

THE FRONTIER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY THE FRONTIER PRINTING CO.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA.

STATE NEWS.

NEBRASKA MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

Colfax's county fair was a great success. ... stings is enjoying a great commercial revival. ... Fullerton has organized a creamery association. ... Wahoo schools opened with an enrollment of 500. ... Seward's cob pipe factory is running on full time. ... Frost touched the corn in the low lands of York county. ... The State University opened last week for the fall term. ... The outlook is for a greatly increased attendance at the State University. ... In every section of the state Turkey red wheat for fall sowing is in great demand. ... A North Platte citizen was fined $10 for maliciously killing a neighbor's horse. ... Gage county prohibitionists met last week and placed a legislative ticket in the field. ... Abscesses caused by the pulling of teeth resulted in the death of Sadie Maupin at Broken Bow. ... Prairie chickens are plentiful in Lincoln county this fall and sportsmen are making the most of it. ... Phelps county is enjoying a stupendous real estate boom. Land is changing hands every day at big prices. ... Two Thurston county Indians, Pros Armell and Ed Priest, have been taken to a Blair gold cure institute for treatment. ... A North Platte journal says that females in that town are masquerading in male attire while learning to ride a male. ... Emmanuel Fiat, on trial at Hastings on the charge of aiding in the embezzlement of county funds was found not guilty. ... Mr. Covey, near Curtis, was fixing machinery with his pocket knife when it slipped from his hand and put out one of his eyes. ... Arthur Duval, a 12-year-old David City boy, was discovered in the act of burglarizing a grocery store and was sentenced to the reform school. ... The Norfolk Sugar Beet company is now preparing to ship the beets from Platte Center, about 300 cars, which will require a great many laborers. ... The corner stone of the new Swedish Lutheran church at Oakland was put in place last Sunday, according to the established customs of the church. ... At the commencement of the fall term of the Wayne public school 340 pupils were enrolled, all rooms both the high school and one of the primary rooms being crowded. ... Just after eating a hearty dinner the other day, Mrs. William Hudson of Omaha, had an apoplectic stroke and fell over dead. She had previously been in good health. ... The Wayne Journal says: Last week Frank Northrop received a peck of peaches from friends in Kansas. Cost of peaches there about 10 cents; express to Wayne $1.75. ... Wild cats killed chickens for Leo De Book of Harrison, and his daughter Rosa took a gun and went after them. She shot one and killed another with sticks and stones. ... Justin McCarty of Deloit, Holt county, has 200 acres of corn that bids fair to yield sixty-five bushels per acre. Thirteen thousand bushels at 25 cents per bushel, $3,250, is farming at a profit and no mistake. ... T. B. Kall of Norfolk has invented a steam engine of novel construction, in which the piston head and piston rod are dispensed with, the pressure being exerted on a diaphragm the full size of the cylinder. ... The cornerstone of the new Catholic church in Crete was laid last week with the usual services observed on such occasions. Very Rev. Emanuel Lincoln conducted the services, assisted by a number of visiting priests. ... Some roughs attacked a couple of Italians at Gretna and beat them terribly with stones, fracturing the skull of one and knocking his eye out. The assailants were captured by the sheriff and landed in jail. The wounded man is still alive. ... The child recently born to Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Wenrick says the Newman Grove area, is well blessed with aged ancestors. He has now living two grandfathers, two great grandmothers, one great grandfather and one great great grandmother. ... The Eagle at Weeping Water says: Abraham Lackey dug his potatoes the other day and the result was not very encouraging. He only succeeded in getting a milk pan full out of two acres. According to this kind of yield potatoes will be a rare luxury this winter. ... Isaac Montgomery, a colored gardener employed in the north end of Omaha, shot and instantly killed William Griffin last week. Griffin was in the act of breaking into Montgomery's stable, for the purpose of theft, it is supposed. The murderer gave himself up. ... The Daily-Deeds barnstorming theatrical combination, billed for Minden during fair week, went, up the flume. The landlord of the Jensen has the baggage, the manager has the cash box, the soubrette and supers have the experience, and the whole outfit has to find the manager, if they can.

Benkelman is asked to donate $2,000 to secure a flouring mill. ... A 16-year-old boy named Percy Ewing was severely injured at Hastings jumping from a moving train and being caught by the engine of a train going in an opposite direction. He was dragged along the track for some distance, cutting a long gash in his left leg and being otherwise mutilated. His injuries are severe and may prove fatal. ... The North Platte Era says R. C. McKinney, son of the governor of Virginia, is a member of the geological surveying corps and will be located in that neighborhood several weeks making experimental surveys with a view of determining whether or not irrigation by the means of artesian wells could be made practicable for west Nebraska. ... Farmer Cadwalladar, who is in the employ of P. C. Fields, a liveryman of Ponca, while hitching up a team of horses just in front of the latter's stables, was struck and badly mangled by a runaway team which was passing. A number of ribs were disconnected from the spinal column and physicians report him in a very critical condition. ... Sam Gramlich of Papillion was seriously injured by a horse. At the noon hour he unhitched his three-horse team, mounted one of the animals and started for the house. The animal which he was riding had a very tender mouth, and when he gave the check rein a sudden pull, the horse reared and fell back upon the rider, crushing him so badly as to render him unconscious. ... John McAleer, the local agent of the Omaha Elevator company at Brainard, who was arrested in Omaha for embezzlement, had his preliminary examination at David City. Various witnesses were examined and he was bound over for trial at the district court in the sum of $1,000. Not being able to furnish bond, he was committed to the county jail. ... The criminal division of the Lancaster county court will have a fair start of business when it opens up in a few days. There are twenty cases on the docket, among which are the Irvine and that of the negro, Gravelly, for murder. The first named is set for October 3, and the second for October 10. There are three cases against Christian science healers for practicing medicine without a license. ... A man named Leonard was badly cut about the face and neck near Gibbon last week. He was sitting in the cupole of the caboose on freight train No. 28 when it broke in two about a mile west of town, and in coming together again he was thrown through the window. An artery on the right side of the neck was cut and a large gash on the right cheek was also made by the window glass. ... A. M. Swartzendruber, doing business in Columbus the past two years as the manager of the Western Exchange company, left the other day, ostensibly for St. Louis and Chicago. Soon after the Nebraska Loan & Trust company of Hastings, Neb., got on his trail with a warrant for forgery and other crimes committed. Young Swartzendruber is well connected in Columbus and his fall is a surprise to citizens of the city. ... At a meeting held in Lincoln last week the state board of educational lands and funds, which is composed of the governor, the secretary of state, attorney general and the commissioner of public lands and buildings, adopted the following: That all leases and contracts of sale of school, university, normal school and agricultural college lands that were delinquent January 1, 1892, which remain due and unpaid, are hereby declared cancelled. The land embraced in the cancelled contracts will be advertised in the county papers of the counties where situated, before being put on the market. ... A brakeman on the St. Joe & Grand Island road came near meeting his death on the freight going north from York. He was a new man and did not know about the B. & M. bridge, under which the train passed. As the train bulled out of the yards he started back towards the way car, unaware that the bridge was too low for him to stand upon the cars. He was not missed until the train reached Benedict, when a search revealed him lying unconscious upon the top of the car where he had been knocked by contact with the bridge timbers. He was seriously injured, but will recover. ... Joseph S. Gelding filed a petition in district court that demands $20,000 damages from the B. & M. Railway company. He states that he was an employe of the road at Plattsmouth, supporting his wife and two children by his earnings. He further says that on December 23, 1891 while performing the regular duties of his position by moving with an engine and car attached through the Plattsmouth yards, by reason of insecure fastenings of heavy lumber on the car and because of faulty roadbed, the lumber fell off the car and struck the plaintiff. For the injuries then and there received he wants recompense as above. ... The Union Pacific railroad, after delaying the matter for over a quarter of a century, is now taking out deeds for its right of way through the school lands of the state. The company pays the regular appraised value for the lands occupied by its right of way and deeds are being taken out for lands in fifty counties. Last February the commissioner of public lands and buildings sent out 30,000 forfeiture notices to delinquent renters of school lands. Since that time nine out of every ten delinquents have settled up their accounts. It is the policy of the commissioner to work no unnecessary hardship to actual farmers, but delinquents who are suspected of holding to their lands for mere speculative purposes are made to feel the full weight of the law.

ST. LOUIS CARNIVAL.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT OF THE CROWDS.

The Exposition Holding a Uniquely Successful Ninth Consecutive Season-Traveling Men to Convene October 1.

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—The attendance in St. Louis to-day is remarkably large, the immense number of people having come in from all directions to witness the fifth of the series of twelve grand illuminations which are making the city famous this fall throughout the entire continent. ... The carnival is now at its height and the Exposition is proving a wonderful success, the attendance during the first week showing an increase of over 25 per cent. ... The day promises to be one of the most interesting of the entire forty days of the festivities, and during the afternoon the Veiled Prophet will arrive in the city by boat. ... The Veiled Prophet's parade and ball will take place on Tuesday, October 4, on the evening of which day there will be a grand street illumination with all the electrical panoramas in full work. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival. ... The Veiled Prophet's parade and ball will take place on Tuesday, October 4, on the evening of which day there will be a grand street illumination with all the electrical panoramas in full work. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival. ... The Veiled Prophet's parade and ball will take place on Tuesday, October 4, on the evening of which day there will be a grand street illumination with all the electrical panoramas in full work. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Protective Association will take charge of the program. Special trains will be run from Chicago, Terre Haute, Peoria, Kansas City, Memphis and other points, and a number of the visiting delegations will be accompanied by strong local bands. ... The day promises to be one of the most interesting of the entire forty days of the festivities, and during the afternoon the Veiled Prophet will arrive in the city by boat. ... The Veiled Prophet's parade and ball will take place on Tuesday, October 4, on the evening of which day there will be a grand street illumination with all the electrical panoramas in full work. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival. ... The Veiled Prophet's parade and ball will take place on Tuesday, October 4, on the evening of which day there will be a grand street illumination with all the electrical panoramas in full work. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

REWARD FOR TRAIN ROBBERS. Scores of Men Start for the Mountains to Avenge the Blain Detectives. ... SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 16.—The $10,000 reward for Train Robbers Evans and Sontag has been doubled and the Governor was asked to declare them outlaws. ... The coroner of Fresno county held an inquest over the bodies of Wilson and McGinness. Two hundred pieces of shot were found in Wilson's body and half that number in the corpse of the other detective. ... Working on the Hennepin Canal. DAVENPORT, Ia., Sept. 14.—Last Friday the first preparatory stone work for the guard lock of the Hennepin canal was done, and to-day the foundation being finished the cornerstone of the first concrete monolith of that lock, three miles above the mouth, was laid. ... The Union Pacific railroad, after delaying the matter for over a quarter of a century, is now taking out deeds for its right of way through the school lands of the state. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

NEARING THE GRAVE.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF THE WIFE OF THE PRESIDENT.

Her Condition Extremely Critical—A Complication of Diseases that Defy Medical Skill. ... LOON LAKE HOUSE, N. Y. Sept. 15.—Mrs. Gardner of Washington, D. C., wife of the President, is reported to be in a very serious condition. ... The primary disease is pulmonary tuberculosis of the right side, associated with nervous prostration. ... The president's stay here is indefinite. ... It is therefore apparent that the president's stay here is indefinite. ... The physicians, it is said, have quietly intimated to the president that there is a strong probability of a fatal result. ... The president rarely leaves Mrs. Harrison's bedside. ... Mrs. Harrison has endeavored herself to the people of Washington through her many lovable traits, so that they are more than ordinarily interested in her welfare. ... The best that can be said of Mrs. Harrison's condition at this hour is that it is no worse than it was this morning when the bulletin was issued. ... Mrs. Harrison's vitality is at a very low ebb and cannot successfully resist further inroads. ... She has been confined to her bed since last Wednesday, and has gradually declined in strength. ... The operations, however, afford only temporary relief. ... Mrs. Harrison has stood them both very well, and this has been one of the few favorable features of the case during the past week.

WASHINGTON IN GOOD CONDITION.

No Fear of Cholera During the Grand Army Encampment. ... WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The fact that Washington will have within its borders next week more than 100,000 strangers from all parts of the country has caused some fear that the cholera gets into Washington from New York. ... The Treasury department is seriously considering the question of imposing restrictions upon railroad traffic into Washington by way of New York city should there be any further cases of cholera reported in Gotham. ... The authorities appreciate the danger that if by any lack of caution on their part a case of cholera should be introduced here during the encampment it might perhaps be widely distributed from this city to other parts of the United States. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Veterans Neglect the Society Meeting to Visit the Battlefield. ... CHICKAMAUGA, Tenn., Sept. 17.—The reunion of the Army of the Cumberland commenced yesterday at 10 o'clock. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Western Irrigation Report.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The census bureau has issued a bulletin upon the general subject of irrigation in the Western States. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Deaf Soldiers Will Attend.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 17.—The silent army of deaf soldiers and sailors will hold their second reunion at Washington next week during the G. A. R. national encampment. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Latest Returns from Vermont.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 17.—Returns of the recent election have now been received from the entire State. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Indians Receive $200,000 Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Acting Secretary Chandler has ordered the payment of $200,000 authorized by Congress as an indemnity to the Sioux Indians for 5,000 ponies taken by the government some years ago during one of the Indian outbreaks in the Northwest. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Plum for a Chicago Man.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Charles H. Cowan of Chicago has been appointed Consul at Manila, Philippine Islands. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

NEARING THE GRAVE.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF THE WIFE OF THE PRESIDENT.

Her Condition Extremely Critical—A Complication of Diseases that Defy Medical Skill.

LOON LAKE HOUSE, N. Y. Sept. 15.—Mrs. Gardner of Washington, D. C., wife of the President, is reported to be in a very serious condition. ... The primary disease is pulmonary tuberculosis of the right side, associated with nervous prostration. ... The president's stay here is indefinite. ... It is therefore apparent that the president's stay here is indefinite. ... The physicians, it is said, have quietly intimated to the president that there is a strong probability of a fatal result. ... The president rarely leaves Mrs. Harrison's bedside. ... Mrs. Harrison has endeavored herself to the people of Washington through her many lovable traits, so that they are more than ordinarily interested in her welfare. ... The best that can be said of Mrs. Harrison's condition at this hour is that it is no worse than it was this morning when the bulletin was issued. ... Mrs. Harrison's vitality is at a very low ebb and cannot successfully resist further inroads. ... She has been confined to her bed since last Wednesday, and has gradually declined in strength. ... The operations, however, afford only temporary relief. ... Mrs. Harrison has stood them both very well, and this has been one of the few favorable features of the case during the past week.

WASHINGTON IN GOOD CONDITION.

No Fear of Cholera During the Grand Army Encampment. ... WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The fact that Washington will have within its borders next week more than 100,000 strangers from all parts of the country has caused some fear that the cholera gets into Washington from New York. ... The Treasury department is seriously considering the question of imposing restrictions upon railroad traffic into Washington by way of New York city should there be any further cases of cholera reported in Gotham. ... The authorities appreciate the danger that if by any lack of caution on their part a case of cholera should be introduced here during the encampment it might perhaps be widely distributed from this city to other parts of the United States. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Veterans Neglect the Society Meeting to Visit the Battlefield. ... CHICKAMAUGA, Tenn., Sept. 17.—The reunion of the Army of the Cumberland commenced yesterday at 10 o'clock. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Western Irrigation Report.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The census bureau has issued a bulletin upon the general subject of irrigation in the Western States. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Deaf Soldiers Will Attend.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 17.—The silent army of deaf soldiers and sailors will hold their second reunion at Washington next week during the G. A. R. national encampment. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Latest Returns from Vermont.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 17.—Returns of the recent election have now been received from the entire State. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Indians Receive $200,000 Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Acting Secretary Chandler has ordered the payment of $200,000 authorized by Congress as an indemnity to the Sioux Indians for 5,000 ponies taken by the government some years ago during one of the Indian outbreaks in the Northwest. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

Plum for a Chicago Man.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Charles H. Cowan of Chicago has been appointed Consul at Manila, Philippine Islands. ... The day promises to be the most successful and brilliant of the carnival.

the attending physician. ... latter informed him that there was nothing in Mrs. Harrison's condition that necessitated any delay in his return to his professional duties. ... of course, if he could spare the time the family would approve of his going from him. ... The doctors then drove to the president's cottage and made an examination. ... Mrs. Harrison. Dr. Dougherty agreed entirely with Dr. Gardner's diagnosis of the case, and subsequently informed the family that he saw no appreciable difference in Mrs. Harrison's condition since his former observation. ... There was no further accumulation of fluid on the chest, and the quantity there was not sufficient to require withdrawal. ... The names of those who died from the cholera were. ... CHARLES M'AVOY, died September 6, address not known. ... MRS. SOPHIA WIGMAN, died September 10, at 768 Eleventh avenue. ... WILLIAM WIGMAN, husband of Sophia Wigman, died at the same address the following day. ... MINNIE TEVINGER, child, September 11, at 411 East Forty-sixth street. ... CHARLOTTA BECK, 30 years old, died yesterday forenoon at 1764 Second avenue. ... All these cases were originally reported to the health authorities as suspected cholera and have been under investigation by the physicians connected with the department. ... Other cases are expected to develop.

How did the cholera get in?

The health officer's faces were puzzled expressions when asked to solve the problem. ... The houses of the dead are under quarantine in the sense of being shut up, or of its tenants being prohibited to go and come when and where they please. ... The medical sentiment never loses sight for many hours at a time of his charges. ... The Italian has proved to be Romeo Dorrera, and is a laborer. ... NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.—The city is in a flurry of excitement over what seems to be a case of cholera. ... Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning, John Henry, a janitor of the Sheldon avenue school, found an Italian writhing in terrible agony in a field on the outskirts of the city. ... The Italian has proved to be Romeo Dorrera, and is a laborer. ... NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.—The city is in a flurry of excitement over what seems to be a case of cholera. ... Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning, John Henry, a janitor of the Sheldon avenue school, found an Italian writhing in terrible agony in a field on the outskirts of the city. ... The Italian has proved to be Romeo Dorrera, and is a laborer. ... NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.—The city is in a flurry of excitement over what seems to be a case of cholera. ... Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning, John Henry, a janitor of the Sheldon avenue school, found an Italian writhing in terrible agony in a field on the outskirts of the city. ... The Italian has proved to be Romeo Dorrera, and is a laborer.

LIVE STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

Table with multiple columns listing market prices for various commodities such as Butter, Eggs, Hogs, Cattle, Sheep, and Wheat across different locations like New York, Chicago, and St. Louis.