A popular Illustrated Home And Woman's Publication Offered FREE To Our Subscribers

THE FRONTIER has perfected arrangements by which we offer free to our readers a year's subscription to Womankind, the popular illustrated monthly journel published at Springfield, Ohio. We will give a year's subscription to Womankind to each of our readers paying a year's subscription to THE FRON-TIER in advance, and to all new subscribers paying in advance. Womankind will find a joyous welcome in every home. It is bright, sparkling and interesting. Its household hints and suggestions are invaluable, and it also contains a large amount of news about women in general. Its fashion department is complete and profusely illustrated, it has a bright and entertaining corrs of contributors, and the paper is edited with care and ability. Its child-ren's department makes Womankiad a favorite with the young, and in fact it contains much which will interest every member of every household in its sixteen large, handsomely illustrated pages. Do not delay in accepting this offer. It will

Cost You Nothing

to get a full year's subscription to Womankind.

Nothing Else Like It.

When the publishers decided to issue the Journal twice a week at the same price of the old weeklics, $1 per year, they struck just what the public wanted -something between the old-fashioned weekly and the high-priced daily. The success of Semi-Weekly Journal has been immediate and continued. It has distanced every one of its once-a-week rivals. It doesn't take long to convince people that a good live paper every Tuesday and Friday is better than only one a week, especially when you appeal to their pocket books, and give it to them at the same price. Readers will testify that it is almost as good as a daily. Its markets twice a week are worth the money. Four complete nov-els each year by "The Duchess," Miss Braddon and other well known authors, alone are worth the dollar. Its legislative news is its strong point just now. It is wide-awake, spends money for news, and is always in the lead. You can see its superiority over the old-fash ioned weekly, Every-one who subscribes now gets a Seaside library free. actibes now gets a Seaside library free. This offer won't hold good always. One of our big offers is the Semi-Weekly Journal and Weekly New York Tribune, both one year for $1.35. Regular price of Tribune $1. Our great premium, History of the United States, Stanley Book of the Source premid and SHERIFFS SALE.

Mr. Howells' Future Plans.

While Mr. Howells will not, during 1898, confine his literary work to any single periodical, it may be authorita-tively announced that he has entered into a contract with the Ladies' Home Journal whereby his most important work will, for some time to come, first see print in the pages of that magazine. His new novel, "The Coast of Bohemia," begins in the Christmas issue of the Journal, and immediately upon its close Mr. Howells will begin in the magazine a series of editorial autobiographical papers, in which he will trace the influences which led him to a literary life, his course of reading and his favorite authors and books. The articles will practically tell the story of the famous novelist's life, and promises to possess in a rare degree that attract-ive interest which always attaches itself to the life of a successful man when told by himself. Howells had his early struggles; his early resources were few, and these he will trace among other things in these articles, describing, too, how he mastered four different ian-guages to acquaint himself with the literature of the countries most attractive to him.
