

State Hist Society Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 50

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1907

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

Highest Prices paid for Produce

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA BOTH PHONES

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.

Valley Lily flour at Earle Gilbert's.

Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.

For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Post card views of Nemaha at postoffice bookstore.

Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Best Michigan salt, both rock and barrel, at Earle Gilbert's.

Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Mrs. J. A. Titus went to Shubert Saturday evening, returning Monday morning.

Miss Belle Galloway of Auburn visited Miss Maud Burns Saturday and Sunday.

New comic post cards received Tuesday at the postoffice bookstore—a big assortment.

Louie Kerker has been on the sick list for a week, with the grip, but is getting better.

T. J. Rumbaugh orders The Advertiser sent to his sister-in-law, Mrs. L. E. Rawson, Swan, Iowa.

Ralph Ritchey was sick for several days with the grip but is feeling well enough to be at the store again.

Ralph E. Harrington came in from Crab Orchard Friday afternoon, returning the next forenoon.

Two fine 160 acre farms for sale, none better, 2 1-2 and 4 miles from town, for only $85.
KINDIG & PEABODY.

WANTED

I want to hire a man by the month to care for an orchard, etc. I furnish house and fuel.
JOHN S. STULL, Auburn.

Paper covered books—good ones—only 7 cents at the postoffice bookstore.

Will Cochran of Auburn was the guest of Ole Roberts Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Ruth Williams of Shubert visited her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Titus, last Saturday.

New books—both paper covers and cloth bound—just received at the postoffice bookstore.

Potatoes for Sale

Eureka and Early Ohio. Good ones.
F. L. WOODWARD.

Earle Gilbert has bought 20,000 bushels of corn in the last two weeks, paying 40 and 41 cents for it.

Otto Barker and Pinckney Shiveley went to Falls City Tuesday evening. Otto returned the next morning.

Mrs. A. V. Walsh of McCook arrived in Nemaha last Saturday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover.

Miss Rose Seabury, who has been a waiter at the hotel at DeWitt for some time, returned home Saturday.

The Missouri river is encroaching on the meadow land east of town. Already many acres have gone and it is still cutting.

Miss Hazel Parker came in from Auburn Tuesday evening and is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Alf Rowen, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson went to Lincoln Tuesday, on train 128, to attend the meeting of the Eastern Star grand lodge.

F. L. Woodward is having a wareroom built back of the hotel, to be used as a wash house, store room, etc. Fuller Burns is doing the work.

Elmer E. Allen received an improved road scraper and grader Wednesday. He will try it on the streets and roads in Nemaha and vicinity. It is said to do excellent work.

Rev. G. W. Ayers preached at Beatrice Thursday evening of last week, at the meeting of the holiness association. He returned home Friday.

Richard Slagle of Barada stopped in Nemaha a few hours Monday morning. He was on his way to Auburn where he is attending the high school.

Miss Grace Woods came in from Auburn Tuesday evening, stopping here until the next morning, when she went on to her father's north of Nemaha.

Rev. G. W. Ayers, W. W. Sanders, Mrs. Geo. Yackly and Mrs. F. L. Woodward attended the M. E. district conference at Auburn Tuesday and Wednesday.

We had another hard snow storm last Friday morning, beginning at 5 o'clock. It snowed nearly all forenoon. By night, however, the snow was about all gone.

Dr. V. M. Boal of Auburn was a Nemaha visitor Friday, coming down to consult with Dr. Frazier in the case of Ruth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Peabody.

For Sale or Trade

Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece, both blacks, coming 8 years old.

JOHN T. WEBBER.

If you are warm or thirsty, drop in to

O. E. Houtz's Restaurant and get cool.

ICE CREAM SODAS
and soft drinks are now ready.

Estray Notice

Came into my enclosure in Nemaha, Tuesday morning, May 8, 1907, a small black pig, which owner can have by proving property and paying for this notice.
C. W. ROBERTS.

Some long pieces of piling have been taken out of the river recently by those who look after such matters. One piece was about sixty feet long and very straight. Another one was almost as long.

D. D. Houtz of Verdon and his nephew, John Deeker of Indiana were visiting O. E. Houtz last Friday. Mr. Deeker was on his way to California and stopped over in Nebraska to visit relatives for a few days.

Arrangements are being made for a district Sunday school convention to be held at Nemaha on Friday, June 14. The Sunday schools in Nemaha, Aspinwall and St. Deroin precincts will unite in the convention.

Special Offer

To any subscriber of The Advertiser who wishes to send a copy or copies to friends, we will make a special price of only 75 cents per year for additional copies. Take advantage of this offer and send The Advertiser to friends.

GIVEN AWAY

Last week we gave our magnificent Range away absolutely free. Of course a great many thought they would get it but Wilma Maxwell was the one who got it.

Now we are not going to give anything away this week, but if you will come and buy some of our fine summer goods it will be like giving them away, compared to what others will ask you for the same qualities. We are always the lowest in price.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

MILLINERY

Three new invoices of new and stylish goods. Call early for first choice.

MRS. THEO. HILL

Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So. Auburn.

Rev. D. B. Lake, who has been pastor of the M. E. church at Sterling for the past year and eight months, has been moved to Elmwood. This is a better point with a better salary.

The west bound freight train ran into the passenger near Graf Tuesday afternoon, crippling the passenger engine so much that it did not get to Nemaha until after nine o'clock, being over five hours late.

F. M. Emerson of Kansas will deliver an address in the opera house on Thursday evening, May 23, in the interest of the prohibition party. He is said to be an entertaining speaker. Everybody is invited.

The strawberry and ice cream social given by the Christian ladies' aid society at the hotel Saturday night attracted a large crowd. Over $18 was cleared, and more would have been made but the strawberries gave out.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen took the early train Tuesday morning for Lincoln, stopping there until evening, when they went to DeWitt and visited C. T. Minick and family until the next afternoon, when they returned home.

Jno. W. Ritchey had the drawing last Saturday afternoon for the kitchen range offered with baking powder. Miss Wilma Maxwell, daughter of Dan Maxwell, held the winning number, and is now the proud owner of a good range. It will be several years, however, before she will want to use it in her own home.

Fountain pens and fountain pen ink for sale at the postoffice bookstore.

The Champion Sunday school, that has not been meeting for some time, reorganized last Sunday and elected Miss Elsie Copeland superintendent, Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson assistant superintendent, and Pearle Thompson secretary.

Mrs. Allen, national organizer of the Women's Home Missionary association of the M. E. church, will give a lecture at the Methodist church in Nemaha tonight. Mrs. Allen is a very interesting talker and we feel sure every one who goes will be entertained. She has been in Nemaha before. Everybody is invited.

Sherwin-Williams

Paint

Fleck's Stock Food

Little Chick Feed

Cracked Corn

Bran & Shorts

Wall Paper

W. F. Keeling