A National Movement for the Training of Young America.

From the Boston Herald. An important step is announced by the Youth's Companion. That paper proposes to revive as an institution the old debating society which used to be so great a force in making young men intelligent citizens and in developing broad national leaders.

The plan proposed is an organization of national reach, called the Lyceum League of America. It is to consist of a system of local ly ceums or clubs, connected with each other through a newly created lyceum department in the Youth's Companion. The lyceum department gran's all charters and accepts the care of the movement. With each charter it furnishes free an equipment consisting of "Cushing's Manual," secretary's book and other needful helps. It suggests topics for discussion and gives aid in their study.

An important part of this aid is a carefully chosen list of books on American problems, which books are, Bryce's "American Commonwealth," the "American Statesman," series, Fiske's ."Civil Government" and Professor Ely's books, etc. There are also books for younger

The aim of this undertaking is to train young men to think intelligently on the great problems of American life, and to impress them with the duties of citizenship. The work is to be above all partisanship. It is to be American in the broadest sense. It aims to give practical direction to the patriotic en thusiasm which the general school-flag has awakened-a movement inaugurated by the same paper. Incidental benefits will be parlimentary training and how to think on one's feet.

School lyceums will probably be most numerous, but the scheme is equally adapted to young men and intelligent lads out of school; business houses, factories, churches can all have their

JENNIE: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to 'catch on 'to the last new thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."

KATE: "I don't know: I certainly do not make any exertion in that direction! make any exertion in that direction."

JENNIE: "Well, during the last few months, for example, you have taken up painting, so suddenly, and certainly we are all improving in grace under your instruction; I heard you telling Tommy Eames last evening how his club made mistakes in playing baseball; you seem to be up on all the latest 'fads,' and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the last month you have improved so in health, owing, you tell me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little out-of-the way place?—for you never go to the city."

KATE: "Why, Jennle, you will make me vain. I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? No! Magazine! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household: father has given up his magazine that he hals taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really FAMILY magazine published, as we have sent for samples of all of them, and find that one is all for men, another all for women, and another for children only, while this one suits every one of us; so we only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.00 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see ours, or, better still, send 10 cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting us out, as you say we have the reputation of being the best informed family in town. If that be so, it is Demorest's Family Magazine that does it."

THE SONG OF THE "No. 9."

My dress is of fine polished oak, As rich as the finest fur cloak. And for handsome design You just should see mine

No. 9, No. 9,

I'm beloved by the poor and the rich, For both I impartially stitch; In the cabin I shine, In the mansion I'm fine-

I never get surly nor tired. With zeal I always am fired; To hard work I incline, For rest I ne'er pine-

I am easily purchased by all, With instalments that monthly do fall; And when I am thine, Then life is benign-No. 9, No. 9.

To the Paris Exposition I went, Upon getting the Grand Prize intent; I left all behind, The Grand Prize was mine-

No. 9, No. 9.

At the Universal Exposition of 1889, at Paria, France, the best sewing machines of the world, including those of America, were in competition. They were passed upon by a jury composed of the best foreign mechanical experts, two of whom were the leading sewing machine manufacturers of France. This jury, after exhaustive examination and tests, adjudged that the Wheeler & Wilson machines were the best of all, and awarded that company the highest prize offered—the GRAND PRIZE—giving other companies only gold, silver and bronze medals.

The French government, as a further recognition of superiority, decorated Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, president of the company, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor—the most prized honor of France.

Cross of the Legion of Honor—the most prized bonor of France.

The No. 9, for family use, and the No, 12, for manufacturing uses, are the best in the world to-day.

And now, when you want a sewing machine, if you do not get the best it will be your own fault.

Ask your sewing machine dealer for the No. 9 Wheeler & Wilson machine. If he doesn't keep them, write to us for descriptive catalogue and terms. Agents wanted in all unoccupied terrifory.

THE FIGURE ...

The figure 9 in our dates will make a long way No man or weman now living will ever date a Jocument without using the figure 9. It stands in the third place in 1890, where it will remain ter years and then move up to second place in 1900 where it will rest for one hundred years

There is another "9" which has also con s to tay. It is unlike the figure 9 in our dates in the spect that it has already moved up to first place, where it will permanently remain. It is called the "No High Arm Wneeler & Wilson Sewing Machine The "No. 9" was endorsed for first place by the experts of Europe at the Paris Exposition of 1889, where, after a severe contest with the leading mathines of the world, it was awarded the only Grand Prize given to family sewing machines, all others on exhibit having received lower awards of gold medals, etc. The French Government also recognized its superiority by the decoration of Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the company, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

The "No. 9" so not an old mechine improved.

The "No. 9" is not an old machine improved upon, but is an entirely new machine, and the brand Prize at Paris was awarded it as the grand est advance in sewing machine mechanism of the age. Those who buy it can rest assured, there tre, of having the very latest and best
