MOST PERFECT MADE. A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

—Mrs. Primm (putting Willie to bed)—But you have forgotten to say, "Give us our daily bread." Willie—Yes, mamma; but I don't want to eat while I'm sleeping.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I heartily recommend this remedy to all persons suffering from a like complaint. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamp is inclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability Wm. Roach, J. P., Primroy, Campbell Co., Tenn. For sale by P. C. Corrigan Druggist.

—When a man's wife comes in and sees him, razor in hand, and his face all lather and asks him, "Are you shaving?" it's a provoking thing in him to answer, "No, I'm blacking the stove."

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhoea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Edward Shumpik, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50 cent bottles of this remedy for sale by P. C. Corrigan Druggist.

Mother (entering parlor suddenly as the lovers turn up the light)—Ethel, you were sitting entirely too close to Mr. Getther when I entered. Ethel—Mother, you know well enough how afraid I am in the dark!

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. C. Corrigan Druggist.

ONLY FOOLED HER ONCE.

An Impeccuous Husband Forgot the Trick He Played on His Wife.

I have a friend who is comfortably well off, with a reasonable amount of good investments and a good salary, but he has a weakness for using money freely. He has also a good wife with "a frugal mind," and by a domestic arrangement she exerts a salutary check on the liberality of her spouse. Occasionally he exceeds his allowance and indulges in tricks on his "banker" to secure a little pocket money, for which he does not desire to render a strict account. Not long ago he needed a new hat and bought it, reporting to his good wife that it cost him $3, and that sum was duly charged by her to his personal expenses, while in fact he paid but $1.50 at a "mark-down" sale, and so had an equal amount to "blow in" without exposure. In a little time, however, the wife called his attention to the fact that his hat was looking shabby and suggested that he should get a new one, coupling the suggestion with the remark that the hat did not seem to have worn well, and he must exercise more care in his next selection. Having forgotten his "little game," the husband replied hastily that he thought the hat had done pretty good service for a cheap one. "You can't expect anything from a $1.50 hat."

"How's that?" says the wife, and forthwith she exhibited her account book with its charge of $3, and the husband was forced to confess his fraud and promise better conduct in future. There is peace just now in that family, but when he brings home a purchase the wife calmly but firmly asks him to turn in a receipted bill from the salesman.

THAT WONDERFUL BABY.

Not All Its Fond Mother Imagined, But Did Its Little Best.

The proud young mother had come to pay her first visit, accompanied by the infant son and heir and his nurse. "I don't wish to appear in any way partial," said she, "but really for a child of sixteen months I consider Algernon a marvel of intelligence. He understands every word and joins in the conversation with a sagacity that almost alarms me at times. Speak to the lady, Algernon."

"Boo-boo," said Algernon. "Listen to that!" cried the delighted mother. "He means, 'How do you do?'" Isn't it wonderful?"

"Now, Algernon, ask the lady to play for you (he adores the piano). Now, Algie, dear" (very coaxingly). "Boo-boo!" said Algernon.

"He means, 'music' by that. 'Boo-boo'—'music.' Isn't he too smart for anything? Now, love, tell the lady mamma's name."

"That's right. 'Boo-boo'—'Louise'! My name's Louise, you know. Oh, dear, I do hope he isn't too clever to live! Now, say by-by to the lady, precious."

"Boo-boo!" said Algernon. "Boo-boo"—'by-by.' Why, upon my word there's hardly any difference. Bless his little darling heart! Isn't he a wonder?"

The Coat Fitted.

A few days ago, while a gentleman was buying stamps at the Boston post-office, some one took his umbrella, as he believes, by mistake, and the loser put this card in the morning paper: "The kind friend who carried off my umbrella at the post-office yesterday, will bear in mind that the 'Gates of Heaven' are only twenty-four inches wide. My umbrella measures twenty-eight inches. At the other place he won't need it. Didn't Dives pray for just one drop of water? He had better return it to 208, chamber of commerce, and no questions will be asked." A few days later a boy brought in an umbrella, but, alas! not the advertiser's. He had caught the wrong man's conscience.

Appropriate Names. In looking over an old dictionary, a curious gentleman found the following names, than which it would be difficult to imagine any more admirably adapted to the professions or trades of the persons by whom they were borne: Dunn, a tailor; Giblet, Matton and Bull, butchers; Truefit, a wigmaker; Cutmore, an eating-house keeper; Boilit, a fishmonger; Rackem, an attorney; Whippy, a saddler; Bread-out, a baker; Coldman, an undertaker; Wicks, a tallow-chandler; and Bringlow, an apothecary.

His Money's Worth.

The minister of a certain Highland parish arrived at the church one stormy Sabbath to find that only one worshiper had braved the elements. Anxious to propitiate him the minister asked: "Shall I go on with the sermon, John?" John, gruffly—Of course. The minister got up into the pulpit, and, leaning over the book-board, inquired of John: "Shall I give you the Gaelic sermon or the English one?" John, more gruffly—Gie's baith; ye're weel paid for't.

The Bacillus of the Influenza.

The microbe of the "grip" otherwise the "influenza bacillus," was discovered by Dr. Canon of Vienna, who first detected it in the blood of one of his patients. It is a curiously shaped organism, many times smaller than the microbe of any other known germ disease, and was only revealed to the human eye by using a microscope with a magnifying power of over 1,000 diameters.

Very Simple.

In some parts of Mexico the party in power maintain their positions by throwing into jail their political opponents on the eve of an election. When the election is decided the disfranchised are released.

Prevention is better than cure.

and you may prevent that tired feeling by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will keep your blood pure and free from acid taint and germs of disease.

Tried and true is the verdict of people who take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The good effects of this medicine are soon felt in the nerve strength restored, appetite created and health given.
