

More Short Line Litigation.

The following New York special to the Sioux City Journal of the 12th inst. indicates new grief for the Short Line securities:

Suit was begun in the United States circuit court this morning on behalf of Gordon R. Badgrow and Charles Bruen, of Sioux City, Iowa, against the Manhattan Trust company, of this city, and Amos T. French, as an individual and as an executor of the will of his father, Francis O. French, to recover $500,000.

It is alleged that this sum was fraudulently hypothecated. Messrs. Donald McLean, Edward R. Gedney and George Blanchard are also concerned with the defendants in the action.

This suit, with the accompanying charges of fraud, dishonesty and conspiracy to defraud, grows out of the project partially executed by the defendants to build a railroad to be called the Pacific Short Line, from Covington, Neb., on the Missouri river, opposite Sioux City, Io., to Salt Lake, a distance of 900 miles.

The plaintiff's say they were among the fifty persons who subscribed and paid $704,707.85 to build the first section. The Manhattan Trust company was financial agent for the improvement and railway companies, all stock issued was delivered to the trust company and the voting power was controlled by Francis O. French. It is alleged that in 1890, with the connivance of French, all of the bonds issued or to be issued to the improvement company by the Nebraska and Western railway company were hypothecated with the Manhattan Trust company to secure a loan to the improvement company of $1,000,000.

The plaintiffs ask the court to decree that the first mortgage bonds of the railway company issued on account of the construction of the first section were subject to a lien on behalf of the subscribers, and that these contributors become owners as equitable assignees.

A Great Big Cut. Owing to the hard times nearly every commodity has been lessened in price. The Nebraska State Journal, which has forged to the front as the best paper in the state, realizes that the public is entitled to cheaper state papers, and therefore reduces its price from $10 to $7.50 per year, including the Sunday issue, or $6 per year for six days in the week. There will be no reduction in quality but the increased circulation, even at the lower price, will permit of larger expenditures for telegraphic news, etc. The Journal is for Nebraska first, last and all the time, and every effort is put forth to build up state interests. Published at the state capitol it is of particular interest to Nebraskans. NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL, Lincoln, Neb.
