Chicago Girl—Under the circumstances, what would you do if you were in my shoes? St. Louis Girl—Get lost.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr of 1235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate.

NOT AS THEY ARE SPELLED.

Some Names That Are Queerly Pronounced by the English People. The absurd and sometimes extraordinary difference between the spelling and pronunciation of English names has been often commented upon.

Woodnesborough; Winsbro; Woodmanocote, Woodmucket; Wymondham, Windam; Yaddletrophe; Yalthrop; Gainsborough, Gainsber; Glencoin, Lenkerrin; Grassinton, Girstun; Haddiscoe, Hadsker; Gunthwaite, Gunt; Eskdale; Ashdale; Brampton Biarn. Brawn; Brightelmstone, Bartun; Hallahon, Horn; Meddlethrophe, Threlthrop; Marylebone, Marrowbone; Ulrome, Ooram; Uttoxeater, Taxiter; Rampsham, Ransom; Pevensey, Pinsky; Coxwold, Cookwood; Grosstight, Corsit; Holdsworth, Holder; Skiddaw is Skiddy; Kirkcudbright, Kircobry; Ilkley, Ethla; Hawarden, Har'd'n; Alford, Artfold.

Strachan should be pronounced Strawn; Colquhoun is Koohoon, the accent being on the last syllable; Beauchamp is Beacham; Bethune should be pronounced Beeton, and in Abergavenny the 'ar' is not sounded. Menzies is pronounced Mynges, Knollys as Knowls, Sandys as Sands, Gower as Gorr, and Milnes as Mills. Dalziel should be pronounced "Deal," with the accent on the first syllable. Glamis is Glarms; Geoghegan should be pronounced Gaygan, and Rathven is Riven.

QUITE A FAD. The Appendicitis Habit the Latest in Surgery. "Somebody in authority," said a woman one day last week, "will have to interfere with this growing notion that an operation for the removal of the vermiform appendix is desirable in all cases."

"Physicians recognize what is known as the 'appendicitis habit,' that is, some persons have slight attacks after eating, the effect soon passing away, however. Such persons are liable constantly to the danger that these slight attacks will take on a more serious form, making the surgeon's knife a necessity, and it is probably safer that these persons should submit to an operation for the removal of the cause of the trouble, while free from inflammation and pain. It will be wise for persons not so disposed to weigh the matter well under most conservative opinion before acting."

A BIG SEWER. Philadelphia Proposes to Erect $1,500,000 Conduit Upon Piles. "Philadelphia is going to give the world an excellent object lesson in sewer building," said Francis Heslop, of Pittsburg, a reporter. "They are building a large sewer on piles, and if they succeed in their undertaking, which is to cost $1,500,000, they will have done a great deal toward solving a very difficult problem. This new sewer runs along the bed of the Aramingo canal, which is too soft to hold the great weight. To get over this difficulty piles of yellow pine twelve inches square are to be driven down to rock bottom about three feet apart. At the top of them a heavy plank floor will be placed, and on this a nine-foot sewer will be built."

"The undertaking has been discussed by engineers throughout the state, and opinions differ very much as to the result of the undertaking, which in several features appears to be daring in the extreme. In this age of engineering advancement it is absurd to say anything is impossible, and the men in charge of this singular work are likely to be able to convince the world that after all there is something new under the sun."

Like Father, Like Son. Colonel Breckinridge has two sons—one a lawyer, the other named for his grandfather, Robert J. Breckinridge, is of a wild disposition. Just before the breaking out of the Breckinridge-Pollard scandal, Bob got on a spree and had several fights. Colonel Breckinridge telegraphed from Washington to put him in jail and keep him there until he returned, which instructions were followed. It was decided to send Bob on a sea voyage, and just as he was boarding a vessel, he read an account of his father's doings with Miss Pollard, and wired his brother: "Put the old man in jail, and keep him until I return, three years hence."

Never Mention His Proper Name. The emperor of China's proper name is never mentioned; to pronounce it is a criminal offense. On ascending the throne the ruler of the 'Middle Kingdom' takes a name by which he becomes known to his people and to history. The present emperor's real, or personal name is Esai-tien; but, on being placed on the throne in 1875, he was given the title of Kuang Hsu, which in English signifies "illustrious succession."

Literal Obedience to Orders. A mistress told her maid Betje that she must not always do things on her own responsibility, but first ask permission. The next day Betje walked into the parlor and said politely: "Metrouw, the cat is busy eating up the duck. Must I send her away or not?"

In Agony

15 Years With Salt Rheum. Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave a Perfect Cure.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Hood's Sarsaparilla is an excellent medicine. I had eczema in my left leg for fifteen years. Part of the time my leg was one mass of scabs, and about every week corruption would gather under the skin and the scabs would slough off.'"

The Itching and Burning sensation made me suffer indescribable agonies. I spent a great deal of money for different remedies but did not get relief. About a year ago, leading physicians advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and have taken five bottles. Now all the sores, scabs and pain have vanished and I am enjoying perfect health. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is second to none and gladly recommend it to all suffering humanity."

THE REVIEW-REVIEWS

is the one magazine which the world has agreed is INDISPENSABLE. It will be more brilliant than ever during 1894.

The readers of THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS say that it would keep them well informed if it were the only literature printed.

It is especially valuable to clergymen, professional men, farmers, and to all those who can take but one monthly.

FAMOUS PEOPLE AND GREAT JOURNALS HAVE GIVEN IT THE MOST UNQUALIFIED ENDORSEMENTS EVER RECEIVED BY A PUBLICATION:

James Bryce, M.P. Author of 'The American Commonwealth.' 'It is just what we have wanted.'

Miss Frances Willard. 'This magazine has the brightest outlook window in Christendom for busy people who want to see what is going on in the great world.'

Cardinal Gibbons. 'To the busy world who have not leisure to peruse the current monthlies, THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS will be especially welcome, as it will serve as a mirror, reflecting the contemporary thought of Great Britain and America.'

New York World. 'The Review of Reviews is admirable.' Boston Globe. 'To read a number is to resolve to never miss one.'

Chicago Tribune. 'That useful and always interesting periodical, THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS.' Atlanta Constitution. 'Gives as clear an idea of the history of the month as could be obtained from volumes elsewhere.'

Springfield Union. 'The Review of Reviews is the best publication of the kind extant, and no busy man can afford to miss its monthly visits.'

To the best agents we can offer extraordinarily liberal terms, which make THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS without a peer from the canvasser's point of view.
