

CAKES FOR SUMMER

SUGGESTION FROM DELAWARE SEEMS GOOD.

Small Amount of Nutmeg Added to the Seasoning—Making the Little Fancy Cakes—To Add Chocolate Coating.

Down in Delaware, where they pride themselves on being good housekeepers and cooks, they make their angel cake like everybody else except one little point about the seasoning, which is this: Whether vanilla or lemon be used for flavoring a very little nutmeg is added, for it is considered that it improves either one. If you do not wish to use grated nutmeg in light cakes an infusion of it in spirits will make a flavoring that is handy at any time for cookies, or spice cakes, or fruit cake.

If little fancy cakes are desired it is well to make a good light loaf cake and cut it in cubes and finish these little cakes with different icings—white, chocolate, green and rose color in soft tints—with a nut or cherry or bit of citron in each.

Another thing to do is to make a delicate sponge cake mixture and bake it in small drop cakes, evening the edges with a round cutter when baked. Spread them with apricot marmalade or something similar and put two together.

Now prepare to dip these little cakes, called bouchees, in a chocolate coating. Make a gill of sugar and water syrup, flavored with vanilla, in a double boiler, and add a fourth of a pound of chocolate. Add sufficient very fine confectioners' sugar to form a stiff paste. Stir over the fire until it is warm. Dip the little double cakes in this and lay on a sieve to drain. Dry the chocolate glaze in a warm oven. Leave the door open rather than allow it to become too hot.

To make the sponge cake part use six eggs. Break them separately. To the yolks add two tablespoonfuls of orange-flower water and one-half a pound of fine sugar. Beat with a spoon for five minutes. Whip the whites until firm. Mix these lightly in with the yolks and sugar before adding the flour. Five ounces of flour will suffice, and it must be sifted.

Make a cone out of a stiff sheet of white paper which is sized. Fill with the sponge cake mixture. Fold over the top and then cut off the point so the batter can be squeezed out by pressing the top. Squeeze out into rounds upon white paper laid on a baking sheet. The same mixture can be made into lady fingers. Many of the lady finger cakes have an admixture of corn starch instead of all flour, as it makes a fine grained cake. Bake a short time to a light color.

Chill Sauce.

One dozen good, fully ripe, large-sized tomatoes, peeled; four medium-sized onions, peeled; three large peppers, green; chop fine and boil from one to two hours in cider vinegar, enough to prevent burning. When thoroughly tender add spices as follows: One level teaspoonful of salt, one-third teaspoonful of ground cinnamon and allspice, one-fourth teaspoonful of ground cloves, and the same quantity of cayenne pepper, one-half teaspoonful of black pepper, and one-half teaspoonful of ground ginger. Boil the whole ten minutes longer; then seal in jars while hot. It is better to add the pungent spices gradually, tasting now and then to obtain the desired pungency. This will make one quart of Chill sauce.

To Preserve Grapes.

There are several methods, but it would be impossible to recommend any one of them without first making the experiment. If you like, however, you might try an old-fashioned rule: Place the bunches of grapes gently between layers of cotton that have been arranged in a large glass, or earthenware jar. Seal this jar so securely that no air can reach the fruit. Then keep in a cool closet.—The Delineator.

Berry Pudding.

Place one quart of berries in a pudding dish and put over them sugar enough to sweeten. Then take one cup flour with salt and one teaspoon baking powder thoroughly mixed through it, and work in a little butter. Stir up with sweet milk to make a thin batter, pour over the berries and bake a half hour. Serve with cream and sugar.

Dried Cherries.

Wash and stone the cherries and place in single layers on plates. Sprinkle generously with granulated sugar and dry in the sun till thoroughly cured. Heat carefully in the oven before putting away in jars. This makes a delicious confection.

Banana and Prune Salad.

Toss together equal quantities of cooked prunes, cut in bits, and sliced bananas. Serve with a blend of orange and lemon juice, with pineapple juice or cream dressing.

SETTING THE BRIDE AT EASE.

"Widder's" Sympathy Went Out to Fellow Passenger.

A couple recently married had just entered the train that was to bear them to the mountains on their honeymoon, when they became aware of the close scrutiny of them by a female passenger, who had evidently "spotted" a bride and groom. The young wife, on opening her handbag, let fall some rice on the floor, and the woman smiled. The other passengers regarded the couple with interest. Seeing that the bride was every moment becoming more flushed and uncomfortable by reason of their scrutiny, the woman in the goodness of her heart, leaned across the carriage.

"Never mind, my dear!" she said. "I'm a widder now, but by this time next week I'll be in the same fix myself!"

NO RELIEF FROM ECZEMA

For Over Two Years—Patent Medicines, Quack Cures and Doctors Fail—Cuticura Succeeds.

"I was very badly afflicted with eczema for more than two years. The parts affected were my limbs below the knees. I tried all the physicians in the town and some in the surrounding towns, and I also tried all the patent remedies that I heard of, besides all the cures advised by old women and quacks, and found no relief whatever until I commenced using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. In the Cuticura Remedies I found immediate relief, and was soon sound and well. C. V. Beltz, Tippecanoe, Ind., Nov. 15, '05."

Awful Warning.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. F. Gerald Blattner, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Your Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, always obtaining the desired results."

Dr. Gustave A. Elsengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

SORE SHOULDERS

I would like very much to personally meet every reader of this paper who owns any horses that have sore shoulders and tell him about Security Gail Salve. This is impossible so I am going to tell you through the paper. You and I both know that horses working with sore shoulders are in pain, and that they can't do as much work without running down as when they are free from pain. I also know perfectly well that Security Gail Salve will cure these shoulders, but you do not know it. If you did you would buy a box of your dealer at once and cure them up, for you have no doubt often wished that you knew of something you could rely on. You can rely absolutely on Security Gail Salve. It will do its work every time, or if you prefer to try it first I will mail you a sample can free. Just write for it—it will go to you on first mail.

Also I want to tell you that Security Antiseptic Healer is as good for barb wire cuts as Security Gail Salve is for harness galls. Dealers carry them in 2c, 5c and 10c sizes. Use them for your needs; I guarantee you perfect satisfaction.
