversed

Humboldt Leader.
The supreme court has just passed on the case of the state against J. L. Gandy of this city, who was tried and convicted in the Nemaha county district court on a charge of corrupting a witness, and the higher tribunal reverses the lower court. The principal evidence against him was given by Frank Fisher an ex-Catholic priest, and it would seem, an all-round blackmailer as well. The case has been an expensive one and the result leaves Nemaha county to foot the bill. The syllabus of the court decision is as follows.

1 An information for the crime of attempting to corrupt a witness must allege that the person sought to be corrupted was a witness. That the defendant knew such person to be a witness, or must state such facts, constituting the offense, as show conclusively that the defendant had such knowledge.

2 One who has not been summoned or recognized as a witness in a pending suit; and who is not acquainted with either of the parties thereto and has no knowledge of any fact either direct or collateral which may be the subject of inquiry therein, is not a witness within the meaning of section 164 of the Criminal Code.

3 On the trial of one charged with the crime of attempting to corrupt a witness it is reversible error to allow the state to introduce evidence tending to show that the defendant offered a person the sum of $500 to steal a written instrument called a certain power of attorney, where the information contains no charge of that kind or nature.

How to Cure Chills

"To enjoy freedom from chills," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at Hill Bros drug store.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Matthews went to Lincoln Thursday, where the doctor thinks of opening a dental office.

Rev. W. H. Prescott of Lincoln, conference evangelist, is expected to arrive in Nemaha today and will assist Rev. G. W. Ayers in the protracted meetings now being held at the Methodist church.
