Yours truly,

G. B. BEVERIDGE.

Harry Rowen

Overcome with Heat.

Last Friday afternoon Harry Rowen had a sunstroke while assisting his father and brother make hay. He was pitching hay. It was very warm and close. Harry stopped work before he finished the load and laid down on the ground in the sun, and in a few minutes became unconscious. He was taken to the home of his brother, Alf Rowen, when Dr. Frazier was phoned for. They started to town with him, but he got wild and tried to tear his hair out, it taking two men to hold him. He became so bad that they had to stop on the road in the shade of a tree. The doctor had ice water poured on his head and used other remedies, but it was some time before he became conscious. For awhile it was thought he was not going to get over it, but is now able to be around again, though he will have to keep out of the hot sun this summer and be very careful of overheating himself. It was a close call. His head was almost as hot as a hot stove, seemingly, and his body cold.

Sam Teare requests us to announce in The Advertiser that he is a candidate for reelection to the office of county clerk of Nemaha county. Sam has been clerk for one term and he and his friends believe he is deserving of a second term. He has made a good official all right, attended to the duties of his office faithfully and well, and of course is better qualified than two years ago to perform the duties of that office. Of course he wants the nomination from the democratic and independent parties, but would cheerfully accept votes from all parties.

River Cutting at Barney.

Reports of cutting of the river bank by the current of the Missouri at Barney are somewhat sensational, one report stating that a strip of indefinite length and ten feet wide is falling in daily. Prompt work Tuesday is reported as the only thing that saved the Jones Grain Co. elevator at that place. M. J. Beausang took Mose Henry and his equipment to Barney Tuesday and removed the elevator from danger in the nick of time. — Neb. City Tribune.

J. C. Broady has been having all kinds of trouble lately. First the Missouri river flooded his farm, destroying his crop after he had done most of the work, and then one jaw swelled up from a bad wisdom tooth so that he couldn't eat anything hardy, and it pained him so he couldn't sleep much—in fact, he had to get medical aid. He is feeling lots better now but the side of his face looks like he had the mumps.

At the referee's sale of the real estate belonging to the late Mrs. S. T. Argabright, held at the court house last Saturday, W. S. Argabright was the successful bidder for the forty acres of land joining his farm, paying $3,000 for it. It has no improvements. His father-in-law, Aaron L. Waltz, a farmer of London precinct, bought the Nemaha property, paying $480 for it.

The Hiawatha Military band is one of the very best bands in the west. They will bring at least 25 men, and perhaps 30. Those who attend the old settlers picnic next Friday will have the privilege of listening to some fine music. No better has ever been given in the county.

Mrs. Farson Dead.

Mrs. Eliza Ann Farson, wife of A. V. Farson, sr., died at her home in Nemaha Thursday, July 25, 1907, at 3:30 p. m., aged 69 years and 7 months.

Mrs. Farson has been an invalid for several months and has suffered constantly and severely during that time. For some time she has been confined to her bed most of the time.

Mrs. Farson leaves a husband, one daughter, Mrs. Timothy Vice of Aspinwall precinct, and two sons, John A. Farson of Nemaha and A. V. Farson, jr., of Johnson.

The funeral services will be held at the Methodist church at Nemaha at 3 o'clock p. m. today.

Mrs. B. Bell Andrews of Cordell, Oklahoma, has been the guest of Mrs. M. W. Knapp for the past week. Mrs. Andrews has a host of friends in Nemaha and vicinity who are pleased to see her again. The doctor has a large practice at Cordell. He expected to come up about the last of this month but writes his wife that he will be unable to get away.

Mrs. Andrews went to Stella Wednesday.

ADELIA RUSSELL, Sec'y.

We had a pleasant call Wednesday from Wm. G. Rutledge, one of the rising young attorneys of Auburn, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for county judge. Mr. Rutledge stands high in the estimation of the people where known, both for ability and uprightness. He would give Nemaha county efficient services as judge, and carefully look after the interests of the widows and orphans.

We had the pleasure of meeting our old friend T. J. Hitte while at Lincoln Saturday. Tom is now editor of the Independent Farmer and Western Swine Breeder—a weekly published by the State Journal Co., and which is a combination of the old Nebraska Independent, the Weekly State Journal and the Swine Breeder. Tom is living at University Place.

Miss Alice G. Peabody has been sworn in as clerk in the postoffice and is learning the business of that office. Miss Grace Peabody, who has been the efficient clerk for the past eighteen months, is preparing to go to Beatrice Sept. 1st, to enter the business college, and Miss Alice will take her place in the postoffice.

Wednesday morning the 5-inch drill was started boring into the earth at Nebraska City in search of oil, coal, gas or valuable minerals, under the direction of the Otoe Development Co. It is proposed to go deep enough and make the test thorough enough to find what is in the earth that can be reached at that point.

It seems to be human nature to kick about taxes. We always think taxes are too high. Here in Nemaha some of our citizens strenuously objected to paying teachers higher salaries and to putting in a heating plant because the taxes would be so high. Last year our school tax was 17 mills and village tax 11 mills. In Omaha this year the municipal and school tax combined amount to 64 1-2 mills. Besides this there is the county and state tax. No wonder the merchants want the levy made as low as possible.

This reminds us of an Auburn citizen who objected to the high taxes in that town and moved to Lincoln to escape them. When he paid his taxes there he found the Auburn taxes were low in comparison. If you live in a city you have to pay for the privilege.

A Wonderful Happening

Long Live The King!

is the popular cry throughout European countries, while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by Hill Bros. Druggists. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

E. H. Knapp, rural mail carrier on route 2, got through to St. Deroin Thursday for the first time since the heavy rain of July 14. He is unable to make all his route yet. C. P. Barker, carrier on route 1, makes part of the route one day and the remainder the next day, as he is unable to make the full route every day on account of bridges being out and bad roads.

The Charming Women

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at Hill Bros. Druggists. 50c.

To Cecil Smith: You are hereby notified that on the 24th day of July, A. D., 1907, Emma Smith filed a petition against you in the district court of Nemaha county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a divorce from you on the grounds that you have willfully and wantonly deserted and wholly refused to support the said plaintiff and her infant child Cecile Smith, though amply able so to do, and for the care, custody and education of said infant child. You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the second day of September, A. D., 1907.
