

JUST IN!

A new lot of the celebrated
QUEEN CITY HATS

in late styles and colors

AT $2.50

When in need of

OVERALLS

try a pair of our Hunter brand, sold at 85 cents for bibs and 90 cents for pant cut.

Cheapest in price and best in quality.

HARRINGTON & SONS

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
 Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.

Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.

Post card views of Nemaha at postoffice bookstore.

Our citizens are talking of putting in street lights.

Mrs. Jas. A. Stephenson is very sick with measles.

We sell carpet and linoleum. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Lewis Parker, an aged inmate at the poor farm, died a few days ago.

Attorney W. H. Morrow of Shubert was in Nemaha a few hours Tuesday.

Miss Edith Hill is one of the graduates of the Shubert high school this year.

Miss Kate Tussey came in from DeWitt Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Weldon Shiveley.

F. L. Woodward went to Atchison, Kansas, Tuesday, and from there to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill went to Shubert Saturday evening returning Monday morning.

Snow on the fifteenth of May! Even the "oldest inhabitant" can't recall anything like it.

Still have a few set of harness left, will sell cheap. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

A 120 egg Old Trusty Incubator, good as new, for sale cheap. W. W. LIEBHART.

Best line of lawn mowers at reasonable prices. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Nebraska City's new overall factory began operations Wednesday morning, with nearly fifty sewing machines at work.

WANTED

I want to hire a man by the month to care for an orchard, etc. I furnish house and fuel. JOHN S. STULL, Auburn.

Paper covered books—good ones—only 7 cents at the postoffice bookstore.

New books—both paper covers and cloth bound—just received at the postoffice bookstore.

W. F. Keeling was fortunate in buying a car load of flour and feed just before the big raise in price.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts went to Sidney, Iowa, Saturday morning and visited cousins until Monday.

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn came down from Peru Saturday evening, returning Monday morning.

Miss Nora Aynes went to Shubert Wednesday evening to attend the commencement exercises of the public schools.

G. N. Titus went to Nebraska City Friday, to complete the work of setting out trees there, returning Monday.

Fly time will soon be here; now is the time to get your screen doors, etc. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Rev. J. W. Sapp preached the baccalaureate sermon at Shubert Sunday night, at the Christian church. The church was crowded.

Get a book or a box of bonbons for a present to the graduates of the high school. Some nice ones for sale at the postoffice bookstore.

A. F. Walsh of McCook arrived in Nemaha Tuesday afternoon and visited with his wife and relatives until Wednesday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp went to Shubert Wednesday evening to attend the commencement exercises and visit friends for a few days.

Mrs. Susan I. Shiveley and Mrs. Carl E. Sanders went to Falls City Tuesday evening to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Wm. E. Smiley, for a few days.

Philip Shuck has bought the Jim Burns place in Nemaha, but hasn't yet got a housekeeper. But Phil may surprise the people yet.

J. W. Courtney had a horse die from lockjaw Saturday morning. John had worked him pretty hard and it is thought he got too hot.

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Dressler drove down to Shubert Sunday evening and listened to the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. J. W. Sapp.

Miss Anna Elliott of Auburn was the guest of Mrs. John I. Dressler Wednesday night and Thursday, going to Peru Thursday afternoon.

Richard Knapp carried the mail on rural route No. 2 last Saturday, as Ed Knapp, the carrier, was at Falls City looking after a law suit.

Miss Lulu Cooper, who has been teaching near Peru for the past year, returned home Saturday evening, her school having closed the day previous.

In the past week the wholesale price of flour has been raised 30 cents per hundred pounds. The merchants who have a good supply on hand are in luck.

The wind blew hard all day Sunday, making walking disagreeable, and filling houses with dust. The editor had a large cherry tree blown over.

Rev. D. B. Lake writes for us to change the address of The Advertiser from Sterling to Elmwood, as he doesn't want to do without the news from Nemaha.

If you are warm or thirsty, drop in to,
O. E. Houtz's Restaurant and get cool.
ICE CREAM SODAS
 and soft drinks are now ready.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.

There was quite a heavy frost Wednesday night, enough to kill the tops of some of the potatoes and early vegetables. Standing water froze. We hope this is the last freeze this spring.

We hear it rumored that one of our popular young ladies is soon to be married, as the dressmaker is busy with the wedding garments—but then we don't believe every rumor we hear.

Miss Helen and Master Stephen Gilbert and Miss Marie Woodward went to Auburn Saturday and were the guests of Mrs. W. E. Wheeldon for a few hours, returning on the afternoon train.

Special Offer

To any subscriber of The Advertiser who wishes to send a copy or copies to friends, we will make a special price of only 75 cents per year for additional copies. Take advantage of this offer and send The Advertiser to friends.

THIS WEEK

We will call your attention to our line of
NEW SHOES

These are made by SELZ, SCHWAB & CO., who are the largest makers of good shoes in the world. We do not hesitate to recommend them to our customers because they always give satisfaction in wear and comfort.

Do not forget us for Dry Goods and Groceries. Our line is clean and up-to-date.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20

NEMAHA, NEB.

MILLINERY

Three new invoices of new and stylish goods. Call early for first choice.

MRS. THEO. HILL

Fountain pens and fountain pen ink for sale at the postoffice bookstore.

While R. I. Brown doesn't claim to be a prophet or the son of a prophet, he makes the prediction that there will be the smallest crop of all kinds of grain this year that we have had for years.

J. H. Tucker and Miss Lulu Tucker, who have been visiting in this county for two or three weeks, started for their home at Kearney, Nebr., Tuesday, but will make a stop or two on their way there.

The village board of trustees met last week and reorganized by electing Marshall Webb chairman, Elmer E. Allen clerk, W. H. Barker treasurer, and J. H. Littrell marshal and street commissioner.

Next Friday night will be the annual commencement of the Nemaha high school. There will be only two graduates—Miss Bea Seabury and Miss Grace Jarvis. The exercises will be held in the opera house.

Mrs. Allen of Iowa, national organizer of the Women's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church, delivered an interesting lecture at the church Friday night, but did not succeed in effecting an organization.

The board of education have engaged Miss Ella Bellas as teacher for the intermediate department of the Nemaha schools for the next year. She has been a successful teacher in this department the past year. We understand the other teachers have not made application for the school, and their successors have not been elected.

Ralph E. Harrington came in from Crab Orchard Wednesday afternoon and says he is here to stay awhile now. The firm recently bought a stock of clothing at Pawnee City and have been moving it to Crab Orchard.

The Christian and Methodist Sunday schools are preparing for children's day service. The exercises will be held by the Christian Sunday school on the first Sunday in June and by the Methodists on the second Sunday.

John M. Clark received notice last Saturday that he had been selected as a petit juror in the United States district court, and to appear at Lincoln on Monday to act in that capacity. He went on the early morning train Monday.

Sherwin-Williams Paint

Fleck's Stock Food

Little Chick Feed

Cracked Corn

Bran & Shorts

Wall Paper

W. F. Keeling