

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 44

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1907

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher.
Subscription, $1 a year in adve.

Our Stock

of Spring Goods is now complete. There are many styles of fabrics from heavy Outing to the sheerest Chiffon, with trimmings to suit all.

We have the elbow length Silk Gloves so popular with the Short Sleeves.

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

Geo. V. Argabright of Red Cloud, Nebr., and Ernest L. Argabright of Boliver, Mo., left for their homes Saturday evening.

County Commissioner Cummings, in charge of Jimmie Stephenson, was in Nemaha Wednesday looking after county interests.

Earle Gilbert had a stack of hay burned last week. He was having the meadow south of town burned off and the fire got into the hay.

Tuesday was the windiest day we have had for a long time. It was very warm also. The heat, wind and dust made it very uncomfortable.

The passenger train from the north was nearly two hours late Wednesday, on account of the engine breaking down before they left the city.

Misses Roxie and Helen Parker came in from Auburn Thursday of last week and visited their grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Berger, until train time the next day.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders, Mrs. Geo. Yackley, Miss Minnie May and W. W. Sanders attended the Sunday school convention at Peru Saturday evening and Sunday.

See the beautiful white enamel ware in our windows. Positively no more to be had at the same price, when this is sold. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Early Ohio seed potatoes for sale - northern grown - South Dakota. 75 cents per bushel. J. A. ANDERSON. Brownville, Nebr.

Miss Pearl Farson went to Peru last Friday to visit her sister, Miss Eliza. Both came down to Nemaha Monday forenoon. Miss Eliza went back to Peru Tuesday.

Harry Thomas, a "lone fisherman," is marketing some of the fruits of his industry now. Wednesday, among other fish sold to Peter Kerker, were two pocket eels—a fish that is seldom seen here.

We have received a letter from Mrs. Anna Tinklepaugh (formerly Miss Anna Frost), which we take the privilege of publishing, as it will be of interest to friends here. It may be found on an inside page.

To the Children

Do not forget to bring eggs—fresh ones, not colored—to the Methodist Sunday school Sunday morning, to be sent to the hospital at Omaha. If you can't be at Sunday school leave your eggs at the postoffice Saturday or Monday.

Earle Gilbert has just received a fine line of the celebrated Carhartt overalls and jackets. Unexcelled for wear.

WE SELL GOOD CLOTHES

They can't be otherwise, as they are made by

Dixie Tailoring Company

who never fail to please anyone

You Can't Appreciate the Comfort of a Suit cut and made to your measure until you have worn one.

We Guarantee Satisfaction

Have Some Style About You

You can't get it by wearing Store Clothes. We can make you look like a four-time winner...

TRY US

JNO. W. RITCHEY

phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn Franklin ice cream at Houtz's.

Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.

Easter eggs at the postoffice bookstore.

Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.

Easter post cards at the postoffice book store.

John C. Shuck came in from Auburn Tuesday.

For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Earle Gilbert has been getting in lots of corn recently.

J. W. Smith is now working at Peru, with Joe Bunger.

Eastet post cards on sale at the postoffice bookstore.

For Sale—A good work mule. Inquire of Chas. Richards.

Insurance, old line or mutual, written by W. W. Sanders.

Mrs. Isabell Seabury is a new subscriber to The Advertiser.

Joe Baker has been appointed rural carrier from Brownville.

Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

If you want to buy Nemaha property, see W. W. Sanders.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.

W. H. Barker went to Falls City last Friday, returning Saturday.

Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Miss Minnie May went to Peru last Friday, returning Monday evening.

Ice cream soda, sundae, lemonade, phosphate, cider, pop and milkshake at Houtz's.

John Cranmer of Auburn was calling on our merchants Saturday morning, buying their eggs and butter.

Marbles for sale at the postoffice bookstore.

Miss Essie White went to Peru Friday, returning Monday evening.

Miss Lala Hill of Shubert visited her grandmother, Mrs. Theo Hill, Saturday.

Chas. W. Burns of Shubert was a Nemaha visitor Wednesday afternoon.

Newton C. Jarvis went to Syracuse last Saturday, returning Monday evening.

J. H. Linn of Lincoln was a visitor in this vicinity from Thursday until Saturday.

Mrs. V. P. Peabody went to Stella Thursday to visit her daughters for a few days.

It is said if you use alfalfa hay in nests for setting hens the mites will not bother them.

Attention is called to the special Easter offer of the Auburn Republican, on the last page.

Our ice cream sodas are delicious. Try them.

O. E. HOUTZ.

Mrs. J. A. Titus went to Shubert Monday evening to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Williams.

Richard Knapp, who has been visiting in Stella for the past two weeks, returned home Monday afternoon.

R. E. Bucher, who has been a brakeman on the Burlington in Wyoming, returned home Tuesday evening.

Rev. E. D. Gideon of Brock preached a fine missionary sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night.

Ralph Harrington was called to Crab Orchard last Saturday by the illness of his little son. He is expected back today. The little fellow is better.

For Sale or Trade

Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece, both blacks, coming 8 years old.

JOHN T. WEBBER.

Rev. Wolff, who was to have preached a missionary sermon at the Methodist church Wednesday night, was unable to be here, consequently no services were held.

County Superintendent Geo. D. Carrington and a representative of a new heating apparatus were in Nemaha Monday interviewing the members of the school board.

Mrs. Ellen Howe orders The Advertiser sent to her brother-in-law, Samuel Howe, Santa Cruz, California, and to her two sons, Prof Eugene Howe, Ord, Nebr., and Emery C. Howe, Brownville.

Marion Seid returned home Thursday of last week. He has become tired of railroading, or rather tired of being away from home all the time, and has quit the business. He is working for his father.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went to Shubert Saturday evening, returning Monday morning. She says she heard the finest temperance sermon Sunday night that she ever listened to. It was delivered by Rev. J. W. Sapp.

Bena Rebekah lodge had initiation at their regular meeting Wednesday night, and after adjournment an oyster supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. August Quiller and Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Frazier were initiated.

Veva Bell Rainey, born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rainey, Saturday, March 23, '07, 6 p. m., nine and one-half pounds.

So reads an announcement received Monday. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rainey extend congratulations to the happy parents.

A few days ago F. L. Woodward circulated a subscription paper and collected sufficient money to get the old well southwest of the postoffice cleaned out and fitted up for use again. This well has not been used for over ten years—not since the fire that destroyed J. H. Littrell's grocery store, Crother's harness shop and the old Smith house.

The Methodist people have contracted for a lighting plant for the church—the same kind Earle Gilbert has in his store. It is thought the plant will be installed in about two weeks. It will cost a little over $75.

C. W. Roberts returned from Kansas City Monday, Clyde coming with him. Clyde was injured by being struck by a street car one day last week and considerably injured, but is rapidly getting over the effects.

Prospects for Immense Fruit Crop. Unless something intervenes we will have a bumper crop of fruit this year. The apricot trees are in full bloom, plum trees are beginning to blossom out, and all kinds of fruit trees are full of buds.

We are requested to give notice that the dumping of hay, straw and other rubbish in the ditches along the roadside between town and the stock yards is forbidden. Some parties who bring in hogs have been in the habit of dumping the trash from their wagons into these ditches.

Sherwin-Williams Paint

Fleck's Stock Food

Little Chick Feed

Cracked Corn

Bran & Shorts

Wall Paper

W. F. Keeling