

EVERY LADY

Will be glad to know that she can get a jacket, skirt or suit tailor-made to order of any material you may have or select. Samples of work on display in our store.
Satisfaction Guaranteed

Special For WEDNESDAY

Imported China Plates 15c each
See the designs in our north window
Only one of each design to a person

EARLE GILBERT

Both Phones NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn Criley, photographer, Auburn.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Smoke La Rosa 5c cigars. Sold by all dealers in Nemaha.

A nice new lot of furniture at E. B. Lbr. Co.

Niel Piersol was up from Barada Tuesday.

W. F. Gillespie moved to Beatrice the first of the week.

W. F. Keeling went to Lincoln Thursday morning, on business.

Wm. Snelling of Shubert visited his Nemaha friends last Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp went to Brownville Thursday morning.

A saw mill has been working at Harry Hoover's farm for several days.

J. W. Armstrong, the Auburn undertaker, gave this office a call Tuesday.

A Burlington bridge gang has been at work in this vicinity for several days.

Harry Baldwin came up from Verdon Sunday, returning Monday evening.

Grandpa Lester came down from Brownville Tuesday, returning Thursday morning.

Don't fail to get our prices on furniture before buying. We can save you money. E. B. Lbr. Co.

Our Harness are made of good leather, first rate workmanship, and the price is right, too. E. B. Lbr. Co.

A. R. McCandless has had a good barn built on his farm southeast of Nemaha—the old Haith farm.

E. B. Lbr. Co. have a fine line of harness on display. Don't fail to see them, if in need of harness this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clark drove down from their home in Glen Rock precinct Tuesday, returning the next day.

Miss Ethel Chambers of Auburn visited with Miss Ethel Sherwood for several days this week.

Chas. M. Woodward came up from Kansas City Monday morning, and will visit his parents for a few days.

Miss Sadie Fick of Liberty, Nebr., came to Nemaha Wednesday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. T. L. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Marlatt came down from Brownville Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ann Maxwell.

Miss Lulu Hess of Verdon came to Nemaha Thursday morning, to visit her uncle, O. E. Houtz, and family for a few days.

Mrs. Genie Maxwell came down from Lincoln Tuesday, to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Ann Maxwell.

Ned C. Crother laid a cement walk in front of Mrs. Carse's residence on Main street during the week, and did a fine job.

Miss Daisy Clark came down from her home in Glen Rock precinct Sunday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Received a car of pure Michigan salt in barrels, or 25, 50, or 100 pound sacks. Also some nice ump rock salt. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Redfern, living a half mile south of the Rosefield school house, lost their little babe by death Thursday of last week.

Wednesday was one of the windiest days we have had for a long while. It reminded us that this was the month of March, all right.

Mrs. J. C. Strain went to her new home near Waterloo, Nebr., Saturday. Roy Liebhart went with her and may stay there all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hacker and Mrs. Will Swan of Dundy county, Nebr., came in Monday, called here by the death of Mrs. Ann Maxwell, and also by the serious illness of Mrs. Hacker's father, Lew Morris, of Auburn.

Mrs. Sarah Roach came down from Nebraska City last Friday, on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Colerick.

R. E. Bucher, who is railroading in Wyoming, working for the Burlington, came home last Friday for a few days' visit with his family.

J. H. Aagabright drove in from Auburn Monday, and looked after things at the farm until Wednesday, when he returned home on the train.

C. H. Thomas, formerly a business man of Stella, but now a member of the Reddish Coal and Feed Co., of Lincoln, was visiting Nemaha friends Friday.

D. G. Keister, who has been living near Humboldt since he left Nemaha, has removed to Tunganoxie, Kansas. He recently remitted a renewal on his subscription.

Mrs. Fuller Burns went to Dunbar Saturday morning, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Burgess, and assist in caring for one of the twin babies that was very sick.

E. E. Moore, after a visit to John M. Clark's farm in Glen Rock precinct, says John certainly got a big bargain when he got the farm at the price he did. It is a fine farm.

Mrs. M. J. Shortledge, widow of the late Jesse Shortledge of Oregon City, Oregon, recently remitted a sufficient amount of cash to pay her subscription to January 1, 1909.

Chet Sedoras, after a visit with his father-in-law, Rev. J. W. Sapp, and relatives at Brownville, started for home Saturday. Chet recently took a homestead near Torrington, Wyoming.

J. H. Beaver, of Sioux City, Iowa, who recently succeeded Mr. Ballentine as auditor for the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. was in Nemaha from Saturday till Monday, going from here to Brownville. Mr. Ballentine now has charge of the yard in his home town of Norfolk.

Now It Looks Like Spring

Is near at hand and of course it is quite likely you will have to buy a new hat, now we have them for

SATURDAY ONLY

All of our $1 50 hats at $1 19

The regular $2 50 hats go at 1 95

Cotton towels, for Saturday only the regular 15 cent kind at 10c

Call and see our new line of corsets. The College Girl and Peerless

Bring Us Your Chickens, Butter and Eggs.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

Claud and Miss Grace Jarvis went to Wabash, Nebr., Monday, to visit relatives. Claud will go to Havelock in a few days and go to work in the Burlington machine shops.

Cyrus G. Minick, who has been an operator on the Burlington system for some time, has resigned, and came home Monday. He says he got tired of being changed around from one station to another so often.

John Maxwell of Menlo, Kas., W. S. Maxwell and wife of Webster, Kas., and Alex Maxwell of Stillwater, Okla., arrived in Nemaha Monday afternoon, called here by the death of their mother, Mrs. Ann Maxwell.

Street Commissioner Littrell is have plank street crossings put in this side of Aynes's hardware store and south of Ritchey's residence, tearing out the old stone crossings that had become so worn that they were very difficult to walk on in muddy weather.

Mrs. G. W. Chapman of Pleasantdale, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Thursday evening of last week, on a visit to relatives. George now has charge of a gang of 60 men, and it keeps him busy looking after them. He is still section boss for the Burlington.

We understand the Nemaha base ball cranks have arranged for a game between the Nemaha team and the Boston Bloomers of Kansas City. The game will be played Wednesday, May 13. The Boston Bloomers is a team of young ladies, who are exceptionally good players, and will attract a large crowd of lovers of the game.

John F. Ebnother of Aspinwall, who has been in Texas looking at the country, returned home Tuesday. He was so well pleased with the country and the price of land that he bought 266 acres in the center of the state, paying $18 per acre for it. He thinks he has made an investment that will make him big money in the future.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY

One Fine Oak Rocker

To the person purchasing the largest amount of goods for cash at our store at Nemaha, Nebr., between March 28 and April 25, 1908. Sale closes April 25, at 5 p. m. Also on the number of kernels of popcorn in a quart jar. Everybody from 12 years of age and older is permitted to make one guess free of charge. Each one making a guess will be required to register their name and guess. The following prizes will be given:

FREE GUESSING CONTEST

- One Fancy Nickel plate Coffee Pot, for the nearest guess.
- One Good Enamel 4 qt. Berlin Kettle, for 2nd nearest guess.
- One White Enamel Meat Platter, for the 3d nearest guess.

This Contest closes at 4 o'clock p. m. April 25. Free gifts on exhibition in our window. Come early and try to get one of these prizes.

Edwards Bradford Lbr. Co.