

The Convention. and upon motion the nominations were made unanimous. These gentlemen were called for and each thanked the convention for the confidence reposed in them by making them their nominees, and promised, if elected, to do all they could to advance the interests of Holt county.

The following delegates and alternates were elected to attend the republican state convention to be held in Lincoln August 4, 1892:

- DELEGATES. J. M. Hunter, John Skirving, J. A. Trommsdorffer, G. C. Hazlett, Clarence Selah, A. L. Towle, H. C. McEvoy, Frank Dobney, Frank Emerson, Barrett Scott, C. W. Moss.

The following delegates and alternates to the congressional convention to be held at Chadron August 10, 1892:

- DELEGATES. M. P. Hinkald, D. H. Richmond, D. H. Richmond, John McBride, L. P. Roy, J. W. Vetter, John J. Halloran, B. W. Johnson, J. A. Trommsdorffer, H. C. Goss.

The following resolution was read and adopted unanimously: The republicans of Holt county, Nebraska, in convention assembled learn with pleasure that her worthy citizen and republican Joseph S. Bartley is a candidate for the nomination of state treasurer at the coming republican state convention. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we instruct the delegation to said convention to use all honorable means to secure Mr. Bartley's nomination. We also instruct the delegation to use all honorable means to secure Mr. Bartley's nomination.

The following resolution was read and adopted: RESOLVED, That we hereby express to Senator Paddock our approval of his work in the United States senate for the past five years in the interest of his constituency and the common people. The passage of his pure food bill by the senate is a triumph for the honest people against fraud and deception of trusts and combinations. His vote for free silver was an act which called forth the admiration of the highest order and courage seldom exhibited now-day by men in high positions. His work and vote for the anti-trust bill, which seeks to correct one of the greatest evils of the day and to relieve our agricultural classes of the most formidable barriers to their prosperity that has ever been enacted, is a noble and courageous deed. We therefore extend to him this evidence of our appreciation and bid him God speed in the good work he has so nobly and so earnestly undertaken, guaranteeing to him our sympathies and assistance in the unequal struggle of the masses against wealth, intolerance and aggressions of the corporations and classes.

The convention was one of the best attended and most harmonious ever held in Holt county. The ticket nominated is a good one, and one that every republican can get out and work for with a will, and victory is sure to perch on our banner in November.

The Eclectic Assembly of Bradford, Pa., a fraternal insurance order, has secured the service of Mrs. May L. Adam, formerly of New York but now located in O'Neill. Mrs. Adam will represent this association in the capacity of deputy state organizer. That the appointment is wisely made must go without question when we consider her past record, she having been actively engaged in the life insurance business for the last fifteen years and is thoroughly informed in all matters pertaining to fraternal orders and the plans and operations of mutual insurance. Mrs. Adam now holds commissions in the Royal Conclave of Knights and Ladies of Boston, International Alliance of New York, and also holds commissions in Ladies of the Maccabees, Equitable Union and Good Templars. Won silver medal in Royal Knights for best knowledge of parliamentary law. Was sent to New York and Brooklyn to represent the Ladies of the Maccabees at Commandery dinner, and originated frat line in both cities; also represented the Buffalo Mutual Life and Reserve for four years. Was regular correspondent for New York Sun, with liberal salary, Detroit Free Press and many others, both weekly and society papers. With this varied and extensive experience in life insurance, and the marks of honor bestowed upon her, together with the fact that she is a graduate of the State Normal school of Fredonia, N. Y., we bespeak for her most gratifying success in her new undertaking. Mrs. Adam has just been elected to the office of Supreme Princess in T. E. A., the fourth lady ever holding positions in supreme offices.

25 Cents Until After Election. The coming presidential and state campaign will be one of the most exciting ever known. During this time you will want a newspaper that is thoroughly in touch with public sentiment, and one that prints the news before it becomes stale. The Semi-Weekly State Journal prints the news several days earlier than the old fashioned weeklies, and costs the same, $1 per year. A complete paper twice each—Tuesdays and Fridays. Giving 104 papers a year, almost as good as a daily. The old-time weekly is not in it when it comes to printing news. A year's subscription will carry readers all through the campaign and the next session of the legislature. A big dollar's worth.

A few of our offers: The Journal a year and "Stanley in Africa," $1.40; Journal and Weekly N. Y. Tribune, both one year, $1.25; Journal and Oxford Bible, $2.75; Journal and Neely's political map, $1.80.

As a trial subscription we will send the Semi-Weekly until after election for a quarter. Address, NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL, Lincoln, Neb.

Mr. J. E. Thoroughgood, writing from Georgetown, Del., says: "Two teaspoonfuls of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved the life of Mrs. Jane Thomas, of this place." He also states that several other very bad cases of bowel complaint there have been cured by this remedy. For sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.
