

HARRISON NOTIFIED.

THE PRESIDENT INFORMED OF HIS NOMINATION.

The Scene a Very Impressive One—Gov. McKinley Makes the Speech to the President and Harrison Makes an Earnest Reply.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—President Harrison was officially notified yesterday afternoon of his nomination by the Minneapolis convention. The ceremony took place in the big east room, which, with its fresh straw matting and decoration of potted plants, was nearly filled with the President's household. The committee formed in semi-circle five rows deep. A quarter of an hour's wait and then from amid the waving palms of the cool conservatory at the end of the promenade the president entered. At his side walked Secretary Foster and behind came Secretaries Tracy, Rusk and Noble, Attorney General Miller, Private Secretary Halford and "Prince Russell." Hearty applause greeted his appearance and grew louder as McKinley stepped forward and grasped his hand. The governor began his speech of notification at once. He read from manuscript and in so low a tone that until, in response from cries "louder," he raised his voice, the president himself could hardly hear him. Applause, led by Elliott Shepard, closely punctuated his remarks, and the same was true when the President made his reply. Like McKinley, the President read from manuscript, but unlike McKinley, he spoke so that all could hear, and at times he grew very earnest and impassioned. He received an ovation when he finished, and then every body stepped forward and offered him congratulations. To all he gave a smile and cordial hand clasp, and looked particularly happy when a little later Harry Smith presented him with the gavel used at the convention. Then all withdrew to the dining-room, partook of luncheon, departed, and the ceremony being over the doors were thrown open to the sweltering crowd and the President retired to his office.

Valuable Kettle Missing.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—The large marble slab which was recently found in the Potomac, and which was supposed to be the original stone sent by the pope in 1853 to be placed in the Washington monument, has been stolen. When the stone was found and the divers had heard of its history they decided that it might prove of some value, and accordingly they placed it in an old shanty in which was placed their material. Yesterday morning some one entered the shanty and carried the relic away. There is no clue to the thief.

CHESTER, Pa., June 23.—John Anderson, a leper who has been confined in the county home at Lima, slipped away Saturday night and came to this city, where he encountered a number of convivial companions and got drunk. When his identity became known there was a stampede in the crowded hotels that he visited and Anderson was given the right of way. He slept in an open lot over night, was arrested Sunday and taken back to Lima.
One Honest Failure.
BOSTON, Mass., June 23.—One year ago Alley Bros. & Place, one of the largest leather firms of Boston, failed with liabilities of $510,000. After the usual resolutions of thanks were adopted, Mr. Russell of Missouri arose and said: "I move that this convention do now adjourn sine die."
The Chairman—Mr. Russell of Missouri moves that this convention do now adjourn sine die. And the chair, thanking the convention for its indulgence to himself and asking its indulgence for lack of capacity to perform the duties of the office, hereby declares the convention adjourned sine die.
Great cheering ensued and the band played "America," the audience joining in the chorus as they slowly moved out. The time of adjournment was 5:17 p. m.
WHITELAW REID'S DOINGS.
Preparing to Receive the Committee to Notify Him of His Nomination.
New York, June 23.—Whitelaw Reid spent a quiet Sunday with his family in his summer mansion on the Ophir Farm, back of White Plains. He had few callers aside from newspaper correspondents. His secretary is kept busy daily looking after an immense amount of correspondence. Preparations are being made to entertain the committee who will formally notify Mr. Reid of his nomination as Vice-President to-day. Dinner will be served for 200 and many prominent Republicans are expected to be present.
GRAY FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
Indiana's Price for Solid Support of the Ex-President.
CHICAGO, June 23.—It is generally expected that ex-Governor Isaac Gray of Indiana will be the nominee for Vice President. His name will be presented for that place by his own State delegation, and it is understood that the consent of the Gray men to the withdrawal of their Presidential candidate and the casting of the vote of Indiana for Cleveland was only given on the assurance that the Cleveland leaders would favor ex-Gov. Gray for the Vice-Presidency. As the Cleveland organization is now very thorough and well disciplined, there is little doubt that any compact of the leaders will be carried out to the letter in the convention.
Looks Like a Battlefield.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—Gen. H. V. Boynton has arrived from the Chickamauga national park. He reports all parts of the work of establishing the park rapidly progressing. Many miles of roads have been graded, and a number of the roads which were used during the battle, and which have since been closed up, have been traced out and reopened. The fields which have grown to underbrush have been cleared out and the battlefield is fast assuming the appearance which it had at the time of the fight.
A Stage Robber Shot.
WOODLAND, Cal., June 23.—John Ruggles, who with his brother Charles, robbed the Redding stage about a month ago, was tracked here by a Sheriff yesterday and fatally shot. During the attack on the stage John Ruggles shot and killed the express messenger, a man named Montgomery.
