Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Franciso. suffered from a dreadful cold, approach ing Consumption, triep without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wouderful efficay of this medicine in LEFT IT TO THE DOG.

A Quick-Witted Nowaboy's Way of Send-ing Home a Lost Child.

There was a crowd on Fourth av enue, New York, the other day. It was gathered about a little girl and a dog. There were a couple of policemen, a half-dozen women and a dozen men. The little girl was lost. The policemen knew it, the women knew it, the crowd knew it, and the little girl herself knew it. Now the problem everyone was trying to solve was where the little girl belonged. Neither the policemen, the women, the crowd nor the little girl knew. "Where do you live?" asked a policeman. The little girl looked up in a frightened way and shook her head. "Poor little dear-where does your mother live?" asked one of the wo-men, thinking to get at the problem in a round-about way. Still the little girl shook her head. Finally a newsboy appeared on the scene. He eyed the assemblage contemptuously.

"Here," he said to the dog, "go home, sir." Off started the dog, the little girl hanging on to his shaggy coat and the crowd following behind. Down Fourth avenue a few blocks, around the corner straight into the arms of an anxious woman who looked half frightened to death, and who took the little girl in her arms and hugged and kissed her. The dog went quietly into the house, the newsboy disappeared, the policemen and crowd went away, and it was all over.

TOO ARTISTIC TO HAGGLE. Worth's Haughty Reply to a Patron Who

Questioned His Prices. Every man has his price, though it is, in the case of renowned persons, occasionally high. No one under-stands this better than Worth, the man milliner, as any person who wears his creations can vouch for. A good story is told of how one misguided woman ventured to remonstrate with him because he charged her $600 for a dress, which at first sight seems to ordinary people an expensive gown. "The goods," said the lady, "could be bought for $100, and surely the work of making up would be well paid for with $25 more.

"Madam," replied the outraged tailor, "go to M. Constant, the painter, and say to him: 'Here is a canvass and , colors, value $1. Paint me a picture on that canvass with these paints and I will pay you thirty-three and a third cents.' What would be the answer? 'Madam, this is no payment for an artist.' No, but I say more. If you think my terms are too high keep the dress and pay me nothing. Art does not descend to the pettiness of haggling."

History does not record the lady's reply.

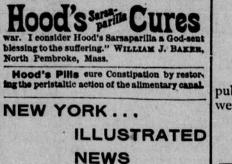

Truth Spoken in Jest.

Baron Ferdinand Rothschild tells an amusing story about the late Lord Hertford. He lived in Paris during the last twenty years of his life, and as he usually went to bed very late, his valet was under the strictest orders not to disturb him in the morning. "You may call me at 8 if there is revolution," was the command, "not otherwise." By this his lordship probably meant that he was not to be troused at all. On the morning of the 24th of February, 1848, however, he was called at 8. "What's wrong?" Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at he grumbled; "is there a revolution?" s. my lord, there plied. This was the fact. It was then that Louis Philippe, the citizen cing, fled from Paris and found refuge n England, where he died.

my back, which was brought about by a celd contracted while in camp at Linnfield in 1862. I have been troubled more or less since that time and have been unable to do any heavy work, much less any lifting. I received only temporary relief from medicines. Last spring I had an attack of the grip, which left me with

A Bad Cough, Very Weak physically, in fact my system was completely run down.
