

Valley Lily flour at Gilbert's.
Criley, photographer, Auburn.
Cottonwood lumber for sale by A. J. Strain.
People wouldn't kick on dusty roads for a few days.
The trains are nearly all from one to two hours late.
Lots of fish have been caught during the high water.
For sale—Five nice shoats.
C. A. Curtis; phone 57.
The editor had new potatoes Monday, raised in his own garden.
George Yackly had a good calf die from clover bloat Monday afternoon.
John M. Clark drove in from Glen Rock precinct Tuesday afternoon.
John I. Dressler is having the front of the Ritchey store room repainted.
Farmers are putting in the time when the ground is dry enough to plow.
Cherries are now being marketed. There are lots of them and they are fine.
A fine line of Red Cross Ox-fords—tan and black—just received at Earle Gilbert's.
Kindig & Peabody write cyclone, tornado, and windstorm insurance at lowest rates.
Pat Hoover has been making good use of his automobile lately but took it to Auburn Thursday.
Miss Bessie Washburn went to Peru Monday afternoon and will attend the summer school at the normal.
The trains were well filled the first of the week with students going to Peru to attend the summer school.
W. W. Seid went to Lincoln Monday morning and from there to Omaha to attend Masonic grand lodge.
Miss Bea Seabury, who had been visiting Nemaha relatives and friends, returned to Peru Monday morning.

Fish have been plentiful in Nemaha for some time.
Glass! Glass!
For all sizes call on Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Sam Gillespie visited his parents, living near Falls City, from Saturday evening until Monday morning.
If you want an up-to-date job of painting or paper hanging see J. S. Hadlock. Leave orders at Keeling's.
Miss Hazel Parker came in from Auburn Tuesday and is stopping with her cousin, Mrs. Alf Rowen.
On account of the stormy weather Rev. J. W. Sapp did not fill his appointment at Shubert last Sunday.
It didn't rain Easter Sunday but it has rained for seven Sundays since then—and almost every other day.
There will be an abundance of peaches around Nemaha, although some orchards haven't any on the trees.
On account of high water the rural carriers did not get very far on their routes Tuesday, but did better Wednesday.
Misses Jennie and Marie Bell came in from Auburn Saturday and visited their sister, Mrs. Ned Crother, until Monday forenoon.
Chet Sedoris, who has been held here for some time as a witness in the Ackerman case, started for Morrill, Nebr., Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lowe came to Nemaha Saturday evening and visited relatives until Monday forenoon, when they went to DeWitt.
F. L. Woodward and Elmer E. Allen are tearing down the old store building on the corner north of the Odd Fellows building, preparatory to putting up a brick.
J. H. Littrell recently resigned as marshal and street commissioner. The village board of trustees has appointed Chas. P. Scovill marshal and Fuller Burns street commissioner.

W. H. Hay, cashier of the First National bank, and P. C. Tankersley, fruit dealer, were in Nemaha Thursday. They were out looking at the fruit prospects.
Mrs. Chas. A. Curtis is now stopping at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. F. Larimore, living near Stella. It is thought the higher altitude is better for her.
Mrs. W. W. Keeling returned home last Saturday, after a few days' visit with Mrs. Lizzie Keeling at Stanberry, Mo. Her granddaughter Ruth came home with her.
Jno. W. Ritchey is having several of the large trees in front of his house cut down. They are old timers, having been planted by John S. Minick thirty or forty years ago.
If you want to buy wall paper, either high grade or low priced, call on J. S. Hadlock. Sample books furnished on request. Prices of wall paper from 3 cents per roll up.
C. A. Smiley came up from Shubert Wednesday morning and will help his brother Wm. in rebuilding the house wrecked by the cyclone. His son Church came with him.
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts came up from Kansas City last Sunday and are visiting Clyde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, and his brother, Ole G. Roberts, and wife.
The district conference of the M. E. church for the Nebraska City district meets at Falls City next week. Rev. G. W. Ayers expects to attend and others from Nemaha will also probably go.
D. T. Smiley had not quit the meat market, as we were informed last week, but had only laid off a few days to help his son Wm. on his house. He was at his usual place of duty Saturday.
Last Saturday evening Mrs. C. P. Scovill went out to Jim Shiveley's to spend Sunday. Charley told her he could get breakfast all right, and he did—by going to the hotel and paying 25 cents for it.

DO NOT FORGET

That we have a nice line of Summer Dress Goods.

Our Groceries are always fresh and up-to-date.

Try our Coffee at 15, 20 and 25c.

Bring Us Your Butter, Eggs and Poultry.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB

T. F. Woods, who has the old Seymour Howe farm rented, has had all the experience he wants with high water. The entire farm has been covered with water, and it raised in the house, but did not get over quite all the lower floor.
Mrs. M. W. Knapp returned home Saturday evening after a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Shellenberger, living six miles west of Stella. Mr. and Mrs. Shellenberger brought her over and remained until Sunday afternoon.
Rev. Geo. I. Wright, district superintendent, held quarterly conference at the Methodist church in Nemaha Monday afternoon. The conference was to have been held at Howe but on account of the high water on the Nemaha river was changed to this place.
Prot. G. E. Sanders of London precinct, who recently completed his second successful year as principal of the school at Harrisburg, county seat of Banner county, Nebr., visited Nemaha friends a few hours Monday. He will attend the normal school at Peru next year.

Prof. Simpson, superintendent of the Auburn schools, died Wednesday morning at a hospital in Omaha. He was taken sick several days ago with appendicitis and was taken to Omaha, where an operation was performed, from the effects of which he died. His body was brought to Auburn for burial. He leaves a wife and two children.
John Ackerman, who was tried in the district court at Auburn, charged with hiring a man to set fire to a barn owned by him in Brownville in order to get the insurance, was acquitted by the jury Tuesday, although the evidence was quite strong against him. Young Mason, who plead guilty to setting fire to the barn and claimed he was hired to do so by Ackerman, is held in jail yet.
A new society has been organized in Nemaha and it has a large and active list of members. No admission fee is charged. Members can be told by a peculiar twist of the neck and turn of the head, as if they were looking upward, with an anxious look on the countenance. The signs increase in frequency and intensity if clouds are seen, especially at night. They are called Cave Dwellers.
A gang of wild dogs are again bothering stock in the vicinity of Nemaha. Sherman Merritt saw seven of them about 6 o'clock Wednesday morning. They came up the railroad track and started to run his horses. He shot at them a couple of times with a target gun and they ran on up the track. He came to town and got some shells for his rifle and will be ready for them if they put in an appearance again.
Rex Oliver of Falls City, a son of County Superintendent T. J. Oliver, was a Nemaha visitor several days, starting home Tuesday afternoon. He drove up and on account of the high water on the Big Nemaha and Muddy bottoms was afraid he could not get home, but finally decided to try it and go as far as he could in the buggy and then take a boat for the remainder of the way, if necessary.

We have been told by a number of parties who saw it that a cyclone or tornado passed over Nemaha about 9:30 Sunday night. It was too high to do any damage but touched the tops of trees in places.
We understand O. E. Houtz has bought a restaurant at Stella. That town is to be congratulated on getting as good a business man as Mr. Houtz. He thoroughly understands the restaurant business.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tieling of Clarinda, Iowa, arrived in Nemaha Friday of last week, on a visit to Mrs. Tieling's uncle, Walter Hadlock, and her cousin, Orville Holdinge. They returned home Wednesday afternoon.
For Sale—One 7-horse-power Foes gasoline engine; one 4-hole John Deere corn sheller; one wood saw; one black mare weight about 1250; one gray horse weight about 1100. All in good running order. Call on or phone W. E. Seid, Nemaha, Nebr.

WE APPRECIATE

All the favors shown us by our Patron and Friends in aiding us during the recent disaster, in moving our Hardware and Furniture stock, and Promptness and Faithful Service rendered while erecting our new store. We thank you for all favors shown us in the past, and kindly invite you to call and see our new store and stock which we hope to replace by Ju

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
GEORGE HARTWIG, Manager.