

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Old papers for sale at this office.

Mrs. C. P. Barker is on the sick list.

School opened again Monday morning.

T. J. Rumbaugh visited Peru Thursday.

Eli Knapp went over to Stella Thursday.

The fine winter weather still continues.

W. T. Whitten went to Peru Monday morning.

The roads are getting in pretty good shape again.

Mrs. Jas. A. Titus has been sick for several days.

Will Cochran of Auburn was a Nemaha visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh visited Brownville friends Thursday.

Nelson Hadlock was quite sick for two or three days this week but is better now.

Postmaster Titus went to Omaha Wednesday morning, returning the next afternoon.

Sweet potatoes for sale—can be had at any time all through the winter. Wm. Rossell.

Miss Helen Hoover, who has been stopping in Denver for a few weeks, returned to Nemaha Saturday.

Ray Clark finds that he can't well keep house without The Advertiser, so he called in Monday and paid for it for a year.

Brownie spring skates are easy on your feet and cost no more than the common kind. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

All persons indebted to me are requested to call and settle, for I am bound to collect what is due me in order to pay my bills. Andrew Aynes.

I need money and must have it. Those indebted to me will please call and settle their accounts at once. W. H. Barker.

Many of our citizens have been attending district court at Auburn this week.

Mrs. W. H. Barker went to Shubert Saturday evening, returning Monday morning.

I want to hire a man by the month. Jno. S. Stull, Auburn, Nebr.

Lester Peabody and Ray Clark were improving the roads Wednesday by going over them with a drag.

John T. Webber is having a lot of fodder shredded, thus providing a lot of good roughness for stock cheap.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clemans of Peru came down to Nemaha last Saturday evening, returning Monday afternoon.

Miss Hazel Parker came in from Auburn Tuesday afternoon and is helping in The Advertiser office for a few days.

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn returned to Peru Monday morning to resume their studies in the normal school.

Miss Nora Aynes went to Brownville Saturday afternoon, to visit friends and attend church. She returned Monday.

The angel washed the windows to this print shop Thursday, and now it is so light we can see all the cobwebs in the office.

Mrs. J. I. May, Mrs. August Quiller and Miss Minnie May went to Peru Thursday morning, returning in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lowe of Peru, who have been visiting Grandma Seabury for several days, went to Berlin, Nebr., Tuesday.

The condition of Roy Rowen continues to be very serious. He is suffering from a severe attack of heart disease and his condition is critical.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Young of Berlin, Nebr., came to Nemaha Monday and were guests of Grandma Seabury, returning to Berlin Tuesday morning.

Will S. Jay, the representative of the Lincoln News, was in Nemaha Thursday, and gave these headquarters a very pleasant call.

Ephraim Cooper of Denver, Colorado, who has been visiting his brother, Isaac N. Cooper, for two or three weeks, started for his home Monday afternoon.

E. A. Howe shipped his stock, household goods, farm implements, etc., Tuesday evening, to Weatherford, Oklahoma, going through with them.

Rob Russell, living near Hastings, was shaking hands with Nemaha friends last Saturday. Rob is now a married man and has leased his father's farm.

In the list of officers of the Methodist Sunday school, published last week, we accidentally omitted the name of Miss Ruth Maxwell, who was elected assistant organist.

Miss Elizabeth Kurtz, a nurse from the Methodist hospital at Omaha, who has been staying with Mrs. Elmer E. Allen for two or three weeks, returned to Omaha Monday.

Mrs. Helen Matthews was granted a divorce from her husband, Dr. Austin Matthews, in district court at Auburn last Saturday, and her maiden name of Helen Hoover was restored.

Cyrus G. Minick, who has been night operator at Beatrice for some time, but who was recently sent to Nebraska City, was on train 97 Thursday morning on his way to Washington, Kansas.

Jeff Broady of Lincoln visited his brother, J. C. Broady, over Sunday. He was accompanied by Mr. Haggerty, also of Lincoln. Both these gentlemen are in the employ of the State Journal Co.

C. V. Glenn, who had to take a layoff on account of an attack of grip, was able to resume work Wednesday morning. H. M. Reaneau, the relief agent, left on the early train Wednesday morning.

Miss Vera Minick of Auburn, who has been visiting her grandmother at Salem, came to Nemaha on the early train Wednesday morning and visited with her aunt, Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, until the train went to Auburn.

Jno. W. Ritchey wants it distinctly understood that he is not trying to sell $1.50 hats for $1.91, even if the advertisement in last week's paper did so read. The copy furnished said $1.50 hats for $1.19, and the printer transposed the figures.

Mrs. Huff of Stanbury, Mo., mother of Mrs. W. F. Keeling, arrived in Nemaha Tuesday, and the next day in company with her son, John Owens, went to Hastings, Nebr., to take possession of a restaurant which Mrs. Huff has bought. The restaurant will be conducted by Mr. Owens and Mrs. W. F. Keeling. The latter is getting ready to move to Hastings and expects to go next week. Her many friends in Nemaha regret very much that she has decided to leave here but wish her all kinds of good luck in her new home.

OUR JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

As usual at this time of year, we offer the balance of our Fall and Winter Stock at Big Reduction prices. We make these concessions so as to close out surplus stock in as short a time as possible.

In most cases prices are reduced to LESS THAN COST

Our customers have learned to take advantage of these Special Offerings. No time should be lost as this is an unusual chance to secure the biggest kind of bargains.

JNO. W. RITCHEY
Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB

We received a New Years greeting a few days ago from Rev. James Mark Darby, former pastor of the Methodist church at Nemaha but who is now pastor at Friend, Nebr. The card contains a good photograph of Rev. Darby and of the large church in which he preaches.

Rufus Rowen is certainly having his time fully occupied these days. His wife has been sick with lung trouble, and her father, A. R. Young, is in a critical condition from heart disease and dropsy. Then Rufe has the telephone central office to attend to. But the neighbors and friends are good and he has plenty of help in caring for the sick.

The stone bridge at Webber's farm has been put in good shape again. This is one of the worst bridges in the county to keep in repair on account of the peculiar condition of the soil and from the fact that no good foundation can be found. A large amount of money has been expended on the present bridge and it is hoped it will stand the test of time.

Senator Burkett has introduced a bill in congress requiring that parties using land for grazing be required to pay rental for the same. It strikes us the proposition is a good one and should carry.

W. H. Barker and daughter, Miss Muriel, went to St. Joe last Saturday evening to have the latter's eyes treated by a specialist. An operation was performed Monday. Miss Muriel will have to remain in St. Joe for about three weeks. The physician says he can heal the eyes but that she will never have good sight in the eye that has been troubling her for so long.

A reunion of the Cooper family was held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Devorss. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Cooper, their son Stephen Cooper, wife and children, their daughter Mrs. Chas. Devorss, husband and children, their daughter Mrs. John Clemans and husband of Peru, and Mr. Cooper's brother, Ephraim Cooper of Denver.

COMING

Opera House, Nemaha
Monday Evening, Jan. 13

THE KIMMEL CO.

A Fly in the Honey

Beautiful Wardrobes

10 20 30

STOVES!

On account of the mild fall so far we have too many stoves left on hand, so we will make prices on them to sell them.

If you need a stove now or in the near future it will pay you to get one right now.

Remember, Winter is Just Commencing

One 18-inch Ideal Leader base burner	was 84.00, now $37.00
One 16-inch Illinois heater	was 28.00, now 22.00
One 18-inch Prize Oak heater	was 21.00, now 16.00
Two 14-inch Prize Oak heaters	were 17.00, now 13.00
One 15-inch Hardy Oak heater	was 12.50, now 10.00
One 13-inch Rival Oak heater	was 8.50, now 6.50
One 13-inch Boss Oak heater	was 7.50, now 6.00
Two 11-inch Boss Oak heaters	were 6.75, now 5.00

We also have a few ranges and cook stoves, which we will sell at the same liberal discounts. Don't fail to get one of these stoves. They won't last long at these prices.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.