We this day sold to Mr. A. J. Hammond of this city our abstract business. He will continue the same under the firm name of "The A. J. Hammond Abstract Company."

Mr. Hammond has had years of experience and has had the entire charge of of our abstract business since June 1890, and it is with pleasure that we recomend our successors to you. You will find them prompt, reliable and obliging. During the time we have been in the abstract business we have had occasion to examine many abstracts made throughout this state and we do not hesitate to say that as an abstractor Mr. Hammond is without an equal, and anyone having work done by him may rest assured that the same will be absolutely correct in all respects. Thanking you for past favors, we remain.

Yours truly. R. R. Dickson & Co. Dated at O'Neill, Neb., March 4, 1893.

Epworth League State Convention.

The executive committee of the No braska State Epworth League met in the Y. M. C. A. building, Lincoln, on the 31st inst., the following members being present: G. W. Berge, Lincoln, president State League; John M. Hazelton, Omaha, first-vice president; Miss Anna Randall, Fairfield, recording secretary; Rev. F. W. Bross, Omaha and Rev. L. T. Guild, Crete, directors.

Among other important matters attended to were the arrangements for the next state convention of the Nebraska leagues. The convention is to be held in Omaha, and the dates decided upon are June 1, 2, 3 and 4.

A program of unusual excellence is in preparation. The committee are assured of the presence of Rev. Edwin A. Schell of Chicago, general secretary of the national league, and other eminent divines, including Bishop Warren, are expected. The committee have been assured by the Omaha leaguers that all delegates who shall attend the convention will be royally entertained.

Reduced rates will be secured on all railroads in Nebraska, and, judging by the interest already manifested in the matter throughout the state, the attendance will be large.
