How sad it is, yet 'twas ever thus, Since first the world begun, That when man strikes the age sense He's far to old for fun.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Io. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic. Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. C. Corrigan, druggist.

"Why, the fellow kept asking me, his host, if my witticisms were original. What does that show?" "It shows he is a men who has read very little."

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonath Kenison, of Bolan, Io., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. The boy was over in my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me. He got a bottle and it cured them up in a week."

ONE OF MR. RILEY'S STORIES An Anecdote by the Hoosier Poet to

The Hoosier poet Riley, has a new story regarding the influence of music. He said recently to a reporter in his genial manner: "Strange what an in-fluence music has upon a man. Especially the kind that steals upon his ear in accents sweet and low. Now, there's Bill Peasley, for instance. He wasn't much of a singer, yet he caused quite a disturbance by singing an old gospel hymn. Right across from my house is a grocery store. One day last July a man placed a ladder against the grocery store and tried to put up a sign nearly twenty feet long over the window. There was an element of intense interest in this proceeding to thirty men who gathered around the ladder and watched the man as he stood upon his precarious perch. Pretty soon Bill Peasley came along. He joined the group, putting his hands behind his back in a lazy manner, and began Peasley came along. He joined the group, putting his hands behind his back in a lazy manner, and began softly whistling the 'Sweet By and By.' The air was so soft and persuasive that the man next to Bill took it up and began whistling tenor. Then another joined in and still another until the whole group were whistling. By this time the man on the ladder had become interested. He began to pucker, but no sound came from his lips. His attention was so taken up by the sign that he couldn't form his lips aright. It is a difficult job to whistle and put up a sign at the same time. He had been struggling with the sign and tune for several minutes, and was standing on one foot on the ladder trying to hang one end of the sign on a nail. The situation was further complicated by his effort to come in with his bass whistle at the proper time, when his foot slipped and down he came, with the ladder and sign over him. That was the effect of one of the sweetest hymns in modern music."

FEARED HIS WIFE THE MOST. The Juror Knew His Spouse and Therefore Disobeyed the Court.

On one occasion Judge Andrew Ellison was trying an important case at . Macon City and desired to rush it through in order to make way for another case coming up next morning. The court instructed the jury and court officials to return after supper that night, as it was intended to hold a night session. At 7 o'clock all the officers, numerous witnesses and the jury, with one exception, were promptly on hand. Of course, nothing could be done without the absent juryman. The minutes ran into hours and still the prodigal didn't return. At a late hour court adjourned without having accomplished anything. Next morning sharp at 9 o'clock the twelve jurymen were in the box. His honor scanned the crowd and asked for the truant. He was pointed out and the court ordered him to stand up.

-," said the judge, addressing the derelict, "didn't you understand the order of the court last night requiring the jury to be on hand after supper?"

"Yes, your honor," said the juryman, explaining, "but you see I live quite a ways out of town and my wife gave me an order prior to the court's order, and her order was that I shouldn't stay in town over night. I considered the matter and concluded was safer to risk your honor's dis- THE pleasure than her'n, because," he added earnestly, "I know her!"

The court looked solemn a moment, as if weighing some mighty problem, then a smile started across his face. and the bar, court officers and spec-tators, broke out in tumultuous laughter. The juryman was forgiven; there were many there who could, perhaps, appreciate his position.

NOT THE BEST.

The Old Man Stuck to the Colors Eve in the Face of Beauty.

The adage concerning the folly of disputing about questions of personal taste is well supported by an anecdote related by Colonel T. A. Dodge. He

"Many years ago, in Richmond, white I was standing with a friend in his doorway, while he gave some instructions to a colored servant, there happened to pass one of the beauties of the city. We both took off our hats, courtesy in our attitudes, admiration in our hearts.

'Isn't she a beauty?' said I. " 'Isn't she a beauty?' he echoed.

"'Just isn't she, Uncle Ned?' he added, turning to the old servant. " 'Miss Ellen's a mighty fine leddy, responded Uncle Ned in a deferential, but somewhat hesitating tone. "'Why, what do you mean, Uncle Ned?' insisted my friend, rather nettled and curious withal at the old darky's manner.

"Well, Mars' Tom, said the ole man, 'to tell de hones' truf, we niggers doan' tink de white leddies is so handsome as de brack ones.'."

Salt in the United States.

There were 11,435,487 barrels of salt produced in the United States in the in 1892—a falling off of 350,267 barrels. Each barrel weighed 280 pounds, making a total of 3,201,936,360 pounds. In addition to this there were importations of 391,966,537 pounds, so that this country counteracted the effects of the enormous quantities of sugar used by making way with 3,583,902,-897 pounds or about 1,706,951 tons of salt.

INTER OCEAN

Is the most popular Republican Newspaper of the west and has the largest circulation. Terms by mail: Daily (without Sunday) 25 per year; daily (with Sunday) 28 per year; semi-weekly, 22 per year; weekly, 31 per year. As a newspaper the Inter Ocean keeps abreast of the times in all respects. It spares neither pains nor expense in securing all the news and the best of current literature.

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN

Is edited especially for those who, on account of mail service or any other reason, do not take a daily paper. In its columns are to be found the week's news of all the world condensed and the cream of the literary features of the daily. As a family paper it excels all western journals. It consists of eight pages with a supplement, illustrated, in colors, of eight additional pages, making in all sixteen pages. This supplement, containing six pages of reading matter and two full page illustrations, is alone worth the price of paper.

THE INTER OCEAN

Is published in Chicago, the news and commercial center of all west of the Allegheny mountains and is cetter adapted to the needs of the people of that section than any paper farther east. It is naccord with the people of the west both in politics and Literature.
