FARMERS WILL GO IT ALONE morning's session of the Farmers' alli- A DAY OF DIRE DISASTERS

The Peoples' Party Fails to Gather in the Agricultural Vote.

The Third Party Captures and Swallows the Alliance, But in Doing so Drives Out Various Other Farmer Organiza tions-Inharmonious Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 20.-The result of yesterday's sessions of the farmers' organizations are that the people's party has captured the alliance, and the alliance has a rest on the sub-treasury scheme. The capture of the alliance by the people's party, while practically accomplished some days ago. was not apparent until yesterday, when President Polk was unanimously re-elected; H. L. Loucks, of South Dakota, was chosen vice-president; J. H. Turner re-elected secretary and treasurer, and J. F. Willetts, of Kansas, national lecturer.

The committee on confederation of the various industrial organizations. at a meeting, referred to a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Terrell, Taubeneck and Baumgartner, the question of calling a congress of all the labor and industrial classes to meet February 22, next. It was first decided to hold the congress in Washington, but the south and west members objected to the place. The sub-committee was in-structed to select either Indianapolis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Chicago Springfield, Ill.

Politics consumed much of the time of this committee, the question at issue being whether the way should be left open fer the selection of a national ticket at the February meeting or whether the work done there should be limited so as to prevent political action. The latter course was finally decided on. When the assembly convenes it will draw up a plat-form of declarations and demands and the two great political parties will be requested to give them consideration and indorsement. It is not expected that the two great parties will ake any notice of these demands, and the way will remain clear for the people's party to call a convention afthe political conventions have been held and adopt the formulated demands of the confederated labor as-sembly as its platform.

This is the plan of action now determined upon by the people's party. The confederated assembly of industrial unions, as called, will, in the minds of the committee, be the most important organization of recent years. It aims for the consolidation of all laboring classes and the subsequent diversion of the minds subsequent diversion of the whole strength of the gigantic combination into the ranks of the third party. A committee was appointed to prepare an address to the laboring people, setting forth the objects and purposes of the February meeting.

Soon after the opening of yesterday morning's executive session of the su-preme council of the Farmers' alliance the chairman of the committee which last night met the representatives of the anti-sub-treasury element said his committee was ready to report. In-stantly there was a disturbance. On a motion of a delegate seated on the Macune side of the house every one not entitled to vote in the executive session was obliged to leave the hall. the doors were closed the chairman read the recommendation of the committee that Dr. Yeamans, the author of the anti-suo-treasury protest, should have a hearing. It was received with cries of "No! no!" and an acrimonious discussion began.

About 12:30 o'clock the communication was sent to the anti-sub-treasury people demanding that the alliance be immediately furnished with a copy of the protest which they desired to pre-The antis replied that the committee was only empowered through Dr. Yeamans to present the protest and until Yeamans could be heard by the supreme council the latter body would be deprived of the pleasure of reading the protest.

The document of the anti-sub-treasury men earnestly protests against any action of the supreme council that pro-poses to commit the Farmers' alliance and Industrial union to the proposition that provisions be made by the federal ess for government loans of money to individual citizens upon farm mort gages as security, or a demand for the government ownership on control of railroad property and transportation. These schemes, it declares, are unconstitutional, impractical, conflicting with the spirit of the alliance movement and tending to government paternalism and state socialism. In stead of relief from the present oppression the measures promise greater evils being partial to certain classes, involving business details too deep for the average farmer, and the attendant expense would make the market price of money higher and open the avenue for sharpers to trade upon the farmers hard-earned goods and products. The markets would be overloaded with produce, putting down the value of commodifies and raising taxation. Ala-bama, Mississippi and Misscuri fur-nished examples of how similar schemes to the sub-treasury project had failed signally. The land loan scheme, beyond promising a low rate of interest, presents no favorable feat ures, the expense of maintenance being enormous. The government ownership of railroads implies one of two other schemes. It would foster political control of the schemes. cal corruption and be an arbitrary interference with private rights in many cases. In conclusion, the committee expressed a desire to co-operate with e alliance in carrying out its principles for securing a safe currency, rid-ding the land of trusts and monopolies, helping the farmer and laborer, helping the farmer and laborer, securing an honest ballot and a fair ount, and selecting for places of public honor and emolument honest and

The increased demand during the past year for reform literature was a matter for immediate consideration by the council which ought to pro-vide for the wider dissemination of reform literature. a Corrupt Senate. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.-Exto have an opportunity of proving his recent assertion that the Hiscock bill, which was introduced in the last session of congress for the purpose of submitting oleomargarine to the laws of the several states, failed of passage because certain members of the United States senate had been corrupted by money furnished by manufacturers of bogus butter. The declaration in question was made quite recently be fore a meeting of the Iowa State grange, and it was supplemented by a declaration that the ex-governor pro-posed to make the dry bones of the United States senate rattle as they have never rattled before. At least two eastern senators who were opposed to the Hoard measure are determined that if the ex-governor has any inti-mation of the kind he has so publicly indicated he shall be compelled to disclose it. They have provided them-selves with the press reports of the speech in question and it is probable that directly after the convening of the senate next month a resolution will be submitted reciting the facts in the case and calling for the appointment of a committee to investigate the allegations. The fact that no names were mentioned does not, it is argued, mili-tate against the gravity of the charges, the only difference being that they are directed absolutely against the opponents of the measure, instead of speci-fied individuals. If Governor Hoard has any such information, there are senators who are determined that he shall name the men who received oribes, men who furnished funds and all necessary connecting particulars.

WANT THE CONVENTION.

Great Rivalry for the Next Republican

National Convention. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.-With the arrival of the advance contingents from New York and Minneapolis the contest for the location of the next republican national convention may be said to have been begun in earnest today. The delegates from these places are not at present making any particular bids for the gathering, concenting themselves with pointing out the availability of their respective localities, the facilities for the main gathering and the smaller committee meetings, and the abundance of hotel accommodations. M. H. De Young, of California, is on the way and will be here this afternoon. He is authorized, on behalf of San Francisco to offer free transportation to the delegates from their homes and return, and sends word that he has in addition authority to do a great deal more, but of what character he has not appeared justified in making public. The national repubican committee meets here on Monday to render a decision, and in the meantime every arriving member will be attacked front and rear by the advo-cates of the various cities. Chicago, it is understood, occupies a neutral posi-tion. A meeting of its representative citizens a few days ago agreed to make no concerted effort toward securing the gathering, but to be contented with an ntimation to the committee that if it chose to call the convention for Chicago, abundant facilities would be provided.

DR. WILSON'S CASE.

The Episcopals Hardly Know What To Do

With This Clergyman. NEW YORK, Nov. 20 .- Although it is known that the matter has been called to his attention, Fishop Potter has so far made no intimation of his intentions regarding the case of Rev. Dr. denry Wilson, who recently announced his conversion to the Faith urists. Dr. Wilson, who is one of the best known Episcopal divines in this diocese, was until last June senior assistant of Rev. Dr. Rainsford, rector of st. George's church, He was for a long time a sufferer from dyspepsia and other complaints and is emphatic in his belief that he has been cured through the medium of his belief in the divine healing. He has become an active worker in the Gospel Tabernacle which is the center of the movement of the Faith Curists in this section of the country. At the same time he retains his connection with the Protestant Episcopal church. The matter has given rise to considerable talk in the Episcopal and lay circles.

St. Paul Has an Explosion and Disastrous Fire.

St. PAUL, Nov. 18 .- At 13 o'clock this morning a tongue of flame arose from the five story brick building of cers, corner East Third and Wacouts streets. When the department arrived the fourth and fifth story were in a mass of flames. The whole building was doomed. The fire originated on the fourth story of the Griggs block, then spread to the second story, both of which were simply sizzling when the firemen arrived. At o'clock the flames began to emerge ominously from the Farwell, Osmun & Kirk building. To add to the alarm of the citizens, at 2 Governor Hoard, of Wisconsin, is likely o'clock the fire alarm once more sounded. This time the call was from Karl Simmons' drug store, which was quickly gutted. With the Griggs-Cooper building doomed and every appearance that the Farwell, Osmun & Kirk building would quickly follow, the situation looked very serious. The flames had now entire possession of two large buildings, from the ground upwards, and nothing but a lack of fuel could stop their course. At 2:45 when the blaze was at its height, with the flames raging furiously in the east end block, a cry of warning burst from the spectators. The entire east wall of Farwell, Osmun The entire east wall of Farwell, Osmun & Kirks building was seen to bulge and with a crash gave way and fell thundering into adjoining lots. Three Men Drowned.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Nov. 18 .- A ship's boat belonging to the barkentine North Bend, containing five of her craw, was capsized in the gale yesterday afternoon. Two sailors were picked up by a passing vessel after drifting about for some time, but the other three became exhausted and were drowned. The North Bend was bound for Fiji islands.

MONMOUTH, Ill., Nov. 18 .- On Friday night the store of Bedford Ray, ir oats. Larchland, this county, was robbed. On Saturday night four men were seen to enter a school house near Ormonde A posse of eight farmers armed with all the available guns in the neighborhood surrounded and took captive what proved to be the Larchland robbers, with the booty in their possession. The captors were elated and the whole gang marched to the village store, where it occurred to the granger who personated the sheriff to search the isoners, when of a sudden a wonder ful transformation scene took place. Like a flash the four sleepy tramps confronted the eight captors with as many big revolvers. The surprise was complete. After relieving the terror stricken grangers of their guns and other valuables the daring quartette made their escape a second time.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION. Great Hastling of Cities to Capture the

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 21 .- There was not the bustle that might be expected under the circumstances this morning in the lobby and corridors of the Arlington hotel, where all the delegations representing the cities in the race for the republican national convention of 1892 have headquarters, nevertheless much quiet work was done, and if members from the various delegations are to be believed each member of the national committee in the city has shown himself to be favor-Griggs, Cooper & Co., wholesale gro- ably disposed. They are careful not to say they are pledged towards the city represented by the city who imparts the information. Each dele-gation is quite as hopeful as any other. The New York delegation is due here this evening. It was preceded this morning by J. Sloat Fassett, who is a member of the national committee.

The announcement that the presentation of the claims of the various cities would be public has created much favorable comment. The hearing will take place in the big banquet hall of the Arlington, which will accommodate a large crowd. Governor-elect McKinley and ex-Governor Foraker compose the team that will pull together in presenting the advantages of Cincinnati. San Francisco will have Representative McKenna to tell why it deserves the convention. Judge Scott will argue for Omaha. Minneapolis hasn't yet se-lected its advocates from five who have been suggested, viz: Senators Wash-burn and Davis, of Minnesota, Senator Casey, of North Dakota, Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, and Chef Clerk Johnson, of the United States senate. The speakers for New York, Detroit and Pittsburg have not been selected.

Chicago, the only candidate for the convention that has no delegated to represent it, will be spoken for by Congressman Campbell of Illinois. It Congressman Campbell of Illinois. It is said he will simply tell the national convention that if the committee wants the convention to go to Chicago that city will furnish the hall, the printing, doorkeepers and the ushers.

No attempt has been yet made by any of the delegations to figure on the votes. The only combination attempted was an effort on the part of the west-ern cities to combine against the east.

CLAIMED BY TWO WOMEN.

A Cedar Rapids Man Finds a Surprise at Home.

CEDAB RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 21 .- When Joseph P. Dunphy, foreman of the Jones & Douglas cracker factory, went home last night he was confronted by two women who claimed to be his wives. Yesterday afternoon a woman giving the name of Mrs. Mary Ryan, of St. Louis, came to the city and went to Mr. Dunphy's house, and when he went home a general row ensued, which ended by Mrs. Ryan drawing a revol-ver and attempting to shoot Dunphy. He called the police and had the woman arrested. Mrs. Ryan claims that Dunphy is her husband, while Dunphy alleges that while he was once, a divorce was secured in 1889, and that the little boy she has with her, and which she claims is his, she got from the foundling's home at St. Louis and that she came here simply to make trouble and seek revenge.

Dunphy says he has three other charges to bring against the woman as soon as the present one is disposed of. Dunphy bears an excellent reputa-tion here. Sensational developments are looked for, as it is believed that Mrs Ryan will shoot Dunphy if she gets an opportunity.

This prohibition which will go into effect next Monday will be executed under the same conditions as those governing the prohibition re-cently issued against the export of

A Military Move.

LONDON, Nov. 21.-The announcement of the Russians prohibiting against the export of wheat influenced the market for American railroad securities which became strong. The Chronicle's St. Petersburg correspondent says it is expected that the exportation of horses to Austria and Ger many will be prohibited. This and the prohibition of wheat are regarded as having a military significance.

It Bogins to Look as If Russia and Austria

Would Fight.
VIENNA, Nov. 19.--There seems to have been considerable foundation for the depression reported at the closing hours yesterday on all the European bourses, with the exception of Paris. The newspapers of the continent this morning are bristling with alarming rumors, dark references and sensational intimations. Prominent among these is a report, said to be well founded, that the Russian government has ordered a reinforcement of 40,000 troops to be dispatched to the frontier and that orders have been issued to largely increase the barrack accommodations at various points along the Russian frontier. Generally coupled with this announcement is the report, believed to be correct, that the Austrian government, in addition to the reinforcements recently sent to the Galacian frontier, has ordered a large body of troops to be dispatched to strengthen the frontier guards. Tacked on to these significant statements is the fact that the German war office has ordered a large number of portable tents to be manufactured for the use of the eastern army corps, with the view. it is openly stated, of sheltering

German troops from the inclemency of the weather in the event of war this winter with Russia. Additional bar-racks room is also being provided in many towns along the Russo-German trontier and several cavalry corps have been strengthened in military districts which would have to bear the first onslaughter of the Russian armies The opinion previously expressed these dispatches that the ezar and his advisers are being driven to desperation on account of famine troubles, in-ternal political difficulties and financial complications, are brought to an acute stage by the recent failure to float the new Russian loan, and that war would be a positive relief from these complications, seem to be gaining ground rapidly, and may be the cause of much of the present uneasy feeling. This feeling has been increased by the fact that the Russian minister of war is said to have suddenly abandoned the project suddenly abandoned the project of purchasing the new smokeless powder, small calibre rifles in France and to have ordered the government ammunition works to work night and day at the task on hand for some time past of filling old Berdan cartridge with smokeless powder. Finally a number of veteran regiments are being transferred from Finland to the Aus tria frontier, while recruits alone are being sent to the Baltic provinces. In view of these facts, it is not astonishing that the bourses are depressed and that the Austrian emperor, may in an unguarded moment, have uttered words which he has since regretted and which may have involved the Tageblatt in a criminal prosecution.

Brazillan Affairs.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Advices received here by various channels from Brazil this morning, seem to point to further success upon the part of the insurgents and to additional trouble for Marshal Da Fonseca, and to a possibility that the new republic of the south. to include the revolted province of Ric Grande Do Sul, Uruguay, and in addition the province of Santa Catharina may soon be a fait accompli. Repub lies Do Sul is not the name decided upon by the junta for the territory which is expected may, before many weeks have gone by, be under its juris diction. "Republic of the South," is simply the popular term applied to the opposition or insurgent movement con nected with Rio Grande Do Sul.

IOWA EPWORTHS.

Close of a Successful Convention at Water loo--The Officers.

WATERLOO, Ia., Nov. 19 .- The second annual convention of the Iowa State Epworth league closed its session in this city last evening. The attendance of delegates and visitors was large, nearly every one of the 507 chapters in the state being represented. In the afternoon the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. F. H. Sanderson, Emmetsburg; vice-presidents, Miss Mary L. Newman, Des Moines; Rev. C. R. Norton, Mediapolis; Wm. Tackaberry, Sioux City, Rev. W.S. Lewis, Epworth, secretary, H. G. Everett, Des Moines; treasurer, F. J. Norton, West Union. Invitations were extended for the next annual session from Grinnell, Dubuque. Burlington and Oskaloosa. Grinnell was chosen. The forenoon session was devoted to papers upon subjects of interest to the work, and the afternoon to department meetings. The convention was a very enthusiastic one. During the delivery of his address, the outgoing president, Rev. W. H. W. Rees, of Des Moines, said of the prohibition question that the league throughout the state was opposed to any attempt at the repeal of prohibition. This statement was heartly applauded.

TROUBLE IN PROSPECT.

The Clan-na-Gnel Will Visit the Graves of Three Noted Martyrs.

New York, Nov. 21-A dispatch from London says: Trouble is feared at Glasneven, Ireland, tomorrow, in connection with the great demonstration of the members of the Clan-na-Gael over the graves of the Manchester martyrs, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien. The demonstration is under the especial auspices of the Parnellites, but it is probable that the McCarthyites will claim a right to participate in the ex-ercises, and in that event a collision between the two factions will be inevitible. The Castle authorities have ordered all the available police force, as well as several companies of military, to be in readiness near the scene, but there will be no interruption to the demonstration unless a disturbance is first precipitated by the participants.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 21 .- At an early hour this morning National Lecturer Willetts stated that he had just initiated the F. M. B. A. into the alliance. This furnishes a basis for an exaggerated report to the effect that the two national organ-izations had consolidated or at least that is what allience men say it was simply a meeting between alliance and F. M. B. A. members and fourteen of the latter were received in the alliance, the oath being adminis-tered by Willetts. This does not amalgamate the two organizations nor do the members forfeit their membership in the F. M. B. A. by subscribing to the alliance oath, the F. M. B. A. into the alliance.

Brazitian Affairs. LONDON, Nov. 21 .- There is one important item of news here this morning in regard to the troubles in Brazil. The Times' Santiago correspondent cables that Silveria Martins now holds the key to the situation in Brazil. According to the same correspondent, Martins is a "strong democrat and friendly to Dom Pedro." From other sources the reported repulse of Fonseca's two gunboats and a torpedo boat seem to be confirmed, though the alleged details obtainable are conflicting to a great degree. The insurgents, it is claimed, continue to receive reinforcements of men and money with munitions of war, and as Fonseca's squadron in the upper Uruguay river is said to have hauled down the flag of the United States of Brazil and to have hoisted in its place the white flag with a red ball centre of the so called republic of the south. This squadron is then said to have joined the insurgents force and they have been received with enthusiasm. The firing of guns, much cheering and entertainments of a festive nature with negotiations be-tween the dictators and the revolutionists, are said to be broken off, as the latter would be content with nothing ess than his complete surrender. On the other hand negotiations between the insurgents and the government of Uruguay are said to be progressing in a manner favorable to the junta.
