A very interesting program has been arranged for the closing day of the school term. Many of the high school pupils will deliver essays and recitations. Excellent music has been secured and Prof. Morrow's melodious voice will render that beautiful solo, "Will You Love Me In Vacation?" which is the latest craze in the musical world. Should you fail to be present at this grand literary entertainment and musical you will never cease to regret it.

Hon. Chas. Meals returned to school Friday morning after a protracted absence, having made a tour of the most renowned and interesting portions of the habitable globe, besides exploring many unknown and heretofore unheard of islands in the Indian ocean. Saturday evening as he alighted from his special Pullman car he was meet by Mayor Dickson together with the O'Neill cornet band and a deputation of our most prominent citizens, who escorted him to the Hotel de Evans where the honorable gentleman related the most important episodes of his journey. He is still filled with stories of mad lions, wild bears and untamable potato bugs.

Morrow is evidently anxious to "live on the county" since he persists in managing a school, the patrons of which have deserted his cause to a man. We are now, and always have been, charitably disposed and should he, tiring of his present mode of livlihood, apply to Supervisor Hayes for support from the township we would be the first to help him out; but we rather dislike the manner by which he "scabled" himself into our schools. Of course the board was to blame, but they thought that the hard times would not permit them to employ a real professor.

Last Monday a discussion of the subject, "Resolved, That Universal Sufferage Is Dangers to the Wellbeing of Society," resulted in a complete victory for the negative side, composed of Miss Norval and Chas. Meals, the affirmative being handled by Miss Hawk and Byron Freeland. This is probably the last of a series of very interesting and instructive debates which were introduced into the high school and managed by Miss Carlon.

We understand that Mister Morrow has secured a position in a Chicago museum at 80 cents per week. We con- CHAS. H. ODELL, District Land and Passenger Agent, 106 S. Adams St., Peoria, Ill.

LIKE WEBSTER.

The Colored Barber's Compliment to the Young Congressman.

On his way back from Boston Colonel Hitchcock stopped over a few days in Washington, and while there he heard a good story. It is seldom that the jovial colonel goes anywhere without hearing a good story. This one was one of those old colored barbers so numerous at the capital-exslaves who have been there for years and claim to have scraped the faces of every president and statesman from George Washington's time.

One of these old fellows was annointing the smooth countenance of a newly-fledged congressman with creamy lather which he quietly rubbed into the skin with his slow hand. He was talkative, like all the barbers of his race, and anxious to "jolly" the new arrival, seing in perspective a fresh and regular patron. So he gazed admiringly into the countenance of the budding statesman, grinned approvingly, and said:

"Do you know, sah, you remind me so much of Dan'l Webstah?"

Of course the young congressman was greatly pleased at the compliment and he smiled visibly. He would have straightened up promptly did he not have his head in a barbarous chancery, so to speak.
"Indeed," he said. "Shape of my head, I suppose?"

This staggered the aged colored man somewhat. He had not expected a question in reply, and had merely laid the foundation for his complimentary bluff, never thinking that there would be a call for an explanatory superstructure.

'No, sah," he stammered in reply. "Not yo' head, sah. It's yo' breff.

A Great Big Cut.

Owing to the hard times nearly every commodity has been lessened in price. The Nebraska State Journal, which has forged to the front as the best paper in the state, realizes that the public is entitled to cheaper state papers, and therefore reduces its price from $10 to $7.50 per year, including the Sunday issue, or 86 per year for six days in the week. There will be no reduction in quality but the increased circulation, even at the lower price, will permit of larger expenditures for telegraphic news, etc. The Journal is for Nebraska first, last and all the time, and every effort is put forth to build up state interests. Published at the state capitol it is of particular interest to Nebraskans.
