

There will be preaching at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

E. E. Hill, the druggist, is moving to York, where he has a position in a store.

It is probable the protracted meetings at the Christian church will close Sunday night.

Miss Esther Gillespie went to Shubert Tuesday evening, returning Friday morning.

Mrs. Wesley H. Clark went to Nebraska City Saturday afternoon, returning Monday.

Examine the chimneys to your houses occasionally and see that they are safe. It may save you a costly fire.

T. J. Rumbaugh is able to be out again, after being confined to the house for over a week with stomach trouble.

Wm. E. Smiley of Wymore came to Nemaha Friday morning to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smiley, and see his wife and son.

Homer Stokes of Brownville made his usual semi-weekly trip to Nemaha Thursday evening, returning Friday morning. Homer always did think lots of Nemaha—or of some of the people here.

Mrs. Sumner, living a mile from Stella, died Thursday night. She was an aunt of L. D. Rogers and Mrs. Chas. G. Duerfeldt, her husband being a brother of their mother, Mrs. E. D. Rogers of Auburn.

Miss Hazel Parker, who has been visiting in Nemaha and vicinity, returned to her home at Auburn last Friday, and the next day went to Fairbury, where she has a position in the News printing office.

Wesley H. Clark went to Nebraska City Wednesday afternoon, returning Thursday evening. His nephew, Joe Clark's son, is very low from hemorrhage of the bowels, with slight hopes of recovery.

Miss Ida Young, who recently moved from Auburn to Nemaha, making her home with her sister, Mrs. Rufus Rowen, returned to Auburn Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Thompson, mother of Mrs. Dr. Boal.

James A. Stephenson, who has been at Lincoln for some time as a juror in the United States district court, returned home Wednesday, having got excused by the judge, and the next afternoon started for his old home in New York state.

Mrs. Dr. Lutgen and Miss Mary Parker of Auburn drove down to the poor farm Tuesday and visited Mrs. Brown and her daughter, Mrs. Sadie Scott, until Thursday. Mrs. Scott was recently a patient at Dr. Lutgen's hospital and Miss Parker was her nurse.

No services have been held at night at the Methodist church while the protracted meetings have been going on in the Christian church, but pastor and members have attended the other church and assisted in the services. We are pleased at the Christian spirit manifested.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sherwood of Pleasant Valley, Oregon, arrived in Nemaha Friday forenoon and will spend the winter with their daughters, Mrs. O. E. Houtz and Miss Ethel Sherwood. Their coming at this time was a pleasant surprise, as they were not expected for two weeks yet.

Marion Minick, who has a good position with a livery barn in Nebraska City, came home Wednesday of last week to help his father get things on the farm in shape for winter. He returned to the city Thursday afternoon.

Joe Bunger came down from Peru Wednesday forenoon, returning in the afternoon. Joe informs us that he is going to quit working at the carpenter trade and be a farmer, having bought a half section of land in Sheridan county, Kansas, where he expects to move next fall. He has sold his residence property in Peru. The widow of the man who was killed while working for Joe on the normal building, and who started a suit for damages, has withdrawn the suit as her attorney, after investigating, informed her she had no grounds for damages.

Ex-Governor and ex-Senator Dietrich, in an interview in the Lincoln News, claims that he was forced to retire from politics because he found in office a nest of skunks and went after them with a club. He claims that his actions both as governor and senator were above reproach. He lays the blame for his political downfall primarily on W. S. Summers, formerly U. S. attorney for Nebraska, and generally on a lot of postmasters who failed of reappointment and others who did not get places at his hands. He does not regret that he entered politics, and says he is a republican yet. He believes Gov. Sheldon is a strong and growing man, absolutely honest and wanting to do what is right.

Went Over the Narrow

John I. Dressler had an accident Friday of last week that might easily have cost him his life. He had been hauling wood from St. Deroin and was making his last trip. He had on a big load of wood. Men were at work grading up the approach to the bridge at "Bridge Hollow." One wheel of Mr. Dressler's wagon struck a chunk, and as the team was going pretty fast the wagon tongue must have been cracked. This side of the bridge, along the "narrows," as he started down a grade, Mr. Dressler threw on the brake and pulled up the horses. The tongue broke and as a wheel struck a chunk the wagon ran into the bank and upset, throwing Mr. Dressler over the bank. Fortunately the standards were wired together at the top, which kept the wood from falling on him, and the wagon stayed on the top of the hill. Mr. Dressler was not hurt, and with the help of men who were working the road soon got straightened out and came on home rejoicing. But he is not hunting for any contracts for hauling any more wood from St. Deroin.
