

Beautiful Gifts FOR Christmas OR Weddings

PRICES & STYLES TO SUIT EVERY ONE

A CHOICE COLLECTION

Of Handkerchiefs, Mufflers, Gloves, Furs, Dress Goods, Silks, Rugs, Pictures, China, Cut Glass, Silverware, Table Linen, Dolls, Etc.

THE FINEST DOLL

in Nemaha county may be seen on display in the north window.

COME EARLY

to select your Gifts. They are going fast.

EARLE GILBERT

Both Phones. Nemaha, Nebr.

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Old papers for sale at this office.

Rev. J. W. Sapp preached at Shubert last Sunday.

Mrs. Mead of Indiana arrived in Nemaha Thursday on a visit to her son Norman Mead.

Will F. Keeling came down from Lincoln Saturday evening, returning Monday morning.

Mrs. Will F. Keeling has been quite sick for several days, with grip, pleurisy, etc., but is now better.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh went to Omaha Thursday morning to visit their daughter, Mrs. Horner.

Postmaster Titus has put in a money order window and thus improved the furnishings of the postoffice.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co. are selling all their stoves at greatly reduced prices. Don't fail to get one.

Miss Pearl Burns, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Frank Burgess, near Syracuse, Nebr., returned home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. L. Russell and daughter, Miss Neva, united with the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Fuller Burns went to Dunbar, Neb., Thursday morning, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Burgess.

A pair of gloves was left at Mrs. Earle Gilberts Saturday night, which the owner can get by calling for them.

Invitations have been issued for two weddings on Christmas day, and it is rumored there is to be at least one more.

We have just a few pieces of pyrography goods left which we will sell at half price.
Earle Gilbert.

Brownie spring skates are easy on your feet and cost no more than the common kind.
E. & B. Lbr. Co.

For sale—Plymouth Rock cockerels—fine ones.
G. E. N. Sanders,
R. F. D. No. 1, Brownville, Neb.

Elder Gregg denies that he was responsible for the storm Sunday night, even if there was a good deal of water in his sermon.

Join the "Smiling" club and be cheerful.

Two inches of water fell during the storm Sunday night.

District court adjourns this week until after the holidays.

Eli Knapp and Perry Rowen went to Nebraska City Tuesday.

Rev. G. W. Ayers began a protracted meeting at Howe Sunday evening.

Sweet potatoes for sale—can be had at any time all through the winter.
Wm. Rossell.

A. N. Harris of Aspinwall precinct called in Tuesday and paid his subscription for another year.

J. L. Curtright, who has been visiting his son Walter, near Syracuse, returned home Monday evening.

J. D. Graves of Peru came to Nemaha Tuesday to look at Ed Moore's herd of Duroc Jersey hogs, with a view of buying several head.

Evangelist Samuel Gregg left for his home at Fremont Monday morning. From there he was to go to Oxford to begin a meeting Thursday night.

Mrs. E. S. McCandless came down from Thurman, Iowa, Thursday evening of last week, going to Auburn Saturday, and from there home.

Mrs. Gertie Galbraith and her little daughter started for Duluth, Minnesota, Monday, where Mrs. Galbraith will join her husband, Warren Galbraith.

All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle, for I am bound to collect what is due me in order to pay my bills.
Andrew Aynes.

I need money and must have it. Those indebted to me will please call and settle their accounts at once.
W. H. Barker.

Mrs. D. E. Littrell has been at Brownville recently, helping take care of her sister, Mrs. Nate Sedoras, who has been very sick but who is now some better.

Mrs. C. M. Keeling of Springfield, South Dakota, visited her husband's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling, from Tuesday evening until Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kerker came home Monday evening, after a week's visit with relatives at Des Moines and Council Bluffs, Iowa. They had a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lowe of Peru, and Mr. Lowe's mother, Mrs. M. E. Lowe, and his niece, Miss Ida Caldwell, of Craig, Mo., visited Nemaha relatives Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. Haggard, the oculist, of Nebraska City, was in Nemaha between trains Tuesday. He is thinking of making regular visits here. The doctor made this office a pleasant call.

T. J. Hall, one of the old timers in the vicinity of St. Deroin, and who owns a fine fruit farm a short distance south of that village, moved to Nebraska City the latter part of last week.

Special for Saturday

All of our Bedspreads, fringed and not fringed, some with cut corners for iron beds, large size, regularly worth $2.25. Saturday only - $1.89

Men's Wool Sweaters in bright colors, cheap at the regular price of $2.25. Saturday only, $1.78

Remember our Grocery department. Don't forget that Christmas will soon be here.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

Sunday night we had a regular thunder shower, interspersed with hail, and accompanied by a hard wind. It commenced raining about 8:30 and continued all night with brief intermissions. Tuesday morning it snowed quite lively for a little while.

The oyster supper held last Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Earle Gilbert by class No. 8 of the M. E. Sunday school was a very pleasant and successful event. The receipts were a little over $22 and the net proceeds were over $17, which will be donated for some useful purpose, to be decided by the members of the class.

J. H. Seid got one bone broken in his left arm, between the elbow and wrist, last Saturday. He was helping load some calves into a hog rack on a wagon, at Alf Kinton's, and had his arm thrust through between the slats, tying a calf, when it threw its head around, striking the arm and breaking one bone. Dr. Kay was called and reduced the fracture. Henry says it doesn't pain him much except when he moves around and jars it.

Attention is called to the statement of the condition of the Bank of Nemaha, in another column. This shows the bank to be in a splendid condition financially, with a reserve fund of over 57 per cent of the amount of deposits. The business is steadily growing.

The members of the Rebekah Lodge gave Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Howe a pleasant surprise Wednesday evening. Twenty-five of the members went to their home northeast of town, with fresh oysters, celery, pickles, etc. It was a total surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Howe expect to leave for Oklahoma in about a week. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Some of the people who were at church Sunday night had quite a time getting home. It was raining and pitch dark except when the lightning flashed. Some of the people got lost, others got off the walk and fell down in the mud and had a bad time generally. Some of them declare they will never go to church again if it looks the least bit like a storm.

STOVES!

On account of the mild fall so far we have too many stoves left on hand, so we will make prices on them to sell them

If you need a stove now or in the near future it will pay you to get one right now.

Remember, Winter is Just Commencing

One 18-inch Ideal Leader base burner	was 844.00, now $37.00
One 16-inch Illinois heater	was 28.00, now 22.00
One 18-inch Prize Oak heater	was 21.00, now 16.00
Two 14-inch Prize Oak heaters	were 17.00, now 13.00
One 15-inch Hardy Oak heater	was 12.50, now 10.00
One 13-inch Rival Oak heater	was 8.50, now 6.50
One 13-inch Boss Oak heater	was 7.50, now 6.00
Two 11-inch Boss Oak heaters	were 6.75, now 5.00

We also have a few ranges and cook stoves which we will sell at the same liberal discounts. Don't fail to get one of these stoves. They won't last long at these prices.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.