A new schedule on the Burlington took effect Monday morning. Train No. 5, the "Q" passenger train from Chicago, arrives at 8:55 a. m. hereafter and the Lincoln and Holdrege passenger trains depart at 9 o'clock a. m. instead of 8:35 as heretofore.—Neb. City Tribune.

The U. S. snag boat James B. McPherson passed up the river Wednesday. It landed east of town, stopping long enough for the clerk to come up town and get the mail, and then went on up the river. This is the same boat that smashed the cable ferry at Shook's Island, six miles southeast of Nemaha, when it went down the river a week ago last Friday.

C. R. Hacker and Frank Daily were pleasant callers at these headquarters Tuesday. Charley says he is not a candidate for any office but was speaking a good word for Mr. Daily, candidate for sheriff, and also for his young friend Clark Cottrell, who would like to be surveyor for Nemaha county, although he did not file as a candidate for that office.

A Big Perch.

Last Friday Ernie Alexander caught what is said to be the largest perch ever landed in this section. It weighed eleven pounds. They are seldom caught here weighing more than five or six pounds—occasionally an eight pounder will be caught. Mr. Alexander was fishing with line and pole in the Nemaha river when he got this one.

A small stern wheel boat, with a gasoline engine as motive power, passed up the river Friday forenoon. It was pushing a barge on which was a lot of lumber. The boat was named the "City of Terre Haute."

Saturday afternoon another gasoline boat went up the river, called "Francis A." It was some larger than the one going up the day before. We understand these boats will engage in the work of ripping along the banks of the Missouri river.

Miss Hettie Seid is now "hello girl" at Shubert central.

Some Good Corn.

Thursday afternoon J. L. Curtwright brought in a sample of corn he is raising this year on the I. J. Jarvis farm. The stalk has three good ears on it, and he says if any one beats that he has better still. This corn was flooded in the heavy rain of about six weeks ago, but it wasn't damaged much. Mr. Curtwright also brought us in some roasting ears from his field corn.

Nemaha was well supplied with candidates Tuesday. Fred Rohrs and Frank Daily, candidates for sheriff, G. B. Beveridge, candidate for clerk of the district court, Fred Mayer, candidate for county commissioner, J. R. Maddox, candidate for treasurer, Geo. D. Carrington, candidate for county superintendent, all republicans, and Will Parriott, fusionist, candidate for county judge, were all interviewing our voters on that day.

Sheriff Rohrs and District clerk Beveridge were in Nemaha Tuesday. The sheriff says he was posting notices containing the names to be voted for at the coming primaries—and Mr. Beveridge says he was just going along to keep Fred company, but we notice that neither of them objected to talking politics a little and Fred even made known in a quiet way that he would like the votes of republicans at the primaries for the nomination for sheriff, and that Beveridge would appreciate the same favor for clerk of the district court.
