Notice to the Public.
O'NEILL, NEB., JANUARY 27, 1892.
I have this day purchased the entire implement business of my brother, Frank Campbell. I will continue the business at the old stand. My stock will be complete and will be sold at the lowest living prices. I hope for a continuance of the liberal patronage which this business has received in the past and will endeavor by fair dealing to retain the confidence of the people.
MOSES CAMPBELL.

Notice is hereby given that I have this day sold my entire business to my brother, Moses Campbell, who will continue to conduct the business at the old stand.
Dated January 27, 1892.

The Population of O'Neill
Is about 1,500, and we would say at least one half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Trial size free. Large Bottles 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Notice of Dissolution.
The partnership heretofore existing between Ed F. Gallagher and T. F. Birmingham under the firm name of the Galena Lumber Company is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Ed F. Gallagher retiring and T. F. Birmingham continuing the business under the old firm name. All parties owing the firm will make settlement with Mr. Birmingham and all claims owing by the firm, if any, will be settled by him.
Dated at O'Neill, Neb., Jan. 15, 1892.
