NOTICE.

To S. R. Broadhead, non-resident defendant:
You will take notice that on the 12th day of February, 1862, C. F. Bliven commenced an action in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against yourself and H. C. Mc-Evony, sheriff, the object and prayer of which are to correct and reform the return to the order of sale issued for the sale of the west half of the southeast quarter and the east half of the southwest quarter of section thirteen (13), township thirty-one (3), range thirteen (13), township thirty-one (3), range thirteen (13), Holt county, Nebraska, issued in the case of W. J. Bowden vs. Cyrus M. Hassell, Martha M. Hassell, Herbert L. Putnam, J. R. McGinnis Jr. and S. R. Broadhead, which action was begun in the district crurt of Holt county, Nebraska, on the 24th day of January, 1888, and in which you were one of the defendants. Plaintiff asks that the return to the order of sale be corrected and reformed to read. "Sold said property to C. F. Bliven subject to a certain mortgage of 700 in favor of E. S. Ormsby, trustee," instead of, "Sold to C. F. Bliven subject to a certain mortnage in favor of E. S. Ormsby, trustee," instead of, "Sold to C. F. Bliven subject to a certain mortnage in favor of E. S. Ormsby, trustee," instead of subject to mortagae for the sum of $100 in fovor of W. J. Bowden. Plaintiff asks such correction owing to a clerical error and mistake of the sheriff in the making of said return to said order of sale and in the issuance of said sheriff's deed, and plaintiff turther prays in said petition that the title to said premises be quieted in him and that you be decreed and declared to have no interest therein, and for other equitable relief.

Love and Marriage in Japan.

Sir Edwin Arnold, who has been enjoying an interesting trip through the United States, has made a careful study of the conditions which govern the family in Japan and embodies his ideas in a paper called "Love and Marriage in Japan" in the February number of the Cosmopolitan. The article is illustrated by the quaintest possible Japanese sketches running down the sides and across the bottom of each page, An excellent photograph of W. D.
