The finest kind of Limburger cheese with Christmas Turkey.

From Pomeroy's Advance Thought. Those who acomplish but little or nothing themselves are not safe advisors for others.

To scold or whip a child for what you do is cowardly and brutal.

The surest way to eradicated the bad is to cultivate the good.

Good deeds and helpins the poor are the prayers that God puts on record in our favor, while the words go by unnoticed.

He who uses official or political power to benefit himself more than others should never have it

Death, so-called, is one of man's best friends. Heaven is this side of the grave as well as the other, if we so wish it. Telling of the faults or misdeeds of others is a waste of time and generally an insult to those upon whom they are thrust.

Jesus, the child of Joseph and Mary, was no more or less a Son of God than is the weakest child in home or street. He who is influenced by public opinion never influences it. Think more and stumble less Those who seek to climb only by the errors of others never rise far or remain

God is equally in the rags of the deceived and degraded woman as with her church going or fashionable sister.

There is no politics in heaven. Type for Sale.

We have 17 fonts of second hand type for sale cheap. They range from Pearl to Double Great Primer and will be sold without regard to cost. They are not much worn and will be very servicable in a small office. Come early to get the best bargains. Will sell all or part, to suit purchasers.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excelent effect after taking the first dose Price 50 cents and $1 Trial size free. All Druggists.

AT COST.

Big Cut on Prices of Boots and Shoes. In order to reduce my immense stock of boots, shoes, felts, overshoes, trunks, valises, etc., I will, during the next thirty days, sell everything at actual cost, for cash only. Remember, you have a $5,000 stock to select from and that I am the only exclusive boot and shoe dealer in the city. II. WILSON.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Ia. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's cough remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day -Centerville, S. D , Chronicle and Index. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by P. C Corrigan, druggist.

We want every mothor to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarsness; then the child appears to have taken a cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's cough remedy will prevent the attack. Even after a rough cough has appeared the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. It has never been known to feel. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by P. C. Corrigan

"Of course it hurts, but you must grin and bear it," is the old-time consolation given to persons troubled with rheumatism. "If you will take the trouble Thorough course; careful instructions: to dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's pain balm and bind it on over the seat of the pain your rheumatism will disappear," is the modern and much at Heinerikson's. Just the thing to eat | more satisfactory advice, 50 cent bottles for sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.

A POPULAR FAMILY. JENNIE: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to 'catch on' to the last new thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."

of me."
KATE: "I don't know: I certainly do not make any exertion in that direction."
JENNIE: "Well, during the last few montha, for example, you have taken up painting, without any teacher; you came to the rescue when Miss Lafarge deserted her Delsarte class so suddenly, and ce rtainly we are all improving in grace under your instruction; I heard you telling Tommy Eames last evening how his club made mistakes in playing baseball; you seem to be up on all the latest 'fads,' and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the last month you have improved so in health, owing, you tell me, to your physical culture exercises. Where do you get all of your information from in this little out-of-the way place?—for you never go to the city."

KATE: "Why, Jennie, you will make me vain. I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magic? No! Magazine! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household: father has given up his magazine that he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really FAMILY magazine published, as we have sent for samples of all of them, and find that one is all for men, another all for women, and another for children only, while this one suits every one of us; so we only need to take one instead of several, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.03 a year. Perhaps you think I am too lavish in my praise; but I will let you see ours, or, better still, send le cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting us ont, as you say we have the reputation of being the best informed family in town. If that be so, it is Demorest's Family Magazine that does it."
