

THE FRONTIER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY JAMES H. RIGGS, Editor and Prop. GEO. D. RIGGS, Associate Editor.

A BILL has been introduced in the lower house of the Iowa legislature to repeal the prohibition law.

THEY are electing Blaine delegates in Pennsylvania, and insist that the plumed knight will be a candidate.

SENATOR PADDOCK'S pure food bill has been reported favorably and is almost certain to become a law.

THE year 1893 will be a prosperous one for O'Neill. Keep your eye-glass turned in the direction of O'Neill, and watch her gait.

THERE will be three Keeley institutes in Nebraska when the one at O'Neill is established. The other two are established at Blair and Beatrice.

MR. CLARENCE SELAH will, by invitation of the club, read another paper on the silver question at the Republican Club's rooms on the evening of February 6, that being the date of the next regular meeting.

THE police of New York have arrested a man named Henry G. Dowd, who, is supposed to have committed the long list of murders that have been recorded against "Jack the Slasher."

WE will have war with Chile. We will not have war with Chile. And there you have the situation in a nut-shell, as outlined by the daily press.

CHILE'S silence is becoming obnoxious and the president, it is understood, has given that government until February 1 to say something.

THE World-Herald slaps a double-leaded dose of taffy onto Mr. Bryan's ambitious breast every day or two, and its latest is that the farmers of the west endorse Mr. Bryan's opposition to the Russian relief appropriation.

SIXTEEN of New York's fairest and most popular belles, whose ages are alleged to be below the 19-year mark, will on February 1 run a 120-yard footrace, the winner to be awarded an elaborate gold medal.

CHAIRMAN CLARKSON and General Alger called upon the distinguished secretary of state a few days ago to learn positively whether or not he is a candidate for the presidency.

THE Democrats are very much worried as to who will be the Republican candidate for the presidency. It is a settled fact it will be either Harrison or Blaine, and Republicans generally are satisfied with the situation.

THE Atkinson Plain Dealer brings out the old chestnutty lie that the increased duty on tin plates makes an increased cost to consumers of $20,000,000 annually.

IF Edison is successful with his scheme to heat and light an ordinary dwelling house for 60 cents per year, THE FRONTIER is in favor of running him for the presidency.

WALT MASON, the brilliant poet, humorist and all-round journalist, whose work a few years ago on the Lincoln Journal made that newspaper so universally popular, is taking the Keeley treatment at Blair.

THE English and German papers now freely admit that the McKinley tariff is benefitting the United States, says the Burlington Hawkeye.

THE New York Herald wants to run Henry Watterson for president, and says there is no doubt that he would be the most universally popular candidate that the Democrats could possibly name.

IF the public had no other means of knowing the facts in reference to the late McBride-Skirving "contest" than the mention made of it by the Sun they would know very little about it and would be led to believe Mr. Skirving was not a citizen at the time of his election.

CHADRON Citizens: Congressman Owen Scott of Indiana has begun a fight against the printing of "special request" envelopes at the government printing office.

THE Item calls upon us to "tie loose those dogs of war" and then immediately this one of the "dogs" crawls into its hole and pulls the hole in after it.

AND so the Sun feels called upon to take up the cudgel for—well, it's no matter just now. The fact is simply this: THE FRONTIER is the only paper in this county that has dared speak out its own mind.

SPRINGER VS. JACKSON.

Congressman Springer: Andrew Jackson in his famous letter to Dr. J. J. Coleman of North Carolina, April 26, 1824.

THE country does not need to be informed by a bill for a general revision of the tariff, what the Democratic party desires to do upon this subject or what it would do if it had the law-making power.

THE ATTACK ON RECIPROCITY.

From the Cleveland News and Herald. Congressman Breckinridge of Kentucky has done the Republican party a service in attacking the reciprocity clause of the McKinley tariff law.

But Congressman Breckinridge thinks the provisional grant of retaliatory power to the president unconstitutional, and his party agree with him.

national advance in our history on the same grounds. It was on such a plea that the old Bourbon saint, President Jackson, overthrew the United States bank and so disturbed the finances of the country as to precipitate the panic of 1837.

THE pitiful weakness of this attack is further shown by the instruction to report a reciprocity provision different from that now existing, one that would be, as Mr. Breckinridge admits, open to the same objection of unconstitutionality, and that cannot, in the nature of its provisions, prove other than a worthless imitation of one of the greatest strokes of diplomacy and statesmanship in our history.

THE FIGURES FOR IT.

Table with columns: Amount in per cent. per capita, 1870, 1880, 1890. Rows for Circulation, Population, and other figures.

Paddock Declares Himself. In a letter to Col. Pearman of Omaha, Senator Paddock has the following to say about his candidacy for re-election: WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9.—Colonel J. W. Pearman, 2926 South Nineteenth street, Omaha: Dear Colonel—

CUSTER Leader: The editor-in-chief of the court house syndicate sheet at Merna, in its recent issue, sends forth this: "If Nebraska was as ably represented in the United States senate as it is in the house of representatives we might feel more than proud of our Washington contingent."

"Scotty" Talks About "Car Joe." From the Lincoln Journal. "Joe" Bartley of Atkinson, Holt county, is understood to be a candidate for state treasurer.

Don't be Hard on Them. From the Crete Vidette. Really, though, you could not blame McKeighan and Kem for voting against the appropriation to transfer relief supplies to the famine stricken districts of Russia.

Make a Note of This. From the Fremont Tribune. And Kem and McKeighan voted with Bryan against an appropriation for carrying the free-will offering of the north-west to the starving Russians.

Interesting to Sheep Raisers. From World-Herald Stock Notes. Among the prominent stockmen at the yards was seen L. P. Southworth, one of Nebraska's successful sheep feeders.

Anyone who looks into the crop statistics of the year cannot but be impressed by the fact that the United States is the most prosperous nation in the world today. The year just closed is unparalleled in its plenty here, and the comforts of all the people were never so great in any other nation as they are in America today.

Don't be deceived by J. P. Mann's big advertisement. If you want good goods at bed rock prices go to Roy & McGowan, Scottville.
