

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 41

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1907

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

New Spring Goods arriving daily at THE NEW STORE

New styles Suitings, Waistings, Belts, Collars, Ribbons, Handbags, Embroideries, Laces and Muslin Underwear.

We enjoy Showing them.

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Candies and nuts at the post-office bookstore.

Bicycle supplies at Keeling's. Bicycles repaired.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So. Auburn.

Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

20 lbs granulated sugar $1.00 at Harrington & Sons.

F. L. Woodward returned last Friday from a visit to Mankato, Kansas.

Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Will Jones is now deputy sheriff and made Nemaha an official visit Tuesday.

Dan Maxwell on Wednesday moved on the Mart May farm, north of Nemaha.

Mrs. Bixby of Peru came down from Peru Wednesday to visit Mrs. J. I. May.

Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.

For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Good sweet corn, 5c can at Harrington & Sons.

The roads have been almost impassable but are now getting better.

Miss Hettie Seid went to Brownville last Saturday and visited friends until Monday.

Neil Piersol on Thursday moved on Mrs. J. M. Sanders's farm in northeast London precinct.

Fresh soda crackers at 6c lb by the box, at Harrington & Sons.

John W. Ritchey went to Brownville Tuesday morning on the "flyer" returning on No. 97.

Mrs. J. W. Shiveley and children arrived in Nemaha Tuesday morning on the "flyer" from the south.

Eureka Seed Potatoes and White Plymouth Rock Cockrells for sale reasonable, as I will move soon and wish to sell before moving.

W. W. LIEBHART.

You don't know what we pay for poultry, butter and eggs. Better ask us before selling.
Harrington & Sons.

Robt. I. Brown visited Auburn Tuesday but promised us before he went that he wouldn't bring back a bottle, and he kept his word.

For Sale or Trade

Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece.
JOHN T. WEBBER.

Elmer E. Allen drove out to Auburn Sunday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Henry Culwell. He returned on the train Monday afternoon.

To those that have good dogs, keep them at home, for it is my intention to shoot all dogs prowling around my sheep.
G. F. RIDER.

Ralph E. Harrington returned to Nemaha last Friday after a six days' absence, spent in visiting at Crab Orchard and buying goods at St. Joe.

See the beautiful white enamel ware in our windows. Positively no more to be had at the same price, when this is sold.
Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

C. W. Roberts is now a resident of Nemaha, having moved in Wednesday afternoon and Thursday forenoon. We are glad to welcome them to Nemaha.

The meetings at the Christian church closed Sunday night. They were held three weeks. There were seventeen additions, two by letter and fifteen by confession.

Dave Frazier bade his friends good-bye Tuesday evening and started with his car of household goods, farm implements, stock, etc., for his new home near Atwood, Colo.

Miss Lillian Neal was unable to teach the primary department Tuesday on account of an attack of grip. Miss Grace Jarvis taught in the forenoon and Bert Dressler in the afternoon.

Bev. G. W. Hawley of Auburn tarried in Nemaha a few hours last Saturday, while waiting for the freight to go to Shubert. He is pastor of the Methodist church at that point and at Stella.

Dr. Guy Taylor came in from Auburn Thursday evening of last week to look after some business in connection with the settling up of his father's estate. He returned to Auburn the next day.

Ferry at St. Deroin

The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.

HENRY LEMON, Prop.

Chas. P. Scovill moved out on the C. W. Roberts farm Thursday afternoon. Charley will work for Ole Roberts, who has the farm leased, and Ole will board with Mr. and Mrs. Scovill.

Mrs. Ellen Howe and Mrs. C. L. Russell went to Ravenna, Nebr., Tuesday to visit Mrs. Howe's sister, Mrs. John M. Beard, and from there will go to Ord to visit her son, Prof. Eugene Howe.

Paying the Right Prices

Means that you secure a greater quantity of goods—means better results for you. Buying at this store insures you a selection of what is best known—items that are most used. The reasonable prices enable you to secure better results—those ahead of the ordinary. That is why the careful buyer should always come here first—to take advantage of such conditions.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Cooper went to Kansas City Monday, where they expect to remain about two weeks, the guest of their oldest daughter, while Mrs. Coober undergoes medical treatment for a cancer on her face.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert, who was called to Oklahoma by the sickness and ultimate death of her father, and who accompanied his remains to Douglas, Nebr., for burial, returned home Friday night of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Rowen returned home last Saturday after a visit of almost two weeks with relatives in Iowa. They attended two weddings while gone and had a splendid time, but were glad to get back home.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went to Shubert Saturday evening to visit her son, M. T. Hill, returning Tuesday morning on the new passenger train. Theodore came up with her to attend the funeral of Willie Yates, returning that evening.

Oscar L. Minick, who has been living on one of F. E. Allen's farms southeast of Bracken for several years, has moved on Tom Stocker's farm on the half breed road east of Auburn. Harvey Smith has moved where Oscar was living.

C. P. Barker Appointed Rural Carrier
Calvin P. Barker (our Pres) has been appointed mail carrier on rural route No. 1, to succeed Carl E. Sanders, resigned. His appointment will date from March 16. He is now carrying the mail as substitute for Mr. Sanders.

Miss Minnie May informed us Monday that all the money had been raised for the new organ bought by the Christian Sunday school. No one not a member of the church or Sunday school was asked to contribute, and only two who were asked did not help.

For Catarrh, let me send you free just to prove merit, a trial size box of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. It is a snow white, creamy healing antiseptic balm that gives instant relief to Catarrh of the nose and throat. Make the free test and see. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Large jars 50 cents. Sold by All Dealers.

Glendyn Crother has been sick for several days but is getting better.

Ralph Halstead of Harlan, Mo., came to Nemaha Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Willie Yates. He returned Wednesday.

Cyrus G. Minick is now an extra or relief operator on the Burlington system. Last week he was day operator at Edgar and two days this week he was night man at Firth. Just at present he is at home but doesn't know how long he will remain here.

M. W. M. Swan and Will J. Hacker started with their loaded cars for their new homes in Dundy county, Nebr., Friday evening of last week. Mr. Swan shipped to Laird, Colo., and Mr. Hacker to Haigler, Nebr., these being their nearest railroad points.

Rev. G. W. Ayers went to Auburn Thursday of last week to attend the Missionary Rally, but was called home the same afternoon to preach a funeral sermon for Hiram Flock's baby which had died the day previous. The funeral was held Friday afternoon.

Wm. G. Maxwell is no longer a resident of Nemaha, having moved out on his farm, the old John Barnes place, on Thursday. Billy will raise corn, hogs and cattle, while his wife will devote considerable of her time to raising chickens and those fine White Holland turkeys.

Albert Sampson has again decided not to leave Nemaha county. Twice he has sold out with the intention of leaving here, the last time expecting to go to Texas, but each time changed his mind. He has rented the A. R. McCandless farm where Walter Collin has been living.

Mrs. R. M. Brooks of Maramec, Oklahoma, who has been stopping at Douglas, Nebr., since the burial of her husband last week, came to Nemaha Monday evening and visited her daughter, Mrs. Earle Gilbert, until Thursday forenoon, when she started for her home in Oklahoma.

Stock Reduction Sale

To reduce my stock of goods I will sell everything

AT COST

until stock is reduced one-half.

Remember, nothing reserved

Everything in stock will be sold at cost. Now is the time to get bargains.

WM. SNELLING