county, would like to accept the nomination for lieutenant governor. THE labor leaders who figured out a victory for the strikers use a system of mathematics unknown to ordinary folk.

"GIVE us no more of Debs" would be an appropriate addition to the prayer of the man who struck himself out of a job.

Ir seems that Hon. Henri Watterson is willing to swap his guardianship of the star-eyed goddess for an unspotted senatorial toga.

CONGRESSMAN BRECKINRIDGE, of Kentucky, says the newspapers have lied about him and slandered him. He may have been lied about but after his own statement under oath in Washington court it would not be possible to slander

THERE is one striking point of similarity between a Wall street broker and a Coxeyite-they both live at the expense of others.

Money and sentiment are both good things in their way, but neither should be allowed to determine the next republican presidential nomination.

THERE is some excuse when an ignorant man is led astray by high sounding talk, but when a man who claims to be a minister of the gospel publicly announces himself to be an anarchist, as Myron Reed, of Denver, recently did, there is no excuse-nothing but disgust.

Kinkaid is entitled to this delegation, and those who oppose him from merely personal reasons may learn in the sweet subsequent that 'twere better to keep hands off. Political conventions always afford opportunities for revenge but it generally comes at the expense of the

WHAT, in the name of the great horned spoons, was the sense of employing experts at enormous salaries to go over the books of the county officials if it was not the intention to settle by the report? Scott's first term shortage could have been settled by the board releasing the bondsmen from further responsibility on the first bond.

Some people who feel a burning desire to make Kinkaid walk a rocky road to Dublin should not lose sight of the fact that they are at the same time making war on Kinkaid's friends. An organized fight against Kinkaid will create a feeling here in Holt county that will take the party years to recover from. This is no idle fancy. We can see it cropping out in an hundred different places.

THE republican primaries over the county were held last Saturday, and so far as heard from the majority of the delegates are favorable to Judge Kinkaid | Reference First National Bank for congress. This is as it should be and we sincerely hope that at the convention next Saturday good council will prevail and he will receive this delegation without a struggle. He is entitled to it beyond question and the interests of the republican party of this county demand that it be given him.

THE shelving of W. D. Mathews by the Second ward republicans was retribution swift, sure and hard. His candicacy for delegate to the county convention offered his erstwhile friends their first opportunity to show approval of his land office record and they did it in a manner that deserves commendation. Mr. Mathews is the kind of a man of which an example should be made. The fact should be (and let us hope has been) impressed upon his mind that when a man is elevated to a public office he does not thereby become bigger than the party that elevated him, and when he turns a cold shoulder to his triends and gives the patronage of his office to the opposition he at the same time is digging his own grave. Mr. Mathews, do you realize where you are at?

THE second attempt of Scott's bondsanticipated, a dismal failure. . Scott offered to turn in securities to the amount of $50,000, and Treasurer Bartley offered to give $5,000 in cash, but the proposition was contemptuously spurned -upon advice from Harrington. The board did not even discuss the proposition or appoint a committee to investigate it, but arbitrarily rejected it. And why would Harrington advise the board to settle? Wouldn't a settlement knock him out of a three year's law suit? Is it not to his interest to keep this case at law as long as possible? Won't he get a fee of five or ten thousand before he releases his grip, or before the board gets onto his scheme? There was but one thing for the board to consider in this settlement and that was this: Was the $60,000 offer better for the county than a law suit, with the possibility of losing. It is safe to say that if judgment is finally obtained against this bond the amount collected will not exceed $25,000.

KAUTZMAN'S replies to our silver queries are characteristic. He opens with abuse and closes with nonsense. He says we know nothing about the money question, which may be true, but we see clearly from his article that it will be a long and weary period before we learn anything from him. What if the mine owner does make a profit of 40 cents on every dollar, would not the mine owners pay those dollars out to his employes, and they into the channels of trade, and as the volume of money increased wouldn't there be more demand for manufactured articles, farm products, more houses built, more idle workmen employed and prices gradually advance to a fair profit over cost of production for every other branch of industry," so says the financier. Perhaps an increase of circulating medium would not hurt the country in the least, but if you are going to make it one-half fiat, why not make it all fiat? And if you are going to make it flat what's the sense of using silver? Why not gather up the shells from the sea shore? It is immaterial whether silver went down or gold went up, it is sufficient for us to know that at the present time their is a difference in their values and they should be coined at a ratio that will make them equal.

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "I had kidney trouble and severe pains in my back, which was brought about by a cold contracted while in camp at Linnfield in 1862. I have been troubled more or less since that time and have been unable to do any heavy work, much less any lifting. I received only temporary relief from medicines. Last spring I had an attack of the grip, which left me with
