REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the Sixth congressional district of the state of Nebraska are hereby requested to send delegates from the several counties comprising said district to meet in convention in the city of Broken Bow, Thursday, August 2, A. ### REPRESENTATION.

Blaine	Koyas	4
Boyd	Kelch	4

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the full vote of the delegation.

W. W. HARNET, Secretary.
M. A. DOUGHERTY, Chairman.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the Thirteenth senatorial district are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention at O'Neill, Neb., on the 1st day of September, 1894, at 2 P. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for senator from said district, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Benjamin Harrison for president in 1892:

Boyd	Holt	11
Garfield	Wheeler	2

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the absent votes of a county be cast by the delegates present.

CLYDE KING, Secretary.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the republican central committee at the court-house in O'Neill, July 7, 1894, at 2 o'clock P. M. All members are requested to be present.

JOHN MCBRIDE, Chairman.

The ballot should be the working-man's only battle-ax.

WILL McHugh allow his friend Bryan to wage the silver war unaided? Oh! Grover, why don't you speak?

PRESIDENT CARNOT, of France, was assassinated Sunday evening in Lyons by an Italian anarchist named Giovanni Santo.

SECRETARY GRESHAM would better shoot that senatorial bee away. There are already too many nondescripts in the senate.

QUAY and McPherson must feel a awful lonesome in the senate since they acknowledged having speculated in sugar stock.

THE Inter Ocean, which has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time, refers to congress as "sugar cured."

A FEW more murders like the one that France witnessed the other day and the doom of anarchy will be hermetically sealed.

In view of the fate of the Chicago platform it would be wise for the democrats to make their next campaign without any platform.

It should be unnecessary to say that the man who preaches anarchy and socialism is unfit to have charge of the education of children.

NOTHING can ever make a good citizen out of the fellow who professes to believe that it is a crime to be energetic, thrifty and prosperous.

THE old question of the need of a new white-house at Washington has been revived. The need of a new president is far more pressing at this time.

ACCORDING to our information and belief it will require more than a decision of the state supreme court to elect a democratic legislature in Illinois this year.

Now what do you pops think of Senator Allen, anyway? He votes a tariff on the sugar you buy here in O'Neill; the wool that you sell here in O'Neill he votes on the free list. Can any pop raiser of wool figure how he can make any money by this deal?

The free silver convention adopted the following resolutions which it will insist upon placing in the coming democratic state platform:

We favor the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the consent of any other nation.

EDITOR HOWELL, of the Atlantic constitution, is honest, if not politic. When asked why Georgia favored the income tax, he said: "None of our people have any incomes to tax."

The Washington police are barking up the wrong tree. The widest anarchist would not expect things to be destroyed faster than the democratic congress is doing the job.

THE jury that convicted Erastus Wiman had the old fashioned idea that to sign another man's name for the purpose of getting a check cashed was to commit forgery, whether it was the intention of the forger to repay it or not.

THE democratic senators could stand a little protection on almost everything but wool. The wool growers did not happen to control a democratic senator or two, so they got left. The wool growers have votes, however—nearly a million of them.

THE Rhode Island democratic state committee neglected, when it passed resolutions urging the democratic congressmen to support the policy of the administration, to say what that policy is, and nobody else has been able to find out.

"A. L. TOWLE is still cutting a pretty wide swath in the vicinity of O'Neill; he is extremely anxious to have some one engage in a joint debate with him, not having learned that the joint debate is a relic of barbarism. He has been throwing wads at Judge Kinkaid, but the judge has larger and more important fish to fry," says Walt Mason in the State Journal.

A NUMBER of papers are regretting the fact that John Mober failed to secure the appointment to the Alliance land office. We fail to locate the source of this sorrow. Maher is not a good democrat, a good republican or a good pop. He trims his sails to every political squall and consequently has no right to even ask official preferment. Obscurity is the proper abiding place for bugwumps.

THE Fremont Tribune has blown a blast on its trumpet warning republicans to beware of the free silver heresy, and the Tribune has a level head. Bimetallism is the proper thing until the United States can act in conjunction with other nations and secure free silver and do it properly. Republicans will make a mistake if they abandon their well beaten path of wisdom to chase a populist god into a jungle and get swamped.

THE calling of the senatorial convention for Saturday, September 1, brings to mind the fact that the republicans of this district have a responsible duty to perform in selecting a representative to make this fight. So far as we are aware there are no aspirants, and therefore no wire pulling. All that will be necessary this year will be to select a good clean man and his election is assured. The people of this senatorial district are growing weary of populism. We presume that Boyd county, being otherwise deprived of representation, will ask to name the man, and so far as this paper is concerned it is willing to admit that they can urge their claim with much reason.

BELOW we extract views of Secretary Morton as expressed in a letter written to a Johnson county democrat. We reprint the extract because the writer expresses views on the money question which cannot fail to be at least interesting at this particular time:

When a Johnson county farmer sells hogs he buys money. The party who pays him for those hogs sells money. The buyer of hogs demands the best quality of swine flesh. And the man who buys the money ought to have as much sense as the chap who buys the hogs, and demand, therefore, the very best quality of money. Whenever the farmer shall perceive that out of pork which he produces and sells at 2 cents a pound, the packer issues lard, bacon, hams and shoulders, which shall average him a net profit of 3 cents a pound, the farmer will experience a good deal of righteous indignation because of the inequality of the division of profits. But why should the farmer be any more wroth at seeing his pork bullion minted into hog product currency by the packer and circulated at a profit of 250 per cent, than he should be when the silver bullion owner, with free coinage, will be getting $1.29 an ounce for his silver while the miners have produced it at a cost of less than 60 cents an ounce? Silver bullion is today worth 62 cents an ounce, and if we were to have it coined gratuitously by the government for the owners, who will the owners be by the time free coinage is provided? Will the masses or the classes own the bullion at that joyful moment?

A FEW NOTES.

Following are a few straws found leaning by a press reporter at the silver convention:

It is plain enough that if the free coinage people capture the state convention Bryan can have the nomination for the governorship without asking for it. There were several people with jags that bore to sobriety the prevailing ratio.

Properly speaking it was not a convention. It was a mass meeting of a certain kind of folks.

Anyone could have told it was a democratic gathering by the reckless manner in which many of the delegates smoked and chewed until their attention was called to the desire of the hall managers not to have the place turned into a livery stable. About 15 to 1 took the hint.
