

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 43

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1907

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

Ladies' Skirts

New Spring Styles are being shown at

The New Store

Prices from $2 up

Also Muslin Underwear cheaper than you can afford to make

EARLE CILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

Come in and see our 5 and 10c counter. Harrington & Sons

Frank Scott of Pawnee county came in Saturday evening for a visit with his father-in-law, R. I. Brown.

Mrs. Will Hacker and the children started for their new home near Haigler, Nebr., Tuesday evening.

W. E. Wheelton is now proprietor of Auburn's second hand store, having bought out Elmer E. Wood.

E. D. Rogers was in from Auburn Wednesday, coming in to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. T. Argabright.

John Bauman of Nebraska City was doing some work on the Bell telephone toll lines in this vicinity Tuesday.

Cyrus Minick started for Concordia, Kas., Tuesday morning, where he will work for the Burlington as operator.

WE SELL GOOD CLOTHES

They can't be otherwise, as they are made by Dixie Tailoring Company
who never fail to please anyone

You Can't Appreciate the Comfort of a Suit cut and made to your measure until you have worn one.

We Guarantee Satisfaction

Have Some Style About You

You can't get it by wearing Store Clothes
We can make you look like a four-time winner ...

TRY US

JNO. W. RITCHEY

phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Warm weather.
Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.
Easter eggs at the postoffice bookstore.
Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.
Bert Thorn has moved on a farm near Salem.
The pop bugs are very much in evidence again.
For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Louis Shafer is one of our recent subscribers.
J. H. Vanderslice went to Crab Orchard Wednesday.
G. N. Titus went to Nebraska City Tuesday morning.
Eastet post cards on sale at the postoffice bookstore.
E. Alexander has moved into Wm. E. Smiley's house.
For Sale—A good work mule. Inquire of Chas. Richards.
Charley Hunt has moved into the Fuller Burns property.
Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.
Carl Glen went to Table Rock last Friday, returning Monday.
Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.
Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Catlin of Peru were in Nemaha Tuesday.
R. L. Cowell has moved on the Howe farm, southwest of Nemaha.
Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.
Von Farson came in from Johnson Saturday, returning Monday.

Will Cummings went to Beatrice Thursday.
Marbles for sale at the postoffice bookstore.
Mrs Elizabeth Murr of Brownville was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday.
Mrs. M. W. Knapp was quite sick Tuesday night but is about well again.
Attorney M. S. McIninch of Auburn was a Nemaha visitor Wednesday.
Rev. G. W. Ayers commenced a protracted meeting at Howe Sunday night.
Mrs. R. E. Harrington went to Crab Orchard Thursday for a few days' visit.
Miss Daisy Clark went to Peru Tuesday afternoon, returning the next morning.
The town was crowded with teams Saturday. Hitching posts were at a premium.
Floyd Ellis of Orchard, Nebr., was the guest of Ralph Ritchey the first of the week.
Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Frazier drove down to Humboldt Tuesday returning the next day.
Jos. Owens moved in from Wymore last week. He will live on David Frazier's farm.
Several of our citizens made garden last Saturday. They believe in beginning early.
A mistake was made in the bank notice published last week, so it is republished this week.
C. H. Kindig went to Nebraska City on the early train Tuesday, coming back on the noon freight.
Joe Bunker and Ethel came down from Peru Monday evening, returning the next morning.
Miss Maude Burns has resigned as teacher of the Boatman school, on account of poor health.

Will S. Jay, the genial representative of the Lincoln News, was in Nemaha Thursday and Friday of last week.
Our old friend W. D. Abbott of Peru was a Nemaha visitor last Saturday and of course called at these headquarters.
Geo. Clendenin of Nebraska City, manager of the Nebraska Telephone Co. for this district, was a Nemaha visitor Wednesday.
Wm. Culp moved up from Shubert last week. He is living in Wm. E. Smiley's house, recently vacated by W. G. Maxwell.
J. C. Killarney and Geo. E. Codrington of Auburn were in Nemaha Tuesday looking after the Auburn Telephone Co's lines here.
G. V. Argabright of Red Cloud, Nebr., came in to Nemaha Tuesday, called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. S. T. Argabright.
Nemaha has had a soft coal famine for awhile, but it was relieved Tuesday morning by the arrival of a car of coal for the lumber yard.
E. L. Argabright of Bolivar, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday morning, called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. S. T. Argabright.
Mrs. Carl E. Sanders and Miss Alice Peabody went to Falls City Wednesday evening to visit Mrs. Wm. E. Smiley. They expect to return this morning.
A. B. Harrington of Crab Orchard, senior member of the firm of Harrington & Sons, came in to Nemaha Wednesday. He returned home Thursday.
Mrs. W. F. Keeling gave a reception to her Sunday school class Tuesday night, in honor of Otto Snelling, who will soon move to Shubert. Refreshments were served. The class is composed of boys, being No. 4 in the Methodist Sunday school. All had a pleasant time.

Arthur Stevens and Miss Lillie Jennings, both of Aspinwall precinct, were married at the court house in Auburn Thursday of last week.
Miss Pearle Thompson gave a party at her home last Saturday night. A large number of young people were present and all had a delightful time.
W. B. Norvell has moved to Nemaha, moving into the Ben Baldwin property west of the postoffice. He has bought the Barker dray line.
Cyrus Minick went to Syracuse last Friday to look after affairs on the farm of A. R. Titus while the latter was visiting. He returned Monday evening.
Mrs. C. H. Bacon came up from Shubert Tuesday morning, on the early train, getting here in time to eat breakfast with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Barker.
See the beautiful white enamel ware in our windows. Positively no more to be had at the same price, when this is sold. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
One week from next Tuesday is village election day. M. W. Knapp, F. L. Woodward and Peter Kerker are the retiring members of the board of trustees.
For Sale or Trade
Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece, both blacks, coming 8 years old.
JOHN T. WEBBER.
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Titus came down from their home near Syracuse, Nebr., Friday night of last week, and visited relatives in Nemaha and vicinity until Monday night, when they went to Shubert.
Rev. E. D. Gideon of Brock will preach a missionary sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night. This sermon is educational and no collection for missions will be taken at that time. On Wednesday night of next week Rev. Wolf will preach at the Methodist church. His theme will also be missions.

Prof. J. E. Gibney, who was called to his home at Elkhorn, Nebr., two weeks ago, by the death of a brother, returned here Thursday evening of last week.
Paul W. Karr of Fulton, Mo., who had been visiting in Nemaha, for a few days, went to Ord, Nebr., Monday, where he will work for J. L. Speece and E. F. Burson.
Wm. E. Smiley moved to Falls City last Friday. This move was made necessary if he held his position with the Burlington, unless he was away from home all the time.
Verne Taylor came up from Shubert Tuesday morning to do some work for the Auburn Telephone Co., putting in new phones and new lines. Thirteen new subscribers were added.
Ferry at St. Deroin
The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.
HENRY LEMON, Prop.
Sherwin-Williams Paint
Fleck's Stock Food
Little Chick Feed
Cracked Corn
Bran & Shorts
Wall Paper

Our produce prices are always right. Try us.
Harrington & Sons

W. F. Keeling