
Beautiful Gifts

FOR

Christmas

OR

Weddings

PRICES & STYLES TO SUIT EVERY ONE

A CHOICE COLLECTION

Of Handkerchiefs, Mufflers, Gloves, Furs, Dress Goods, Silks, Rugs, Pictures, China, Cut Glass, Silverware, Table Linen, Dolls, Etc.

THE FINEST DOLL in Nemaha county may be seen on display in the north window.

COME EARLY to select your Gifts. They are going fast.

EARLE GILBERT

Both Phones. Nemaha, Nebr.

John Dorram of Neck, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Monday on a visit to his many friends.

Mrs. E. A. Howe went to Vesta Tuesday to visit relatives a few days.

J. D. Graves came down from Peru Tuesday and bought two fine brood sows of E. E. Moore.

Miss Minnie May went to Omaha Monday, visiting there and at Plattsmouth until Thursday afternoon.

Jas. A. Stephenson, who has been visiting in New York state for several weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson came down from Shenandoah, Iowa, Friday, to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. M. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. LaLollette, who have been visiting in Lincoln for some time, returned to Nemaha last Saturday.

Mrs. M. C. Scott, who has been visiting at Covington, Ind., for several months, returned home Friday of this week.

John Owens of Stanberry, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Wednesday of last week on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Will F. Keeling.

J. H. Linn came down from Lincoln several days ago and is doing some carpenter work on his farm southwest of town.

We have just a few pieces of pyrography goods left which we will sell at half price.

Earle Gilbert.

Brownie spring skates are easy on your feet and cost no more than the common kind.

E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Cyrus G. Minick, night operator for the Burlington at Beatrice, came in to Nemaha Tuesday, having a ten days' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Lukens of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Nemaha the first of last week on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodward.

Harry Rowen came near having an attack of pneumonia the first of the week, but by prompt aid of Dr. Frazier it was checked before it got very bad.

Carl E. Sanders of Garretson, South Dakota, arrived in Nemaha on the 7 o'clock train Friday morning, called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. J. M. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts came up from Kansas City Saturday morning to attend the wedding of their brother, Ole G. Roberts, and Miss May Kerker. They returned Sunday night.

Elmer E. Allen & Son, Bankers

This is a new sign on the door of the Bank of Nemaha. The junior member of the firm arrived at 3:30 a. m. Thursday—weighs 7 1-2 pounds. Elmer is about as proud as anyone can be.

Mrs. J. M. Clark was on the farm in Glen Rock precinct last week, keeping house for John and Will Clark and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Warren, who were doing carpenter work and papering the house, getting it in shape for Mr. and Mrs. Clark to move in, which they expect to do next month.

Our store has always been recognized as

HEADQUARTERS

FOR

HOLIDAY GOODS

and this year we live up to our reputation. We have a large display of Holiday Goods which we invite you to see.

Chinaware

Cups and Saucers
Bread and Milk Sets
Sauce Dishes, Chocolate Pots, Berry Sets
Bread and Cake Plates
Japanese China Plates and Dishes

Handkerchiefs

Men's and Women's Hemstitched Handkerchiefs
Men's and Women's Silk Handkerchiefs
Men's Fancy Border Handkerchiefs
Women's Fancy Embroidered Handkerchiefs

Fancy Boxes

Collar Boxes Cuff Boxes
Trinket Boxes Glove Boxes
Handkerchief Boxes
Japanese Wicker and Wood Boxes
Necktie Boxes

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn

Next Wednesday is Christmas. Old papers for sale at this office.

Miss Ida Young went to Auburn Monday.

Have you got all your Christmas presents ready?

The school closed Friday for a two weeks' vacation.

J. M. West of Brownville was a Nemaha visitor Monday.

We had a snow storm Tuesday, but not enough for sleighing.

Both Sunday schools are practicing for Christmas entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh returned from Omaha Tuesday evening.

Marion Minick came down from Nebraska City Wednesday forenoon.

The school held Christmas exercises Friday afternoon of this week.

I need money and must have it. Those indebted to me will please call and settle their accounts at once.

W. H. Barker.

Sweet potatoes for sale—can be had at any time all through the winter.

Wm. Rossell.

John and Von Farson and Ed Yackly went hunting Tuesday afternoon and brought back 23 rabbits.

Mrs. E. C. Hodkin went to Auburn Wednesday to see her husband, who is clerk at the Byers hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Thompson, who have been visiting in Shenandoah, Iowa, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Fuller was quite sick for two or three days this week, but we are glad to learn she is now better.

For sale—Plymouth Rock cockrels—fine ones.

G. E. N. Sanders.
R. F. D. No. 1, Brownville, Neb.

Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Matthews, started last Saturday for Denver, where they will spend the winter.

All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle, for I am bound to collect what is due me in order to pay my bills.

Andrew Aynes.

STOVES!

On account of the mild fall so far we have too many stoves left on hand, so we will make prices on them to sell them.

If you need a stove now or in the near future it will pay you to get one right now.

Remember, Winter is Just Commencing

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| One 18-inch Ideal Leader base burner, | was 844.00, now $37.00 |
| One 16-inch Illinois heater | was 28.00, now 22.00 |
| One 18-inch Prize Oak heater | was 21.00, now 16.00 |
| Two 14-inch Prize Oak heaters | were 17.00, now 13.00 |
| One 15-inch Hardy Oak heater | was 12.50, now 10.00 |
| One 13-inch Rival Oak heater | was 8.50, now 6.50 |
| One 13-inch Boss Oak heater | was 7.50, now 6.00 |
| Two 11-inch Boss Oak heaters | were 6.75, now 5.00 |

We also have a few ranges and cook stoves which we will sell at the same liberal discounts. Don't fail to get one of these stoves. They won't last long at these prices.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.