

Commencement

Misses Ethel P. Maxwell and Maybelle P. Hoover Graduate

All who participated in the commencement exercises of the Nemaha high school, held at the opera house Friday night of last week, acquitted themselves splendidly.

The program was opened with an instrumental solo by Miss Grace Jarvis, which was finely rendered. Rev. G. W. Ayers delivered the invocation. The solo, "Where the Southern Roses Grow," by [the male quartette, Messrs. George Hartwig, Eddie Maxwell, Ralph Ritchey and Ned Maxwell, was thoroughly appreciated by the audience, who were surprised that we had such a fine male quartette. Then followed a drill by sixteen little girls that was almost perfect. It elicited prolonged applause. Miss Daisy Clark gave a recitation in her usual manner. We always expect a treat from Miss Daisy and never disappointed. She is always good. Misses Bessie Dressler and Lockie Roberts gave an instrumental solo that was fine. Helen Gilbert recited "White Or-gandy" in a manner that reflected credit on the little miss and the one training her. Little Velma Hoover gave a solo and prayer that was superb. Nothing better was ever heard in Nemaha.

The orations by the graduates, Miss Ethel P. Maxwell and Miss Maybelle P. Hoover, were well delivered, showing earnest study and careful preparation. Miss Maxwell's subject was "Home." After a song entitled "Light at Home," finely rendered by a mixed quartette consisting of E. G. Maxwell, Bessie Dressler, Grace Jarvis and R. C. Ritchey, Miss Hoover delivered her oration on "School Days a Preparation for Life."

A trio composed of Grace Jarvis, Lockie Roberts and Mrs. C. H. Kindig then gave a selection entitled "Distant Chimes," in a charming manner. Rev. J. W. Sapp gave the class address, his theme being "Training for Service." The address was a fine one, every sentence appropriate and to the point, emphasizing the truth that the training they had received in school and so far in life was merely a preparation for service in the world. The male quartette gave another selection, John I. Dressler presented the diplomas to the graduates, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Ayers.

The graduates received a number of handsome presents, and the stage was piled with beautiful flowers.

Little Helen Knapp and Alice Chambers made fine flower girls.

The opera house was full but the best of order was maintained, although the evening was warm and the ventilation of the room was very poor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cummings, sr., and son, T. J. Cummings, jr., came in from Crab Orchard Wednesday to attend the funeral of the elder Mr. Cummings' sister, Mrs. Rider. T. J. jr. (Jeff) returned home Thursday afternoon. His parents will visit their son, G. W. Cummings of Howe, and the elder Mr. Cummings' sister, Mrs. John P. Flack.

Death of Mrs. W. H. Rider

Mrs. Lydia Rider, wife of William H. Rider, died at her home southwest of Nemaha at 11.30 a. m., Tuesday, June 2, 1908, aged 58 years, 1 month and 16 days.

Mrs. Rider had been suffering for several years from heart disease and dropsy, and was gradually growing worse, although she was able to be up and look after her household affairs. Only a few minutes before her death she was out in the yard with her husband tending to some chickens. She then went in the house, sat down in a rocker and began reading a book. In a few minutes her daughter, Edith, who was in the room, heard her mother make a slight noise and spoke to her. Receiving no answer she went over to her and saw that she was dying. Edith screamed and Mr. Rider, who was at the well only a few steps from the house, ran in and tried to do something for his wife but she breathed only three times after he got to her. She had taken off her glasses, laid them and her book down, leaned back in her chair, closed her eyes and died without a struggle.

Lydia Cummings was born in Kosciusko county, Indiana, April 16, 1850. She was married to William H. Rider Oct. 28, 1865. September 3, 1868, she arrived in Nebraska and has made this her home ever since. She leaves a devoted husband and five children to mourn the loss of a faithful and loving wife and mother. Four of the children are married. Charles lives at Howe. G. Frank Rider, Mrs. Lydia Rhineshart, and Mrs. Mamie Smith all live from a half mile to two miles from the home farm. Miss Edith has been an invalid from childhood.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. G. W. Ayers, were held at the Methodist church at 11 o'clock a. m. Thursday. The interment was in the Nemaha City cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our thanks to the friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our bereavement. May God's richest blessing be with all.

W. H. Rider and children.

Several years ago a fire destroyed the Titus store room and the Odd Fellows hall overhead. Immediately a two story brick building was erected, and a short time after another one story brick was built on the south. Three years ago last March three frame buildings were burned and three bricks replaced them. On the 12th of last month two store buildings, a ware room and a barber shop were wrecked and another building, the meat market, badly damaged. These were all frame buildings. One of the store buildings, that belonging to the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co., has been rebuilt but in much better shape than it was before. The other buildings will be replaced with five nice brick buildings. Earle Gilbert has rebuilt the end of his brick store room that was damaged by the storm. Invariably of recent years the frame buildings in Nemaha that are destroyed by fire or storm are replaced by bricks.

As we go to press we hear that R. I. Smith's farm house, near Bracken, was struck by lightning Thursday afternoon. We did not learn the extent of the damage.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever coffee substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real coffee in it either Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for coffee. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. Sold by all dealers.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effects of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Dr. W. W. Keeling.
