

Cut the weeds.
 Old Settlers picnic Aug. 5.
 Criley, photographer, Auburn.
 We have been having some hot nights.
 Cottonwood lumber for sale by A. J. Strain.
 Mrs. W. N. Faris returned from Peru Tuesday.
 The new bricks are a little slow about materializing.
 We had a light shower early Wednesday morning.
 Keep in a good humor, even when talking politics.
 We have been having some very hot weather this week.
 Sunday school convention July 19. Old settlers picnic August 5.
 The Titus Nursery and F. E. Hoover & Son are shipping out lots of peaches.
 They had a good rain at Bracken Wednesday night, but we got only a sprinkle.
 Make your arrangements to attend the Sunday school convention next Sunday.
 C. H. Kindig went to Falls City Tuesday evening and from there was going to Lincoln.

Glass! Glass!
 For all sizes call on Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
 Mrs. J. F. Walsh and daughter, Miss Helen Marie, of Denver, arrived in Nemaha Tuesday evening.
 Miss Maude Burns went to Auburn last Friday and the next day went to Lincoln to visit friends.
 Miss Flossie Parker of Auburn visited her grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Berger, from Saturday until Tuesday.
 Miss Alberta Lewis of Welsh, Louisiana, spent a few days visiting her friend Miss Corinne Douglas.
 Ed E. Moore was assistant sergeant-at-arms at the democratic national convention at Denver last week.

E. E. Rumbaugh has moved his barber shop into Mrs. Hill's building, lately vacated by the harness shop.
 Miss Nellie Shadley of Sumner, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. W. T. Russell.
 A blind couple gave a musical entertainment at the opera house Saturday night. Those present say it was good.
 Elmer E. Allen has been rusticated this week and assisting at putting up hay on his father's farm at Bracken.
 Miss Mabel Hoover, who has been visiting Miss Lena Maxwell near Webber, Kansas, returned home Wednesday.
 Miss Lockie Roberts returned home Friday after a couple of weeks' visit with her brother Clyde, at Kansas City.
 We learn that George Rhinestart and wife were caused to rejoice on the Fourth of July by the birth of a daughter.
 The prohibition national convention is now in session at Columbus, Ohio. R. V. Muir of Brownville is a delegate.
 Kindig & Peabody write cyclone, tornado, and windstorm insurance at lowest rates. Loans negotiated at lowest rates.
 Rev. G. W. Ayers and Irving, who went to Butler county the first of last week after a horse, returned home Friday night.
 Leo Liebhart, who has been staying with his brother-in-law, John C. Strain, near Waterloo, Nebr., returned home Tuesday.
 Miss May Knapp of Brock, who has been visiting her uncle, M. W. Knapp, and family for the past three weeks, returned home Tuesday.
 F. B. Lowe, Earle Copeland, Earle Kerker and Pinkney Shively went to Nebraska City Wednesday morning to attend the circus.
 Mrs. Fred Seabury came down from Peru Saturday, returning Monday. Little Birdie Baldwin went home with her but returned the next forenoon. Mrs. Seabury came back Wednesday.

Mrs. C. P. Barker started for Duluth, Minn., Thursday forenoon, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Gertie Galbraith, for about two weeks.
 C. A. Curtis started out Monday morning to sell peaches for F. E. Hoover & Son. He will visit Tekamah and other towns north of Omaha.
 Grandma Seabury's health is quite poor. She is suffering from heart trouble and a dropsical affection. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.
 Miss Inez Cummings of Crab Orchard, Nebr., (not Miss Jennie as we had it last week), who has been visiting Miss Alice Peabody, returned home last Friday.
 Mrs. Willard Shubert of Shubert visited between trains Tuesday morning with Mrs. George Yackly, going on to Tecumseh on train 97 to attend the chautauqua.
 Our old friend W. T. Banks, now one of the prosperous merchants of North Platte, Nebr., renews his subscription to The Advertiser, paying to July 18, 1909.
 Ray Clark shipped three car loads—53 head—of fat cattle to Kansas City Monday evening. They were fine big fellows, L. M. Peabody went through with them.
 John Knapp had a runaway Tuesday, badly damaging his three-row plow, and Wednesday John Webber's team ran away with the binder and it was badly wrecked.
 On account of the Sunday school convention there will be no services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning, but the usual services will be held at night.
 Ezra Gamet, who has been helping George Hartwig in the lumber and hardware business since the cyclone, started for Newcastle, Nebr., Monday, to help in a yard.
 Mrs. John Clemans of Peru came down to Nemaha Friday, returning the next day. Her mother, Mrs. I. N. Cooper, went home with her, returning to Nemaha Tuesday.
 John M. Stephenson, who has been working in the Burlington freight department at Lincoln for some time, returned home Wednesday and we understand is not going back.
 Persons who said last spring that there wouldn't be any peaches in the county are now complaining that their trees are so heavily loaded with fruit that they are breaking down.
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sanders of Garretson, South Dakota, arrived in Nemaha Saturday evening. Carl started home Monday morning. His wife will remain in Nemaha for some time, visiting relatives and friends and putting up fruit.
 Miss Jessie Steuteville of Brownville and her cousin, Miss Stella Corrico of Kentucky, gave this office a pleasant call Tuesday. Miss Corrico and her sister have been visiting in Brownville for several weeks but expect to return to Kentucky soon.

This Week
 We commence our
July Clearing Sale
 This Sale is now in progress and will continue until August 1. In this sale we will make Startling Reductions in Summer Goods and in a time when they will be most needed. See our large circulars.

—
Bring Us Your Produce
 —
JNO. W. RITCHEY
 Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB

The irrepressible Ben Neal, who now makes his headquarters at Nebraska City, was in Nemaha Wednesday, hurrahing for Bryan and predicting all sorts of calamities, politically, for Taft and his followers.
 H. E. Williams and two daughters, Misses Ruth and Helen, came up from Shubert Thursday morning. Henry drove back the same day but the girls will visit a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Titus.
 Miss Stella Washburn informs us that they had roasting ears for dinner Tuesday, and as she is from Missouri, she is willing to "show" as well as to "be showed," so brought a well developed ear down town and left it at Kerker's meat market.
 W. W. Liebhart finds it pays to advertise. He has had a small ad. of his white Plymouth Rock chickens running in a poultry journal. One day this week he got an inquiry from Laramie, Wyoming, and the next day from Winston Salem, North Carolina.
 In remitting for a year's subscription to The Advertiser, Geo. W. Likens of Washington, D. C., writes: "I find your paper is very interesting, as it informs us of weather conditions and crop prospects. Sorry you have had such a year of disaster." Mr. Likens owns an 80-acre farm on the county line south of Nemaha.

Senator Burkett and Hon. G. W. Berge
They Will Make Addresses at the Old Settlers Picnic August 5.
 United States Senator E. J. Burkett and Hon. G. W. Berge of Lincoln have accepted the invitation of the committee on speakers and will be present and make addresses at the old settlers picnic on Wednesday, August 5.
 It is getting very dry around Nemaha and a good rain is needed.
 C. H. Kindig had roasting ears for dinner Tuesday, raised by himself, so he claims.
 C. C. Kohlsaat, judge of the United States circuit court, at Chicago, has decided that acceptance of railroad transportation in exchange for advertising space is unlawful.
Notice to Teachers
 Examinations for teachers' certificates will be held July 17, 18 and July 31 and August 1. No other examinations in August.
 Geo. D. Carrington, Jr.,
 Co. Supt.

We Have the Goods
 We again have a full stock of Furniture and Hardware. Call in and see us in our New Store Room.

~
This Hot Weather
 Calls for Screens for your Doors and Windows. We have them. You will also need one of our nice Hammocks. Get Fly Nets and keep your horses as comfortable as possible.

~
A New Washing Machine
 Will make work easier for the housekeeper. We have a number of the best kinds.
Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
 GEORGE HARTWIG, Manager.

Notice to Cut Weeds
 All lot owners or occupants are hereby notified to cut weeds at once on streets and alleys adjacent to their property.
 By order of the village board of trustees.
 Frank Titus, Clerk.

A. R. McCandless, who has been secretary of the school board for the past year, has made one of the best officials the district has ever had. He has carefully looked after the interests of the district and has devoted much time and labor in attending to school matters. He would have been unanimously reelected but declined. J. W. Sapp has made a good president of the board and C. L. Russell an efficient treasurer.
 It would be hard to find the equal of W. W. Liebhart as janitor. He has looked carefully after the school building and ground and assisted materially in maintaining discipline during intermissions.