

PAT'S MIND WAS LOGICAL.

Quick to See One Strong Point as to Victim's Identity.

Previously to entering the railroad yards an able-bodied loafer picked up a small, glittering object from the sidewalk and, without examining it very closely, pinned it to his coat, says the Philadelphia Ledger. Three minutes later he collided with a slowly moving freight train, was hurled against a post and picked up insensibly. The train dispatcher, notified by telephone, called up Patrick Doyle, the yardmaster's assistant, and said: "You'd better search his pockets. Doyle. Find out who he is, notify his friends and report to me."

A few moments later the report came: "There's not a line of writing on him," said Patrick, "but we've identified him by the badge on his coat. He is a Lady Maccabee."

How I Cured Sweeney and Fistula.

"I want to tell you how I saved one of our horses that had a fistula. We had the horse doctor out and he said it was so bad that he did not think he could cure it, and did not come again. Then we tried Sloan's Liniment and it cured it up nicely. "One day last spring I was plowing for a neighbor who had a horse with sweeney, and I told him about Sloan's Liniment and he had me get a bottle for him, and it cured his horse all right, and he goes off now like a colt. "We had a horse that had sweeney awfully bad and we thought it was never going to be any good, but we used Sloan's Liniment and it cured it up nicely. I told another neighbor about it and he said it was the best Liniment he ever used. "We are using Sloan's Sure Colic Cure and we think it is all right."

"Say, boss, you hasn't er dime in yer clothes, has yer?"
"No, my man, I have not. But how did you guess it?"

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Where He Drew the Line.

A famous English barrister was upon one occasion called upon to defend a cook tried for murder, being accused of having poisoned his master. The barrister, after a most able and brilliant defense of the culprit, secured an acquittal. The cook, anxious to show his gratitude, said: "Tell me, sir, whatever can I do for you to reward you?" The triumphant counsel answered: "My good man do anything you can, but for God's sake, don't ever cook for me."

SIMPLE HOME LUNCH

SUITABLE FOR FAMILY OR A FEW FRIENDS.

Salmon Croquettes with French Peas the Main Dish—Preparing Crispets—Gelatine Confection Makes an Appetizing Dessert.

A simple and attractive luncheon that may be prepared easily at home is the following:

- Fruit Cocktail.
- Cream of Potato Soup.
- Salmon Croquettes and French Peas.
- Grapefruit Salad.
- Crispets.
- Mousse.
- Fancy Cakes.
- Coffee.
- Bonbons.
- Salted Almonds.

Slice two very ripe bananas, adding to them one grated pineapple, a few Maraschino cherries, the juice of one lemon and orange. Thoroughly chill, sweeten a little and serve in grapefruit or punch glasses.

To prepare the soup use a quart of milk, six large potatoes, one stalk of celery, an onion, a tablespoonful of butter. Put milk to boil with onion and celery; pare the potatoes and boil them until they are thoroughly done; turn off the water and mash fine; add milk and butter, pepper and salt; rub through a strainer and serve immediately.

For the fish croquettes, take a can of salmon, or the same amount of fresh fish, remove skin and bone and drain it well. To two cups of well seasoned fish put one small cupful of white sauce, made with two tablespoonfuls of flour and one of butter, and a small cupful of hot milk. Beat well and spread out to get stiff and cold. When you are ready to fry the croquettes, cut off pieces of the mixture about two inches long and about an inch wide, forming a sort of a square; dip each piece first into sifted bread or cracker crumbs, then into the beaten yolk of an egg mixed with a tablespoonful of cold water; then into the crumbs again, and when the outer covering is dry put a few at a time into a wire basket and fry in deep fat; drain on white or brown paper in the oven, and serve on a napkin laid on a platter, with a garnish of sliced lemon and parsley around the croquettes.

Use a small head of white lettuce for the salad, some white grapes and half of a grapefruit. Cut the grapes in half and remove the seeds; peel and shred the grapefruit, and over all pour French dressing. Toss until dressing is well mixed through the lettuce and fruit. Serve this with cream nutted cheese balls and crispets.

The crispets are made by taking small squares of bread cut very thin and buttered on both sides; roll and fasten with a toothpick; place in a quick oven and brown. Just before serving remove toothpicks.

Cream of Spinach Soup.

Two quarts spinach, four table-spoons butter, one quart milk, four table-spoons flour, one cup cream, one teaspoon salt, speck of pepper. Prepare spinach and cook with or without water, chop and rub through sieve or colander. Prepare thickening, add spinach, milk and seasoning. Whip cream and garnish soup.

Save Pie Juices.

In baking any kind of juicy pies, after getting pie ready for the oven, take a strip of muslin cloth about an inch and a half wide, wring out of cold water, and put all round edge of pie, one-half on pie tin, and none of the juice will run out in the oven. When done lift the cloth right off the pie.

Fairy Gingerbread Cookies.

Half cup butter, half cup milk, one cup light brown sugar, 1 1/2 cups bread flour, two teaspoons ginger. Cream butter, add sugar gradually. Mix and sift flour and ginger, then combine mixtures. Spread very thin with long, broad-bladed knife on inverted buttered pan. Bake about five or six minutes in moderate oven. Watch carefully and turn pan frequently so that all may be evenly cooked. If mixture about edges should cook first cut off and return to oven to finish center part. Cut in squares.

Brown Mushroom Sauce.

One can mushrooms, one-quarter cup butter, one-quarter cup flour, one-half lemon juice, two cups consomme or brown stock, salt and pepper. Drain and rinse mushrooms and chop finely one-half cup of same. Cook five minutes with butter and lemon juice, drain, brown the butter, add flour and when well browned add gradually consomme or stock. Cook 15 minutes, skim, add remaining mushrooms cut in quarters or slices and cook two minutes. Season with salt and pepper.

WOMEN'S KIDNEYS.

Are the Source of Most of Women's Sickness.

Mrs. Rebecca Mock, 1795 E. Rich Street, Columbus, Ohio, writes: "I believe I would still be a victim of kidney troubles but for Doan's Kidney Pills, for when I started using them I was in constant pain with my back, and no other remedy had been of any use. The kidney secretions were irregular, and I was nervous and lacked energy. But Doan's Kidney Pills gave me prompt relief and continued use cured me."

Willing to Oblige.

The poor but nery young man was after the hand of the heiress. "Young man," roared her irate father, "never darken my door again." "All right, sir," replied the suitor, blandly, "I'll come around to-morrow and give it a coat of bright red paint. That will be much better than darkening it." And the next instant the poor but nery young man was being chased by a Scotch coachman, a French chauffeur and an English bulldog.

New Dinner Card Idea.

From Paris comes a decorated card-rack with a trail of artificial flowers that may be changed to suit the dinner colors and makes a pretty addition to the table. These racks are to hold a plain card upon which the guest's name is written and they may be used for a good many dinners, thus obviating the expense of the decorated dinner card every time one entertains.

Perversion of Type.

The Sunday school teacher was entertaining her class with what she had fondly planned to be a "social evening." To her disappointment she found that all spontaneity had been left at home with the boys' everyday clothes, and conversation dragged hopelessly until her bull terrier came into the room. He sniffed about from one shy hand of welcome to another, when suddenly a boyish voice, gruff with embarrassment, burst forth: "I had a bull pup like that once, but he grew up into a bloodhound."

The Mean Man Again.

"Come on, son," said the old farmer, after the daybreak breakfast, "and we'll get out in the fields and start plowing." "But I can't plow to-day," protested the youngster, "I have chills. Why, dad, I am shaking all over." The old farmer grinned and took a fresh chew. "All the better, my son. If you can't plow you can scatter the seed. All you have to do is to hold them in your hand and every time you shake it will send them in all directions. Better than a patent seeder, begosh."

Accounted For.

Naturally she turned to her husband for information. "Why are so many of the police mentioned as plain-clothes men?" she asked. "I suppose," he answered, "that they're like the rest of us. It takes all their pay to keep their wives from being plain-clothes women."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Brain and Nerves Restored by Grape-Nuts Food.

The number of persons whose ailments were such that no other food could be retained at all, is large and reports are on the increase.

"For 12 years I suffered from dyspepsia, finding no food that did not distress me," writes a Wis. lady. "I was reduced from 145 to 90 lbs., gradually growing weaker until I could leave my bed only a short while at a time, and became unable to speak aloud.

"Three years ago I was attracted by an article on Grape-Nuts and decided to try it. My stomach was so weak I could not take cream, but I used Grape-Nuts with milk and lime water. It helped me from the first, building up my system in a manner most astonishing to the friends who had thought my recovery impossible.

"Soon I was able to take Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast, and lunch at night, with an egg and Grape-Nuts for dinner.

"I am now able to eat fruit, meat and nearly all vegetables for dinner, but fondly continue Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper.

"At the time of beginning Grape-Nuts I could scarcely speak a sentence without changing words around or 'talking crooked' in some way, but my brain and nerves have become so strengthened that I no longer have that trouble." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
