

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Jones of Dover, Oklahoma, arrived in this county last Saturday and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John M. Clark, and other relatives and friends. Mr. Jones informs us that he has bought a place joining Dover and will move in soon. He has leased his farm, about four miles from Dover, and is going to take his ease.

Thursday evening Rev. and Mrs. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Russell and the latter's Sunday school class went up to the poor farm and the class gave a special Christmas program for the benefit of the inmates. Each inmate was also presented with a booklet by Mrs. Ayers, a handkerchief by Mrs. Russell, and a sack of candy by the class. These people certainly showed the true Christmas spirit.

The young people gave Mr. Mrs. John Clemans a great send-off Thursday afternoon, when they took the train for Peru. Their trunks were decorated with such suggestive placards as "Mr. and Mrs. Newlyweds," "Just married," etc. On the groom's back was pinned a paper informing the public in large letters that "We're just married, we are." The young couple were showered with rice until the train pulled out.

We learn that Luther H. Barner, who has been living near Elson, Oklahoma, since he left here seven years ago, has sold his farm and will soon move to Texas. He expects to locate between Galveston and Houston and go to raising rice. He paid $1,300 for his farm seven years ago, and sold it for $4,100—over three times as much. He will not buy in Texas until he has lived there awhile and finds how he likes it.

A change has been made in the services at the Methodist church. Hereafter the preaching services will be held both morning and evening on alternate Sundays. Next Sunday the services will be at Howe, and one week from that time at Nemaha. The Sundays that there is preaching at the Christian church there will be none at the Methodist church and vice versa. This arrangement has been made by the pastors and members of the churches concerned.

The usual exercises were held Christmas eve by the Sunday schools. At the Christian church a large tree contained presents for each scholar, and many handsome presents were also on the tree for friends.

At the Methodist church the children and young folks all received a sack of candy and nuts and also an orange. A nicely decorated evergreen stood in one corner. No presents were given.

The exercises by both schools were excellent.

Four Christmas Weddings

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Cooper, in Nemaha, Nebraska, Wednesday, December 25, 1907, at high noon, Mr. John Clemans of Peru and Miss Lulu Cooper were united in marriage, Rev. G. W. Ayers performing the ceremony.

At 12 o'clock the wedding march was played by Mrs. J. P. Clark of Peru, and the bride and groom, preceded by Miss Bessie Washburn and Mr. Blinn Helms, bridesmaid and best man, entered the parlor and took their places underneath large wedding bells. During the playing of soft music Rev. G. W. Ayers pronounced the ceremony that made the young couple husband and wife. After congratulations a fine dinner was served.

Numerous handsome and valuable presents were received, among them being a piano from the bride's parents, a family bible and a teacher's bible, rocking chair, silver knives and forks, teaspoons, picture, large rug, clock, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemans went to their home on a farm near Peru Thursday afternoon.

We are not acquainted with the groom, but he is highly spoken of by those who know him. He has certainly shown good judgment in the selection of his bride, who is one of the prizes of Nemaha.

We extend heartiest congratulations and best wishes to the young couple.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Maxwell, one-half mile north of Nemaha, Nebr., Wednesday, December 25, 1907, at 6 o'clock p. m., Mr. John Ray Clark and Miss Ruth M. Maxwell were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. G. W. Ayers.

At the appointed hour Miss Fannie Noyes of Lincoln sang a solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss Daisy Clark, sister of the groom. Then Miss Daisy played the wedding march and the bride and groom, preceded by Mr. Edward I. Maxwell of Webster, Kansas, and Miss Bessie Smith of Dorchester, Nebr., entered the parlor, Rev. G. W. Ayers went through with the brief ceremony, and they were pronounced husband and wife, after which they received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their friends. Fresh oysters, coffee and cake were then served.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clark—as fine a young man as you will find anywhere. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maxwell and is a jewel—one of the very best young ladies we ever knew. We wish both a long life of happiness, of good fortune, and of usefulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark received a large number of fine presents—three nice rocking chairs, two sets silver teaspoons, three sets knives and forks, six tablecloths, three dozen napkins, large lamp, a bible, etc., etc.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clark gave the infair dinner, and it was certainly a fine one.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Davidson Baker, in Brownville, Wednesday, December 25, 1907, at high noon, Mr. Curtis L. Brown and Miss Ruth Baker were united in marriage by Rev. J. W. Sapp.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. W. Frazier. After congratulations an elaborate dinner was partaken of.

The wedding was a very quiet one, only immediate relatives, Elder Sapp and wife and Dr. Frazier and wife being present.

The newly married couple took the afternoon train for Ohio, where they will spend the honeymoon.

The groom has been associated with his father, R. I. Brown, in the management of the poor farm for several years, and is a capable young farmer and business man. His bride is one of the most popular young ladies in Brownville.

The Advertiser extends heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

At the home of Mr. Myers, two miles west of Howe, on Wednesday, December 25, 1907, at 8 o'clock p. m., Rev. G. W. Ayers united in marriage Mr. Harry Wheeler and Miss Hester J. Howell, both of Bedford precinct.

Resolutions of Respect

At a meeting of Nemaha chapter No. 76, Order of Eastern Star, held Friday night, Dec. 20, 1907, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, God has removed our beloved sister, Julia M. Sanders, by taking her soul to live in the spirit world, separating from us one who has endeared herself by her sisterly and loving kindness to us and her faithfulness to the work in our order, always ready to answer any call to help in the relief of our distressed members, and give consolation to all in disseminating the principles of our order, with whom she might be able to comfort; therefore be it Resolved, By Nemaha chapter No. 76, O. E. S., that our sympathies go out to her relatives and friends and sisters and brothers of the Star in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of this instrument be handed to the editor of The Advertiser for publication, and that the whole of this be recorded in the minutes of our chapter.

"No one heard the door that opened
When she passed beyond our call.
Soft as loosened leaves of roses
One by one our loved ones fall."

He Fought at Gettysburg

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took, for several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alternative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists 50c.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—soothes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Brush your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does, it's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.
