O Neill should greet the "Traveling Men's Minstrel" show a week from Friday night with a crowded house. This is the same combination that delighted Norfolk last Saturday night and O'Neill is to be congratulated on securing them.

J. P. Mann's spring stock of Bedford, Henrietta, Camel hair, Homespun and cents to $2.50. T.immings and buttons to match. These goods are the latest styles and prices exactly right.

Rev. Wilson is holding a series of revival meetings at the M. E. church this week. The attendance is quite large and he has hopes of doing a great amount of good for the church and church work. He wishes THE FRONTIER to extend a cordial invitation to everybody to attend.

Dr. Wells was in Norfolk and attended the traveling mens minstral entertainment at the opera house last Satur day night. He says the commercial boys gave a refined show, which was wel! patronized by the people of Norfolk. We understand they will give an entertainment of a like nature in O'Neill in a tew weeks.

Will Lowrie entertained a few friends Tuesday evening who gathered at his home to celebrate the sixteenth anniversary of his advent into this world. Those present were: Misses Lemo Lamoraux, Blanch Pale, Mary Henerikson, Rose and Laura Meals, Maud Gillespie, and Messrs Lloyd Gillespie, Al Evans and Homer Newell.

The Episcopalian sociable last Fliday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Dobbs was attended by quite a large number of young people. A very pleasant time is reported. Supper was served, the proceeds of which go to enrich the treasury of the society. Mr. and Mrs. Dobbs entertained in their usual pleasant manner.

If anyone wants to see Eli, please call at Brennan's hardware house. Eli barb wire, of course, not Eli Perkins. Mr. Brennan also keeps the finest garden seed in the market, has all kinds of machinery, handles the John Deere plows, and can give entire satisfaction. Cash preferred, but time given if wanted. Call at Brennan's, the best hardware store on earth.

Demonstrator, the handsome Hambletonian stallion formerly owned by Edgar Thompson and sold by him to a gentleman in Little Rock, Ark., was brought back to O'Neill last week and will be taken care of and worked this season by Mr. Thompson, who still retains an interest in the horse. He is a magnificent specimen of horseflesh and under Ed's skillful care will be brought to the front very quickly.

Barney Mullen came up from Omaha Sunday evening, stopping over in O'Neill and going west to Hot Springs Monday evening. Mr. Mullen has from seventy five to a hundred men at work on a large five story building at that point, and also has the contract for putting up an immense bath house this summer. THE FRONTIER is pleased to see one of O'Neill's prominent citizens getting to the front like this.

There is no danger from whooping cough when Chamberlain's cough remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough, tenacious mucus and aids in its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving it to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. 50 cent bottles for sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.

About twenty married couple congregated at the residence of John Dwyer, in the northern part of this city, on last Monday evening, and a very enjoyable time was had by all. This was strictly an old folks' party, and the way they danced clogs, jigs and "break-downs' made many of them think of their younger days. About 2 o'clock they all departed for home after having passed a very pleasant evening.

THE FRONTIER has lately seen a copy of a new book entitled "Pioneer Heroes and their Daring Deeds," which will be put on the market in O'Neill soon. The book is accurate as to data and is interesting and at times thrilling. Among the features may be found the exploits of American border heroes and heroines, stories of Indians, outlaws and wild beasts, from the earliest times to the present. Also a history of the lives of DeSoto, Standish. Boone, Kenton, Crockett, Carson, Custer, Comstock, etc.

Mr. Robert B. Loucks, father of Ben and Ed. Loucks, living near Inman, be no roudeism at the World's died very suddenly last Sunday morning. having been sick only a day or two. His illness was thought to be only a slight attack of la grippe and the family had hopes that he would soon recover. Sunday morning he became suddenly worse and died before they had time to realize his condition. Mr. Loucks was a respected old gentleman, a plasterer by trade, and has lived in Holt county for a namber of years. The funeral ser-vices were held at Inman Tuesday. THE is substantial and to the point. FRONTIER extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

POLITICAL PERSECUTION

That's just what it looks like, and if you are close enough that's exactly what it smells like.

The supervisors of Holt county have been in session several days. THE FRONTIER will not attempt to give the regular proceedings of the board, but will tell its readers what a certain faction of the board is doing. It will be remembered that at the last meeting a committee was appointed to examine the Cashmere dress goods have arrived and books of the treasurer and count the will be sold at prices ranging from 10 | cash and make a report at this meeting. The committee made its report, which was as follows:

O'NEILL, NEB., Feb. 24, 1892. We, your committee on settlement, consisting of T. V. Golden, John Crawford and H Miller present, met as per agreement in the treasurer's office and found as follows: Silver ... 3.44 prais teccipts from state treasurer ... 398.60 ton.

This, the committee states, is in accornance with the settlement of Feb. 7, 1892. The board adopted the report and the committee was discharged.

Immediately the following resolution was read

WHEREAS, It has been reported that the money that was counted on Feb. 24. 1892, by the committee on settlement has been removed from the vaults of the treasury; therefore be it

Resolved, That there be a committee money now in the treasurer's office and report to the board.

D. G. ROLL. Upon motion the resolution was amended to have the committee consist of the entire board, which carried, the alliance faction voting as one man. to count the money in the treasury!

A committee was appointed to interview Mr. Scott and ask him whether he would bring the money into the county judge's office, where the board was in session, or whether he would have them come into his vault and count it. Mr. Scott replied that he did not wish to do either. The opinion of the county attorney was called for on the question as to whether they had a right to count the money, and Mr. Scott's position was sustained by that gentlemen. Mr. Scott holds, and THE FRONTIER thinks rightly, that all the members have no right to go ioto the vault and count the money. They appointed a committee to settle with the treasurer, the committee reported and the report was accepted and adopted and the new bond of the treasurer approved.

But it is apparent that there is a faction of the board determined to persecute the officer, and they are acting as a unit in that direction. The next move they made was to have an outside alliance man, one John Hopkins, a against Scott, making a long list of charges. This was Wednesday morn ing and they gave him until 1 o'clock to appear and show cause, etc. Mr. Scott's attorneys, Messrs. Dickson and Uttley, appeared and asked for a continuance until this morning at 9. The faction was not disposed to grant even that much at first, but finally did so.

TODAY'S WORK.

District court had to be adjourned this morning, in order that they might use the court room. Several important cases were on hand, but the court's business had to be called off, and the witnesses and jurors-twenty-four of themare loafing today at the county's expense.

All concerned appeared this morning and the "faction" proceeded to deal out what they call justice, but what in the writer's opinion is the rankest kind of persecution. Why do we think so, you may ask? The eighteen alliance members, advised and instructed by Messrs. Harrington and Murphy, stop every attempt on the part of Mr. Scott's attorney as a court and the "faction" has a majority. We will cite an incident to prove that there is no justice in it: Scott's counsel filed a motion objecting to the supervisors conversing with the attorneys during the trial, which was promptly voted down, and the attorneys for Hopkins call upon and instruct their and carry tnem. Is there any justice there.

The trial is proceeding slowly: At this hour-3 o'clock-Mr. Hagerty is on the stand.

During the trial every time Mr. Scott's attorneys object to the introduction of certain testimony, Cord Smith appears with a motion to overrule the objection and over she goes. They have the required number of votes, and they stay by the leaders like chicks around a hen, Smith is on the stand at this writing-4:30 o'clock.

It is very evident that this scheme has been on tap for some time, and that Hopkins is only used as a tool.

CIRCULATED FALSE REPORTS.

A report was circulated in Chambers last week that the treasurer was short $40,000, and THE FRONTIER will undertake to hunt down the man who started it and publicly brand him a liar.

The false report was carried to Neligh by a member of the examining board. whose name we will also find out, and we offer the following clipped from the Neligh Tribune. a strong alliance paper, to substantiate our statement:

It is reported that Barrett Scott, treasurer of Holt county, is short in his accounts. A committee of the county board finished an examination of his accounts last week and found a shortage of $43,000. He claims it is in the banks and was given ten days in which to produce it. This comes from one of the

At 5 o'clock the plaintiff rested, and tomorrow at 9 o'clock.

The Commercial Drummer.

Last Friday night the Academy Dramatic company presented the "Commercial Drummer" to a hundred dollar house. The audience anticipated something good and they were not in the least disappointed. Mr. Tom Golden was master of ceremonies and under his directions and advice amateurs acheived proficeincy sufficent to cause Booth and Barrett to tremble for the safety of their laurel crowns. Below is a cast of characters and THE FRONTIER takes pleasure in asserting that the personators collectively and individually are deserving of praise for merit displayed on this occas-

O'Neill has for the past two or three years lost considerable trade from the fact that there was no mill here. Mr. Joseph Bringier, of Deloit, was in town Tuesday looking up the matter. He has been living in Holt county for ten Think of it tay-payers, the entire board years and has accumulated considerable property. He has a deal on hand just now to trade some of his land for machinery of eastern parties, the number of acres included being near 400. Mr. Briniger is a practical miller, a hardworking german, and THE FRONTIER believes will make a success of the mill. He says he has encouragement from the farmers in this section of the county. They want to trade in O'Neill but are compelled to go where they can get their strack of the grip this year," says Mr. grain ground. Neligh is the nearest point for them and there they go. This is a chance O'Neill should not let slip, and when their man comes around the proper thing to de will be to give him a being in bed a little over two days, small donation. He doesn't want much against ten days for the first attack. The and the amount that was talked of Tuesday could be raised in half day. Some fiend in buman form had given the whole affair away. This was a corker, but the company nevertheless did not let that mar the pleasures of the evening, as they were hospitably entertained by Mrs. Mathews, and W. D., who glided noislessly in about 1:10, and assisted in the festivities. High-five was played until 11 o'clock, and an elaborate lunch followed. The prizes were taken as follows: Gentleman's first, Frank Mann; lady's first, Mrs. W. T. Evans; the two lesser prizes goto get even a fair trial. The board sits ing to S. J. Weekes and Miss Mazie Darr.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mose Campbell got together Wednesday evening of last week and surprised them to the queen's taste. There were perhaps thirty ladies and gentlemen in attendance, and they passed the evening hours away pleasantly, partaking of an elegant friends on the board to make motions lunch at the close. The feature of the evening's enjoyment, however, was the fish and Smoked Halibut. Canned fish fact that the company went in so suddenly that they caught Mr. Campbell with his shoes off, his feet comfortably resting on the top round round of the stove pipe, his trusty cob-pipe in his mouth and enjoying himself to his heart's content. The surprise upon the entire family was complete, and it is certain that those present had an agreeable time. The party was planned and carried out by Mrs. Frank and Thos. Campbell.

Some time ago the O'Neill fire company ordered a fire bell from the east and it arrived by freight Monday afternoon. It weighs 1,100 pounds and cost, list price, $225. By paying cash, which the company was amply able to do, a liberal discount was taken advantage of. The city council has decided to build a tower for the bell and work has already been commenced. It will stand directly over the city scale house and will be very convenient. THE FRONTIER congratulates the fire company and also commends the good judgment of the council in its decision to build the tower

SCATTERING CHIPS FROM NEIGHBORING WOODPILES.

Atkinson Graphic: If the Keeley institute at O'Neill meets with the success anticipated, who will furnish the clixir for the next campaign in the rural districts?

Butte Banner: A. O. Perry made a business trip to Atkinson Tuesday. In crossing the Niobrara the ice broke and Perry and team took a ducking. He took it very cool, that is, what was in his off side overcoat pocket, and waded ashore, got help and had himself rescued from a watery grave.

Butte Banner: R. H. Mills and Andrew Little, of O'Neill were over with lumber for Bartow last week. They were surprired at Butte, supposeing it to be only a small town with lots of "blow" behind it. Thats the way it goes. A man comes here a skeptic, and goes away a boomer.

Atkinson Graphic: Many will learn with sincere regret the sad news of the death of Mrs. Geo. Staples (nec, Mattie McFarland,) which occured in Omaha, Jan. 25. The cause of her demise was diphtheria. Mrs. Staples will be remembered as a school teacher in this section for some time, possessed of rare accom-plishments and an exceedingly affable disposition.

Atkinson Graphic: The democrats in this neck of woods are cursing Hill with a vengeance that bodes that partisan pirate no good. They swear by the hollowed memory of Jefferson and Jackson, if that arrogant would-be par tisan dictator is nominated at Chicago, the democratic state central committee, of Nebraska, will have to make an affidavit, after election, that he was a can-didate as the vote will fail to show it.

Madison Chronicle: Ve understand there is a movement on foot to introduce dumb bells for the use of the young ladies of the higher department of our public schools. It is all right for young ladies to have plenty of exercise, but after school hours and before school calls in the morning if they would pitch in and board, manipulate the broom-handle and agitate the bedding it would be more sensible, give them sufficient exercise and fit them to preside over a home of their own some day.

Ewing Democrat: A rumor reaches us that a free for all fight took place out in Deloit township last Monday, in which Mike Brady is reported to have whipped five men single handed. Among the vanquished were Sandy McCarthy. Pete O'Brion, Charlie McCarthy and Tegerdine. The disabled pugilists were in town Monday afternoon and swore out a warrant for the valiant Mike. Tuesday morning Constable Chase, started after his man, but when the officer reached the usual haunts of the justly celebrated slugger, Michael was away from home on business.
