DASTARDLY OUTRAGE ON AD-JUTANT GENERAL TARSNEY.

CARRIED OFF BY MASKED RUFFIANS.

Called to a Telephone in a Colorade Springs Hotel at Midnight and Seized by Seven Masked Men-Found Twelve Hours Afterward Twenty-Five Miles From the Scene.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., June 25. Adjutant General Tarsney of this state, said to be a broter of Congressman Tarsney of Missouri and ex-Congressman Tarsney of Michigan, was kidnaped from the Alamo hotel a few minutes after midnight this morning by masked men, supposed to be ex-deputy sheriffs, taken to the suburbs in a hack and there tarred and feathered. The outrage was the direct realt of the secent Cripple Creek

When police officers arrived General Tarsney could not be found and up to noon to-day he had not been heard from. About 1 o'clock, however, he was found at Palmer Lake, twenty-five miles away.

General Tarsney had been in the city several days attending the examination of the arrested Bull Hill miners, for whom he and Colonel B. F. Montgomery of Cripple Creek, appeared as attorneys.

OVERPOWERED IN A HOTEL OFFICE. At five minutes past 12 o'clock a call came over the telephone of the Alamo hotel for Tarsney. The clerk sent the night porter, the only other man in the hatel office, to call him. He appeared in a very few minutes and tepped up to the 'phone. He had hardly spoken a word into the receiver, when two men, with masks on their faces, entered and one advanced on Tarsney while the other remained ear the door.

"We want you," said the first masked man, as the general turned on hearing footsteps.

"What do you want?" quietly asked Tarsney. want you to come with us," was the reply.

"But I don't want to go anywhere," returned Tarsney, at the same time At this the masked man lunged for-

At this the masked man lunged for-ward, pistol in hand and struck General Tarsney a vicious blow with the weapon while the masked man near the door advanced to his com-panion's assistance. Tarsney stag-gered toward the office counter, but was ruthlessly seized by the two masked men and harried toward the street. street. The clerk did not interfere.

had been warned to keep his hands off by a third masked man who had suddenly appeared at the door.

In front of the hotel two backs were standing and four other masked men were seen there. The general was hustled into one of the wehicles, the masked men scrambled in, the drivers were ordered to be off, and up the street the party moved at a galop. In fifteen minutes Police Captain Gaithright and Officers Harland and Henry were on horses and riding furiously in the direction taken by officers had a poor trail to follow for it was pitch-dark and they only knew the masked party had gone out of town to the north and they did not arrive on the scene in time.

QUICKLY TARRED AND FEATHERED. The drivers of the two hacks first brought the news to town. It was that the masked men had taken their victim to a point near Austin Bluffs between two and three miles out of town and covered him over with tar Sherman Crumley, one of drivers, told the following story: 'My brother and I own the hacks Shortly before midnight, two men came to our stand and said they wanted to engage two hacks for a drive. They did not wear masks then. They told me to drive in front of the Alamo. I saw the struggle inside the hotel office and knowing that some-thing unusual was up I started to drive away, but was stopped by men with masks on their faces and pistols with masks on their faces and pistols in their hands. After they all got in the hack, I was told where to drive to for the first time. They compelled me to whip the horses. On arriving at a point near Austin Bluffs they all got out. They made an awful lot of noise and kept on swearing and making threats. Several times and making threats. Several times on the way out I heard them threaten Tarsney's life. I think they had Tarsney's clothes off by the time they ordered the hack stopped, at least I did not see many clothes on him when I first saw him on the ground. They had a bucket and a brush, and the deed was so on done.

A few minutes later Tarsney was left lying on the ground and the masked men re-entered the carriages few minutes later Tarsney, was and were driven to the Rock Island tracks. There they dismissed their drivers, not paying them but simply saying, "Good night, Johnny."

ORDERED OUT OF THE COUNTRY.

Driver Crumley says that after the tar and feathers had been applied, Tarsney was told to move on out of El Paso county; that he was not wanted either in Cripple Creek or Colorado Springs, and that if he ever showed up again he would meet a worse fate than a dose of tar and feathers. There was a meeting of twenty-five deputy sheriffs at Antler's park at 10 o'clock, and it is believed the plot against General Tarsney was hatched there.

A tremendous mass meeting of citi-zens was held at 10 o'clock, at which resolutions were adopted denouncing the outrage in the strongest lanney, who drove the hacks, have been placed under arrest. Crumley, who owns both hacks, says one masked man remained Tarsney, ostensibly to show him the way back to the city. Some of the men wanted to kill Tarsney, but their leader held them in check. Tarsney thanked this man and shook hands with him.

COVERNOR WAITE AROUSED. He Offers a Reward of $1,000 for the Perpetrators of the Outrage. ENVER, Col., June 25. - Governor Walte was greatly excited over the outrage committed upon Adjutant General Tarsney. He offered a reward General Tarsney. He offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of any of the participants, and at 10 o'clock said that unless Tarsney was found before meon he would increase the reward to $5,000. He also decided to go to the scene at once. Tarsney's wife and daughters were in the adjutant general's office, in the state house all merning almost in hysterics.

house all morning almost in hysterics.

Mr. Tarsney was appointed adjutant general of Colorado by Governor Waite and was the personal representative of the governor during the police board troubles when the militia were opposite the city hall. His undanned bearing at that time antagonized the police and their sympathizers, and it was freely stated that if shooting commenced he would be the first man to fall. In the earlier stages of the Cripple Creek trouble he was legal adviser for some of the miners and since the settlement of the strike had resumed his services in strike had resumed his services in that capacity. While the militia were in the field at Cripple Creek he was again the direct representative of the governor through whom orders were transmitted to General Brooks. In this service he found himself opposed once more to many of the men aligned against him at the city hall. The A. P. A. was bitter in its threats against him.

Much Comment in Washington Washington, June 25.—The tarring and feathering of Adjutant General Tarsney by the Cripple Creek deputies was much discussed among members of the house to-day. He was here recently and met many members of the house. He has been spoken of as a possible Populist nominee for congress in the district now represented by Representative Bell. If elected it would be the third Tarsney brother would be the third Tarsney brother to be sent to congress.

Representative Tarsney says that he had understood that his brother was in sympathy with the miners, although as adjutant-general he was at the head of the state militia and subject to the orders of Governor Waite.

Representatives Bell and Pence Colorado say that Tarsney and the militia had stood between the posse of 1,000 deputy sheriffs and the miners and had prevented the deputies from descending on the miners.

A KENTUCKY MIRACLE

JUDGE JOHN M. RICE TELLS HOW HE WAS CURED OF RHEUMA-TISM.

Crippled for Six Years With Sciatica Its Worst Form-He Expected to Die, But Was Saved in a Marvelous Manner.

From the Covington, Ky.. Post.

The Hon. John M. Rice, of Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, has for the past two years retired from active life as Criminal and Circuit Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial district of Ken-

He has for many years served his native county and state in the legislature at Frankfort and at Washington, and, until his retirement, was a noted figure in political and judicial circles. The Judge is well known throughout the state and possesses the best qualities which go to make a Kentucky gentleman honored wherever he is known.

About six years ago the bodily troubles which finally caused his retirement at a time when his mental faculties were in the zenith of their strength, began their encroachment upon his naturally strong constitution. A few days ago a Kentucky Post reporter called upon Judge Rice, who in the fol-lowing words related the history of the causes that led to his retirement. "It is just about six years since I had an attack of rheumatism, slight at first, but soon developing into Sciatic rheu-matism, which began first with acute shooting pains in the hips, gradually extending downward to my feet.

"My condition became so bad that I eventually lost all power of my legs, and then the liver, kidneys and bladder and in fact, my whole system became de-ranged. I tried the treatment of many physicians, but receiving no lasting benefit from them, I had recourse to patent remedies, trying one kind after another until I believe there were none

I had not sampled.
"In 1888, attended by my son John, I went to Hot Springs, Ark. I was not much benefitted by some months stay there when I returned home. My liver was actually dead, and a dull persistent pain in its region kept me on the rack all the time. In 1890 I was reappointed Circuit Judge, but it was impossible for me to give attention to my duties. In 1891, I went to the Silurian Springs, Wakeshaw, Wis. I stayed there some time, but without improvement. "Again I returned home, this time feeling no hopes of recovery. The muscles of my limbs were now reduced by atrophy to mere strings. Sciatic pains tortured me terribly, but it was the disordered condition of my liver that was, I felt gradually wearing my life away. I felt, gradually wearing my life away. Doctors gave me up, all kinds of remedies had been tried without avail, and there was nothing more for me to do but resign myself to fate. "I lingered on in this condition sustained almost entirely by stimulants until April, 1893. One day John saw an account of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in the Kentucky Post. This was something new, and as one more drug after so many others could not do so much harm, John prevailed upon me to try the Pink Pills. It was, I think, in the first week in May the pills arrived. I remember I was not expected to live for more than three or four days at the time. The effect of the Pills, however, was marvelous, and I could soon eat heartily, a thing I had not done for years. The liver began almost instantaneously to perform its functions, and has done so ever since. Without doubt the pills saved my life and while I do not crave notoriety I cannot refuse to testify to their worth. The reporter called upon Mr. Hughes, the Louisa druggist, who informed him that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been very popular since Judge Rice used them with such benefit. He mentioned several who have found relief in their
