

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 48

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1907

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

NEW PATTERNS

The demand for the Ladies Home Journal patterns during the past year has been so constant that we have investigated their merits, and becoming convinced that they are the BEST PATTERNS MADE, we secured the agency for them.

A guide chart comes with each pattern, which makes it impossible for an amateur to make a mistake. Prices 10 and 15 cents—none higher.

EARLE CILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA BOTH PHONES

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn Franklin ice cream at Houtz's.

Only four weeks more of school.

Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.

Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.

For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

The grass continued to grow, even if it was cold.

Post card views of Nemaha at postoffice bookstore.

New post cards just received at the postoffice bookstore.

W. W. James of Shubert was a Nemaha visitor Saturday.

Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

F. L. Woodward went to Kansas City last Saturday, returning Monday afternoon.

School closes in Nemaha May 24.

Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Miss Nora Aynes went to Shubert Saturday evening, returning Monday.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went to Shubert Monday evening, returning the next morning.

Miss Stella Washburn came down from Peru Friday, returning Monday morning.

New comic post cards received Tuesday at the postoffice bookstore—a big assortment.

Only $2.80 for The Advertiser and the Lincoln Daily News both one year. See big ad.

Our ice cream sodas are delicious. Try them. O. E. HOUTZ.

J. M. Burns, living near Shubert, was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Tuesday afternoon.

Auburn is preparing to celebrate the fourth of July.

If you want to buy Nemaha property, see W. W. Sanders.

Ice cream soda, sundaes, lemonade, phosphate, cider, pop and milkshake at Houtz's.

The noise of the lawn mower is now heard—when the ground isn't covered with snow.

New books—both paper covers and cloth bound—just received at the postoffice bookstore.

Preaching at the Methodist church Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. by Presiding Elder Wright.

Potatoes for Sale

Eureka and Early Ohio. Good ones. F. L. WOODWARD.

We are informed that Wm. Snelling has a nice store in Shubert and is putting on lots of style.

Rev. G. W. Ayers and wife drove out to Auburn Wednesday to attend the funeral of John Wright.

Mrs. Gertie Galbraith visited her friend, Mrs. Chas. P. Scovill in the country, from Friday until Tuesday.

Dr. W. W. Frazier, who has been living in Rev. J. W. Sapp's house, moved into Carl E. Sanders' house the first of the week.

Mrs. Josephine Lindsey, a former resident of Nemaha but now living near Goodland, Kansas, writes us to send her The Advertiser.

Arthur Tidrow of Kansas City, Mo., visited his sisters, Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. Geo. Yackly. Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

For Sale or Trade

Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece, both blacks, coming 8 years old. JOHN T. WEBBER.

If you are warm or thirsty, drop in to

O. E. Houtz's Restaurant and get cool.

ICE CREAM SODAS

and soft drinks are now ready.

J. H. Littrell on Saturday shot a large pelican on the sand bar on the Missouri river. It measured eight feet from tip to tip of its wings and was a fine specimen.

Ralph Ritchey got industrious Monday and put in some strong posts and a hitching rack in front of the store. It is a hard matter sometimes to find room for the teams in town, especially on Saturdays.

Special Offer

To any subscriber of The Advertiser who wishes to send a copy or copies to friends, we will make a special price of only 75 cents per year for additional copies. Take advantage of this offer and send The Advertiser to friends.

DRESS GOODS

We want to call your attention to our fine line of Spring and Summer Dress Goods which we now have for your inspection. They consist of Windsor Bastes, Henly Serges, Como Suitings, fancy white Dotted Swiss, Dotted Swiss Muslins in colors, Organdies, Venice, Dimities, Mulls.

We have the best line of Summer Goods that you will find outside of the larger places, and you will find our prices are the lowest.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

MILLINERY

Three new invoices of new and stylish goods. Call early for first choice.

MRS. THEO. HILL

Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Curtis, who now live five miles and a half west of Stella, drove over to Nemaha Tuesday afternoon, returning the next day.

S. C. French, the genial representative of S. H. Avey & Co., was a Nemaha visitor the first of the week and gave us a social call Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Geo. Yackly called Monday and subscribed for The Advertiser for herself and also sends a copy to her mother, Mrs. S. M. Klise, Garnett, Kansas.

For Sale or Trade

One Norwegian sulky lister used one season. One wagon with new Bain box. MARION SEID.

Rev. J. W. Sapp moved up from Shubert Tuesday and Wednesday. The people of Nemaha are pleased to have Bro. Sapp and his good wife with us again.

The early hatched chickens had a hard time of it during the cold spell. Many women took their chickens in the house. The cold caused the death of scores of the little fellows.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders was taken suddenly sick early Sunday morning with stomach trouble, and suffered severely for two or three days, but is now better, though quite weak yet.

We are pleased to learn that Judge Stull of Auburn is recovering from the operation recently performed at an Omaha hospital for gall stone trouble. His general health is improving.

Insurance, old line or mutual, written by W. W. Sanders.

Miss Grace Peabody went to Stella Saturday to visit relatives for a week, and the postoffice and printing office are now getting along as best they can with only one angel.

John P. Sanders, who is attending the Peru normal, came down to Nemaha Tuesday evening and spent the night with his cousin, Will F. Sanders, who is in from DeWitt on a visit.

Sylvester Yates took advantage of D. T. Smiley's absence a few days ago and tore down the picket fence in front of the latter's house, even taking out the posts. But as he went ahead and put in good hedge posts and a woven wire fence, Mr. Smiley is not kicking even if he did have to pay for material and work.

Sherwin-Williams
Paint

Fleck's Stock Food

Little Chick Feed

Cracked Corn

Bran & Shorts

Wall Paper

W. F. Keeling

SPECIALS IN Groceries

- 3 dozen Sour Pickles 25c
- 2 cans 15c. Salmon 25c
- 4 pounds Ginger Snaps 25c
- 5 1 lb. packages Soda 25c
- 8 bars Lenox Soap 25c
- 3 cans Beans 25c
- 3 cans Peas 25c
- 3 cans Pumpkin 25c

Remember we are always right on Produce prices. 15 cents for eggs, 20 cents for butter, 10 cents for hens this week. Try us.

HARRINGTON & SONS