OTHER TOWNS THAN OURS.

FROM THE STUART LEDGER. A most unfortunate and very serious accident befell a Mr. McMullen, stepbrother of John A. Crow, who lives eight miles northwest of here, on last Tuesday evening. Mr. McMullen is an employe in the Short Line round house at O'Neill. He came to spend a portion of his summer vacation with Mr. Crow and family. On Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Crow and Miss Crow, his stepsister, he went to the pontoon bridge on the Niobrara and went in bathing. When coming out he stepped into a hole apparantly about six feet deep. Comng out he called to the ladies to watch him dive, and going back about thirty feet took a run and leaped into what he supposed was deep water, head first. The hole of deep water into which he supposed he was going to dive, it seems, covered but a small area and where he struck was only two feet deep which could not easily be detected as the water of the stream is very murky. He could not arise and the current began taking him down stream rolling him over and over. The ladies seeing that he was hurt ran to his rescue and succeeded in getting him out, but he could not move a limb. Mrs. Crow went to the nearest house, that of Ed Robinson, over a mile away, and got his assistance. He took his team and conveyed the injured man to the residence of Mr. Crow. Below the injury, which is in the neck, the body is paralyzed there being neither sense of feeling or power of motion. The brain is not injured and the man has perfect use of his mind. He is about 30 years of age, of fine physique and weighs about 200 pounds. He has a wife and family. The chances are very much against his recovery. He is under the medical care of Dr. Hunt, of

FROM THE PAGE NEWS. A child of Mr. A. A. Wagers nearly ended its life, Tuesday, by swallowing some aqua amonia. Mrs. Wagers was washing and went over to Mr. Skeltons, just a short distance, after some water and during her absence the child got hold of a bottle that contained aqua amonia and drank some of it. Mrs. Wagers heard the child scream and she ran home to see what the matter was. seeing what it had done, sent for Dr. Skelton who was there a minute after-wards. They gave the child something to make it vomit and the stuff which came from its stomach was thoroughly cooked. It was a very narrow escape. The child is all right at this writing.

Last Saturday evening about dusk, Dr. A. H. Skelton came driving down Main street and all of a sudden one of the poll straps came unbuckled and let buggy tougue down, this frightened his horses and as they were going down hill he could not hold them but he stayed with them untill they struck a knoll near the Eye office which upset the buggy and threw him out striking his head against one of the wheels They telegraphed Dr. Nye of Plainview but on being notified he could not come, D. McGee went up to O'Neill after Dr. Trueblood. He was pretty badly shook up, but had no serious wounds. This might of proved a serious accident and we are glad the doctor is able to be around again.

While at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoa. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old time remedies, such as Blackberry wine, Paregoric and Landnum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remeby by Mr. R. C.
