

NEVER BEFORE

has a clearing sale in Nemaha created such a sensation.

The Reason

is plain. We are selling goods at prices that make them move. Our stock was large,

Hence

We still have choice bargains in every line. Buy now for next season. It will pay you big.

Premium Checks given with all Cash Purchases

EARLE GILBERT
NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

Old Settlers picnic Aug. 5.
Criley, photographer, Auburn.

Stay for the concert, Wednesday night.

Cottonwood lumber for sale by A. J. Strain.

John P. King of Shubert was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday.

We have been having extremely warm weather for the past week.

The Holiness campmeeting west of Brownville opens next Thursday.

Miss Minnie May went to Peru Tuesday morning, returning in the evening.

Two big concerts at the Old Settlers' Picnic in the afternoon and at night.

Mrs. Harry Hoover went to Lincoln Thursday morning to visit friends.

Mrs. L. D. Rogers went to Rockford, Nebr., last Friday, to visit a sister.

Glass! Glass!

For all sizes call on Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Ned Crother is putting in a cement walk for the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mrs. C. H. Kindig, who has been visiting at Stella, returned home Thursday morning.

So sure are we of a republican victory this fall that we got in a lot of new type Monday.

The Auburn chautauqua opens Saturday of next week. See the advertisement in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Howe drove in from Auburn Sunday and visited friends for a few hours.

Mrs. G. Lilly returned to Auburn Saturday after visiting a few days at the home of her son-in-law, Ed Thomas.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson returned to Auburn Saturday after a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. I. Dressler.

Wm. Filmer this week moyed his stock of general merchandise into the Hoover building, south of Keeling's store, where he is offering some special bargains. See his advertisement.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp and Mrs. J. I. Dressler went to Brownville Tuesday morning, returning in the evening.

Kindig & Peabody write cyclone, tornado, and windstorm insurance at lowest rates. Loans negotiated at lowest rates.

Misses Bessie Dressler and Hazel Paris went to Glen Rock precinct last Saturday and visited Miss Daisy Clark until Wednesday.

Ralph Ritchey has bought the Lund property, south of E. H. Knapp's home. He has not given us any intimation as to when he will occupy it.

Mrs. Lealie W. Woodward and mother, Mrs. Beck, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Nemaha last Friday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodward.

W. W. Liebhart this week received orders for $10 worth of white Plymouth Rock chickens from a man living at Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Parties who borrowed the hoe and crosscut saw out of my woodhouse will please return same at once, as I need them.
Fuller Burns.

Earle Copeland subscribes for The Advertiser for three months, which he orders sent to his sister, Miss Florence Copeland, 1339 east Tenth street, Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Exava Bennett, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. John E. Lambert, since the latter got hurt in the runaway at Shubert, returned to Auburn Friday.

See those Old Settlers Picnic Postcards for sale at the Postoffice--2 for 5c. Cyclone Postcards, 50c per dozen.

Mrs. W. H. Hoover has the thanks of the Christian people of Nemaha, for forbidding the playing of base ball on Sunday on premises belonging to the Hoover estate.

F. A. Crane, who went to Atwood, Colorado, several weeks ago, for the benefit of his health, returned home Friday. He has improved a great deal in health by his stay in Colorado.

Mrs. Geo. Yackly and Mrs. Edw. Yackly went to Lincoln last Saturday morning to visit the former's brother, Will P. Tidrow, and family. They returned Monday evening.

J. H. Argabright recently sold about 1500 bushels of corn to Lafe Higgins, delivering it at Stella, for which he received 80 cents per bushel. It is safe to say he is not complaining of hard times.

M. H. Taylor of Shubert was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday. Mr. Taylor has been at Hot Springs, Arkansas, recently, and expects to return in a few days. He is taking treatment for kidney and stomach trouble. He informs us that he will move to Peru only temporarily, keeping his home in Shubert.

ONLY TWO MORE DAYS OF OUR JULY SALE

Avail yourselves of the Bargains which we have been offering.

Call and See Us for Shoes

when you are wanting anything in that line.

Bring Us Your Produce.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB

E. B. Quackenbush announces himself as a candidate for the fusion nomination for attorney-general. If nominated, Ed will get a big vote in Nemaha county.

Train No. 122, going south, will be held at Nemaha until 9:00 o'clock next Wednesday night, to accomodate people from the south who wish to stay for the concert.

Mrs. J. L. Melvin, of Guthrie, Oklahoma, who has been visiting Nemaha friends for a few days, left Thursday morning for Mound City, Mo., where she will visit her brother-in-law, Galusha Melvin, before returning home.

The Schminke Milling Co. of Nebraska City recently donated $5.00 towards re-building the Methodist parsonage here. The donation was made through Jno. W. Ritchey and was very thankfully received by the Methodist people.

Notice

All stock picketed or running loose on streets or alleys after Monday, August 3, will be taken up.
C. P. Scovill,
Village Marshal.

Joe Bunker's merry-go-round arrived Wednesday evening and will be ready for business tonight. He will stay until after the picnic.

J. H. Dundas announces himself as a candidate for state senator and will endeavor to be elected without the aid or consent of any party, as he doesn't believe in parties.

Geo. W. Brown, manager of Brown's Business college at Lincoln, gave us a pleasant call Monday. Mr. Brown had been in town a few days in the interest of his college.

Mrs. Byral Day, of California, well known to many of our citizens as Mrs. Hull of Stella, has been engaged as one of the attractions of the Old Settlers' Picnic. She is a fine soloist. Geo. D. Carrington, Jr., has also promised us some solos.

D. E. Klise of Garnett, Kansas, visited Nemaha friends from Tuesday until Thursday. Mr. Klise is the step-father of Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. Geo. Yackly. He had been visiting relatives in Iowa, and stopped here on his way home.

Paints

Nothing will improve and protect your buildings for less money than Paint. We carry a full line. Guaranteed.

Hammocks

We have them at right prices.

Gasoline Stoves

We will make prices that will interest you.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
GEORGE HARTWIG, Manager.

WE HAVE MOVED

Into the Hoover building, first door south of Keeling's store, where you will find us selling goods at Lowest Prices.

SEE THESE PRICES

- Calicoes from 5c on down
- Indigo Blue, were 10c, now 8c.
- Shoes, were $4, now $3.50.
- All Shoes cut from 15 to 50 per cent.
- Baby Shoes cut 10 to 15 per cent.
- Misses' White Canvas Slippers, were $1.25, now 85c.
- White Canvas Slippers, were $1.00, now 75c
- A few Canvas Slippers for only 50c.
- Ladies' and Gents' Arctics, were $1.25, now $1
- Rubbers, were 60c, now 50c.
- 20c. can of Oysters, only 15c.

WM. FILMER

Nemaha

Nebraska