Miss Alice Peabody returned Tuesday after a ten days' visit with her sister Grace, at Beatrice. She attended the Scoville meetings and says they are fine.

Mrs. Isaac N. Cooper went to Peru Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Clemans, returning home Thursday.

C. J. Skinner, who is teaching the McCandless school in Aspinwall precinct, started for Ainsworth, Nebr., Wednesday morning.

Peter Kerker commenced his annual ice harvest Thursday morning. The ice is about seven inches thick, clear, and of fine quality.

Swan Nelson, who went to Mystic, South Dakota, about two years ago, but who has recently been at Seattle, Washington, returned to Nemaha Monday.

E. C. Phillips of Table Rock, Nebr., deputy Grand Master Workman A. O. U. W., was in town the first of the week, and met with the local lodge Tuesday night.

Chas. P. Scovill, who for the past year has worked for Ole G. Roberts, has moved to Nemaha, and will complete learning the barber trade with E. E. Rumbaugh.

January went out with a blizzard storm and February came in with the coldest weather we have had this winter—just zero by the thermometer at the depot, and still lower by other thermometers.

Tuesday it rained a little, sleeted a little, snowed a little, and blew a whole lot, and kept this up most of the night and part of the next day. The wind was from the east Tuesday and from the northwest Wednesday.

August Quiller has sold his property in the west part of town—the Henry Clark place—to Frank Rider. Consideration, $1,900. Wm. Filmer engineered the deal but didn't charge any commission for his services.

Two car loads of cattle, one from Tacoma, Washington, and the other from Kremmling, Colorado, arrived the first of the week, for J. M. Clark, who recently bought a farm a few miles west of town.—Peru Pointer.

A. J. Rumbaugh, living out near Barada, was in town on Tuesday asking the sheriff to locate his boy, 17 years old, who left his home the other day to go to Shubert, taking his father's team, wagon and load of corn. He sold the corn in Shubert for $15 and that was the last they heard of him. His father did not know whether he had decided to strike out for himself with the property or whether the boy had met with some misfortune.—Falls City Journal.

Last Friday afternoon the editor borrowed a horse and buggy from Rev. G. W. Ayers and drove out to Howe through the storm to attend a Sunday school convention, and felt well repaid for the effort. We listened to a fine address by Prof. F. M. Gregg of Peru, president of the county Sunday school association, and other one by Prof. Steidley, state superintendent of the Sunday school work. The attendance was not large but those present certainly enjoyed a treat. We got home about 7:30 p. m., Prof. Gregg returning with us.

N. R. Crawford of Reynolds, Nebr., state organizer for the National Benevolent Society of Kansas City, Mo., has been in Nemaha for the past week, and has secured a number of applications for membership. This society pays accident, sick and death benefits.

Mrs. E. A. Minick, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Monteith, in Chase county, Nebr., for several months, has been very sick for six or eight weeks, and is getting no better. Tuesday evening Elmer E. Allen made arrangements for a trained nurse from the Methodist hospital at Omaha to go out the next day and care for her.

Rev. G. W. Ayers began a protracted meeting at the Methodist church Sunday. The attendance has been good considering the weather. Prayer meetings are being held at the homes every afternoon during the week except Monday and Saturday. D. S. Weimer of Brownville has charge of the singing. It is expected that Rev. E. B. Maxey of Palmyra will assist Rev. Ayers, beginning the first of next week.

A few days ago a sick horse wandered into Nemaha and was taken up by F. B. Lowe and Walter Faris. Frank treated the horse and soon had him cured. Later it was found that the horse belonged to an Auburn man. The veterinarian there said it could not be cured without an operation being performed, so owner turned it out and it immediately struck out for Nemaha where relief could be obtained. Sensible horse.

C. H. Kindig, Wm. W. and George Seid and Clyde Kinton returned from Texas Monday morning. Wm. W. Seid was the only one who invested in land. He bought 120 acres near Richmond, a town near Houston, paying $20 per acre for it. All of them say they like the country. It was nice and warm with flowers blooming and lemons, oranges and other fruits growing on the trees. All brought back baskets of fruit, seashells, etc. Mr. Seid has one green lemon that is as large as a small sized squash.

Married Fifty Years
Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John B. Seid of Auburn celebrated their golden wedding at their home. They received a number of nice presents. These good old people, who have spent a half century of life together, are old settlers in Nemaha county, and the friends they have made are past numbering. We hope they will be spared for many years longer. They are 74 and 76 years of age. Mrs. Wm. W. Seid and W. E. Seid were the only relatives present from Nemaha.

Tuesday afternoon C. H. Kindig showed us some samples of corn and pears he brought back from Texas. The corn was medium sized ears, as Mr. Kindig got the average sized ears and not the largest. This corn was raised in the Brazos valley, where Mr. Seid bought. They raise two crops a year, getting from 40 to 50 bushels per acre each crop. Corn is selling at 50 cents per bushel now. The pears were great big ones, some of them fully ripe, and others green. Mr. Kindig says they had all kinds of fresh vegetables. They had a slight freeze just before they got there, but apparently it did no damage.

Notice to R. F. D. Patrons
Postmaster Titus desires to call attention to the practice of some patrons of rural delivery of placing loose coins in their boxes each time they desire to dispatch letters instead of supplying themselves with postage in advance of their needs.

This practice imposes undue hardship on rural carriers in removing loose coins from the boxes and delays them on the service of their route.

The postmaster, therefore, urgently requests that patrons of rural delivery provide themselves and keep on hand a supply of stamps consistent with and in advance of their needs. It is also very desirable that rural patrons place in their mail boxes small detachable cups of wood or tin in which to place coins, when necessary, in purchasing supplies of stamps.
